ROTHSCHILD'S BOND REJECTED.

NOT ALLOWED TO GIVE BAIL FOR INSPECTOR M'LAUGHLIN—PROGRESS OF THE TRIAL.

Justice Barrett, sitting in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, yesterday refused to accept Jacob Henry Rothschild, of the firm of Meyer Jonasson & Co., as bondsman for Inspector McLaughlin, in substitution of Leo Schlessinger, who wishes to withdraw. The Judge's reason for refusing is said to be based on the fact that Rothschild has overestimated the value of the property he offered. Rothschild offered his house, No. 214 West Seventy-second-st., alleging that it was worth $80,000, was mortgaged for $3,500, and that he bought it a year ago for $60,000. The Judge said that property does not appreciate at the rate of $20,000 a year, and he refused the bond on that account.

The work of selecting a jury to try Inspector McLaughlin was resumed yesterday morning. There were then seven sworn jurors and four provisional jurors in the box.

Several talesmen were examined in rapid succession and disqualified because they had formed opinions on the case.

Finally the twelfth seat was taken provisionally by H. Richard Payne, secretary, No. 26 Broadway and No. 310 West One-hundred-and-fifteenth-st.

The prosecution then challenged peremptorily Frank Nickerson, the eighth provisional juror. The jurors all moved up a seat in the box, and the twelfth seat was once more vacant.

Several talesmen were examined and excused, and then the court adjourned till 10 a. m. to-day.

Mr. Friend said yesterday that Leo Schlessinger would remain on the bond.

MR. DENNETT TESTIFIES IN WHITEHEAD'S CASE

Robert C. Whitten, a juror, upon whose account the trial of Dr. E. Newton Whitehead ended abruptly on Friday last, he having asked an adjournment of the court because of his illness, seemed much improved when he took his seat in Part III of the Court of General Sessions yesterday morning.

A. F. Dennett, now superintendent of the Parkhurst society, told at length the story of the night he and Agent Webb hid in Whitehead's house for the purpose of listening to what Miesemer had to say to Dr. Whitehead about the Berthold girl. He told of Miesemer asking for $10,000, but did not hear Miesemer say that $5,000 was to go to Assistant District-Attorney Weeks.

The defence closed its case yesterday, and the summing up will begin to-day.

DISCUSSING STREET CLEANING FINANCES.

There was another meeting of the committee appointed by Mayor Strong to investigate the financial condition of the Department of Street Cleaning yesterday. Controller Fitch having consented to resume his place on the committee, it met in his office. Colonel Waring, Lieutenant Delehunty and Mr. Nixon were present, but on account of the absence of President Jeroloman of the Board of Aldermen, who is chairman of the committee, it was decided not to take up anything but the question of providing means to cover the deficit. The Controller at the close of the meeting said that the committee had looked into the question carefully and believed that a way out of the difficulty had been found, but that the details could not be made public, as certain persons must be seen beforehand. There will be another meeting of the committee to-morrow.

The other people referred to are believed to be the Mayor and President Jeroloman. It is thought that the Board of Estimate will act under the Emergency act and issue bonds to provide for street cleaning, on the ground that the health of the city would otherwise be endangered.
