IN FAVOR OF MAKING IT A REGIMENT.

OFFICERS OF THE 69TH BATTALION PLEASED WITH THEIR RECEPTION BY ADJUTANT-GENERAL M'ALPIN.

Lieutenant-Colonel James Moran and Captains Desmond, McCrystal and Healy, who, together with two other captains of the 69th Battalion, signed a petition to Governor Morton, asking that Lieutenant-Colonel Moran be placed in command of the 69th Battalion, went to Albany on Thursday morning for the purpose of laying their plans before Adjutant-General McAlpin and to enlist his services in their behalf. The meeting was arranged some time ago. The affairs of the battalion were discussed and General McAlpin paid close attention to the recitaioin of grievances which caused the officers to take the stand against their commander.

The Adjutant-General told the committee that he was in favor of the reorganization of the 69th as a regiment and that Governor Morton had also expressed himself in favor of the plan.

The committee came away feeling that its mission to Albany had been successful, and the members expect to hear news to their advantage from headquarters within a few days.

A battalion composed of Companies B, C, and D assembled for drill and instruction last night at the armory. Major Duffy was in command and expressed himself as much pleased with the work of the men.

RECORDER GOFF SCORES FELLOWS.

A DEFENDANT KEPT THREE MONTHS IN THE TOMBS WITHOUT A HEARING.

Recorder Goff had some criticisms to make on the District-Attorney's office yesterday in Part III of the Court of General Sessions. He had listened to a long argument by Ambrose H. Purdy in behalf of Mrs. Annie Bernard, who has been in the Tombs since December last, indicted for perjury. The alleged perjury consists in making an affidavit that she had not married a man of the name of Bergan before she met her present husband.

"It seems to me," said the Recorder, "that the District-Attorney's officers have made a grave error in not bringing this woman to the bar. It is well understood that prison cases should be given preference, and it is plain that some one has blundered badly. I will fix the bail at $100. If this defendant is not brought up for trial within a week I shall discharge her."
