SLIGHT REACTION IN STOCKS

BUT THE MARKET IS FIRM.

CONDITION OF THE FEDERAL TREASURY —MOVEMENTS OF THE WEEK IN STOCKS.

Sunday, May 5—p. m.

The United States Treasury received last week from customs $2,602,065, from internal revenue $2,567,169 and from miscellaneous sources $349,387; total from all, $5,518,621, against $6,184,081 in the preceding week. The weekly Treasury statement showed a decrease of $2,136,671 in the available cash in vaults and a decrease of $5,360,751 in the actual cash balance, which is now $180,053,235; deposits in National banks increased $52,492, and minor liabilities increased $3,224,080. The receipts for the fiscal year to date amount to $264,513,887, the receipts for the month to date $3,919,283, the expenditures for the month to date $6,068,733 and the expenditures for the fiscal year so far $311,962,766, the excess of expenditures over receipts being $47,448,879.

The principal weekly changes in the vault balances were made up as follows: An increase in the gold balance of $67,438, due to an increase in the coin and bullion item of $51,088, plus the decrease of $16,350 in the amount of outstanding gold certificates, which, of course, returned to the Treasury; an increase in the silver balance of $352,783, which is the sum of a gain of $228,174 in silver coin and bullion and a decrease of $164,609 in outstanding silver certificates; and a decrease in the legal-tender balance of $2,659,828, which is the sum of an increase in the outstanding currency certificates of $830,000 and a decrease in the amount of legal tenders in the Treasury of $1,829,828. Holdings of National bank notes increased $10,444. Treasury notes issued under the law of 1890 to the amount of $506,924 returned to the Treasury in the course of business, and the amount of these notes in circulation was decreased by this sum to $122,375,547. The Treasury's liability for the redemption of National bank notes decreased $314,151, and the deposits of lawful money on that account now are $26,912,361.

Subjoined is Saturday's statement compared with that of April 27:

The Treasury is short on its $100,000,000 in gold reserve $8,760,437, or it was so on Thursday night last, the conditions of which day are reflected in this statement.

BANK CONDITIONS COMPARED.

By the operations of the Sub-Treasury in this city during the week ending Friday night the associated banks gained $2,092,450. The weekly bank statement showed an increase in loans of $4,407,800, an increase in legal-tenders of $3,038,000 and an increase in specie of $1,524,300, the increase of total reserve being $4,562,300. The increase in loans is doubtless in commercial loans, and is decidedly encouraging from a business point of view. The specie item represents silver certificates, probably, as it has for some weeks past. It is not gratifying to see that the net deposits have received so liberal additions, but it is well known that money still flows this way from the interior. The result of all the changes during the week was an increase in the surplus reserve of $1,962,900, and the banks held in excess of legal requirements $27,233,575, against $25,270,675 the previous week and against $82,808,150 in the same week of 1894 and $12,835,175 in 1893.

The following are the changes for the corresponding week of the three preceding years: 1894—Loans increased $4,259,800, cash increased $630,300, deposits increased $4,840,400 and surplus reserve decreased $609,800. 1893—Loans decreased $262,600, cash increased $1,115,800, deposits increased $1,747,100 and surplus reserve increased $679,025. 1892—Loans increased $808,500, cash decreased $6,216,300, deposits decreased $3,954,000 and surplus reserve decreased $5,227,800.

Subjoined is Saturday's statement compared with the corresponding dates of the preceding two years:

The bank exchanges of the New-York Clearing House and the stock sold at the New-York Stock Exchange last week and for the same week of the preceding two years compare as follows:

	May 6, '93.	May 5, '94.	May 4, '95.
Exchanges	$897,188,129	$536,567,961	$664,097,383

THE MONETARY SITUATION.

Money was very easy, but there was increased demand for it from all departments of business. Some time ago the bank clearings of New-York ran along on the level of about $90,000,000; last week they ranged from $111,000,000 to $148,000,000. The following table shows the market rates as fairly as we can obtain them:

Date.	Loans.		Time-money.			Choice com. paper.
	On call	30 d.	3 m	4 m	6 m.	3 m.	4 m.	6 m.

Foreign exchanges were dull and easy. There were liberal offerings of bills against securities sold abroad, which satisfied not only current requirements from remitters, but allowed the syndicate to cover pretty fully their bills of sixty days ago. Following are the closing rates of the week:

	Cables.	Long bills.	Short bills.
Sterling	4.80¼	4.88@4.88¼	4.89@4.89¼
France	....	5 16@5 15	5 15
Reichsmarks	....	95@95	95
Guilders	....	40@40	40

Silver was a little weaker, owing to complications over the China-Japan situation, though yesterday it closed at 29⅝d. per ounce in London.

RAILWAY EARNINGS.

The Tribune has printed the gross earnings of seventy railroads or systems for the third week in April. Of these forty-two return gains of $342,576, or 8.3 per cent, and twenty-eight losses of $174,597, or 8 per cent. The whole shows a gain of $167,979, or 2.6 per cent.

The Tribune has also printed the gross earnings of twenty-four railroads or systems for the fourth week in April, of which twenty-one return gains of $375,242, or 13.2 per cent, and three losses of $10,952, or 1.6 per cent. The whole shows a gain of $364,290, or 10.3 per cent.

ON THE STOCK EXCHANGE.

The constantly increasing confidence abroad in American securities, the responding ease in foreign exchange rates here, and marked increase in the volume of general business as shown by the country's bank clearings, were noteworthy factors of influence on the Stock Exchange last week. In our judgment their combined influence, added to that of the strength in wheat, prevented the reaction in stock prices which so many shrewd observers had predicted as immediate and inevitable. Much interest is felt to know the amount of our securities sold abroad since Mr. J. P. Morgan, representing the bond syndicate, landed in England a few weeks ago. Foreign bankers, in close communication with London, estimate that Mr. Morgan himself has influenced the placing of about $15,000,000; it has been said that he would dispose of $20,000,000 before he gets back. Aside from the $32,500,000 in new 4s which were sold in London, "The Journal of Commerce" estimates foreign purchases within a short time (since February 14), as follows:

New-York Central debenture bonds	$3,500,000
Wabash refunding bonds	8,500,000
Minneapolis and St. Louis bonds	2,000,000
Southern Railway bonds	1,750,000
Chesapeake and Ohio bonds, about	1,250,000
Missouri, Kansas and Texas bonds, about	250,000
Manhattan Elevated Railroad bonds	8,500,000
Other bonds, estimated	5,000,000
Total	$31,250,000

The net movement in stocks is estimated at $2,500,000 in favor of foreign account, and the final total, including the new 4s, is $65,000,000. These statements, of course, are not on authority, but the guessers are shrewd. Mention must also be made of especially encouraging crop news, and of improvement in railway business everywhere outside the Granger districts, where everything awaits the harvests. Strikes somewhat interfered with business development, since the workingman cannot understand why his wages should not receive the benefit of "improved sentiment"; yet enterprise forges ahead, despite such obstacles, in some places feeling strong enough to grant its employes' demands. A truce, at least, was obtained for warring coal interests by the recommendation of the coal sales agents to mine only three days a week, and to observe the schedule of prices. This lends strength to the hope that before May ends some terms with Reading may be reached.

Movements on the Stock Exchange, despite the fact that traders were working for a reaction, have developed great strength in all directions. Prices were less buoyant, but it cannot be said that they were inclined downward. Most persons who hold stocks are not yet ready to sell. Doubtless many big holders got out at the recent advances; but somebody had confidence enough to take their holdings readily, and now their own attitude of being prepared to buy in again on the decline has of itself lent strength to the market. In activity the Industrials led the business, and their fluctuations were wide. The traders naturally turn to this group (in which speculation is so closely allied to gambling) when they think it wise not to fool with stocks which respond to legitimate conditions. Sugar touched 114, the highest point of the year, and closed at 113¾. More violent were the vagaries of the Leather stocks. Owing to an increased price in their raw material, they were entitled to some appreciation; but who will have the face to say that they are worth between $20,000,000 and $30,000,000 more than in February? Their tumble on Friday was easily explained. When stop orders were reached, out came the stock. Chicago Gas was more active than hitherto, and General Electric found some support in its annual report. A new combination in the cordage trade helped the Cordage stocks and bonds. For the Grangers, one can only say that they are doing a great deal better than there is reason for in the actual conditions surrounding them. The general railway list was much neglected, but remained firm. Strong interests marked up the Southern railways and some minor issues. The internationals held up well. Some one also took care of the anthracite coal properties. An effort seems on foot to make Reading shares touch a point which will render an assessment of $20 less discouraging. The following condensed table reflects the most interesting stock movements of the week:

The railway bond market remained active, with some noteworthy changes in price. Just what agitated the Northern Pacific bonds is hard to say, but their advance can hardly be attributed to a corresponding improvement in the outlook for the property. Nor is there any known reason why Chicago and Northern Pacific bonds should advance in face of that company's melancholy outlook for a profitable use of its property. Par value of sales for the week was $13,588,000. The following table shows the changes for the most active securities.
