DOUBT AS TO IT BEING RABIES.

JOSEPH HENDISCHIER'S COMPLAINT MAY BE NOTHING MORE THAN EXTREME NERVOUSNESS.

Whether Joseph Hendischier, who was reported to have been attacked by hydrophobia in Central Park on Sunday is in an early stage of that malady, or is suffering merely from extreme nervousness is uncertain. Warden O'Rourke, of Bellevue Hospital, said to a Tribune reporter late yesterday afternoon: "Hendischier is getting along all right, and the Bellevue physicians have diagnosed his case as one of hysteria brought on by fear of hydrophobia. He slept well last night, and drank a large quantity of milk, manifesting no repugnance to the fluid, as he would have done if he had been suffering from rabies. When the gag that was lightly tied in his mouth before he came here was removed by our doctors and the shackles taken from his wrists, the poor fellow said he was "glad to find some one who was not afraid of him." He has not been violent here nor shown any symptom of hydrophobia. A physician from the Pasteur Institute who visited him to-day seemed to agree with the diagnosis of our doctors and to think that his nervousness will disappear in a few days."

Dr. Paul Gibier, the head of Pasteur Institute, No. 1 West Ninety-seventh-st., said: "Two or three days will probably elapse before we can make a positive diagnosis of Hendischier's case. He is twenty-eight years old and a farmer of robust physique. Seven months ago he and two of his colts were bitten by a mongrel dog which had hydrophobia. The two colts died ten or twelve days ago. Hendischier then became apprehensive and came here for treatment. When he arrived he had no symptom of rabies, but was suffering from nervousness caused by fear and dread lest he also should die of the disease."

PICTURES OF AMERICAN HISTORY.

"America, from Columbus to the Columbian Exposition," is the title of a work to be presented at Chickering Hall on Saturday evening, November 24. It is described as "an historical allegory in music, picture and song." It is to be given under the auspices of the Daughters of the Revolution and is to celebrate the 111th anniversary of the evacuation of New-York by the British. The performance will be assisted by a chorus of 100 voices, a military band and soloists. The following programme is announced: The Voyage of Columbus and the Discovery—Music selected from "The Triumph of Columbus," chorus and orchestra; twenty-five views, chiefly selected from the works of Count Roselly de Lorgues and Marquis de Rellow; the Colonial period, the Virginians, the Dutch in New-Amsterdam, and the Puritans; antique music, vocal and instrumental, and sixteen historical views shown preceding the performance. The Revolution—Struggle for freedom, Paul Revere's ride; two new "tone pictures" for orchestra, composed for this production; forty views. Martha Washington's Court—The minuet and an old folksong; music preceded by one view. The War of 1812—Perry's victory, the Battle of New-Orleans; music, "The Star-Spangled Banner"; six views preceding the music. Westward Ho!—American folksongs; favorite songs of the time, preceded by three typical scenes of emigration. Allegory of the Civil War—The "Battle Fantasia," for orchestra and band, illustrated by fifty views, representing the uprising at the North and great battles. Apotheosis of Peace at the Columbian Exposition—Music, "The Processional March," from "The Triumph of Columbus"; views of American miracles of the nineteenth century and the Columbian Exposition.

AFRAID OF THE HNCHAGIST SOCIETY.

THE ARREST OF ARMENIANS BY TURKISH AUTHORITIES EXPLAINED—A PRECAUTIONARY MEASURE.

The report from Beyrout that a number of Armenians had been arrested on their arrival there from America on suspicion ...at they were conspirators whose object was the assassination of the Sultan caused much excitement in the Armenian colony of this city.

There are about 1,000 Armenians in New-York City, of whom about 400 are members of the Hnchagist Society, which is credited with having sent the conspirators.

"This secret society of Armenians," said a naturalized Turk, "has branches in every city in the United States, and it is looked upon by the Turks in the same light as the Nihilists are regarded in Russia. The object of the organization is to use force in freeing Armenia from Turkish oppression." When asked if he was a member of the organization he evaded the question and said: "We are far away from Turkey, but the spy system extends even to this country, and I know that if I proclaimed myself a Hnchagist to-day my people in Armenia would have to suffer for it, possibly not to-morrow, but certainly soon."

Dr. Nevden M. Boyajian was seen at his office, No. 47 East Twenty-eighth-st., and said: "The Armenians are a cruelly oppressed people, and when they come to a free country like this they realize the more the misery of their relatives abroad, and it is natural that they should band themselves together and try all fair means to better the condition of their country. But some are over-zealous; I refer to the Hnchagists, and their Anarchistic methods have caused even us, who are not members, to be looked upon as bad men."

The Turkish side of the question was given to a Tribune reporter by a man who is well versed in all matters pertaining to that country. He said: "There is no doubt that the Hnchagists sent people to the other side to murder the Sultan, and they will do so again. But the Turkish police are prepared to receive them, and there will be no assassination."
