A SMALL RIOT AT THE GAME.

THE CROWD WANTED TO ATTACK THE UMPIRE.

AN ENCOUNTER BETWEEN TWO PLAYERS—THE ONLY SCENE OF THE KIND AT A NEW-YORK BALL GAME IN A NUMBER OF YEARS—PITTSBURG WINS.

GAMES YESTERDAY.

Pittsburg 7, New-York 4.	Boston 17, Louisville 3.
Brooklyn 9, Chicago 6.	Cleveland 8, Philadelphia 7.
Baltimore 7, Cincinnati 1.	Washington 14, St. Louis 6.

There was a large crowd at the Polo Grounds yesterday to witness the game of baseball between the New-York and Pittsburg teams. Pittsburg won. As sometimes is the case in a crowd of that size, an opportunity presented itself for the unruly element to show its disapproval, and, egged on by a few rattle-brained players, the erratic decisions of an incompetent umpire and the rage occasioned by the probable defeat of the home team, served to cause a small riot. If such scenes are repeated the better class of people will not continue to patronize baseball.

Since mob rule reigned one day at the old Polo Grounds many years ago, when Umpire McLean was chased out of the grounds and through the streets by a crowd of hoodlums, such a scene as that of yesterday has not been witnessed at a local baseball game. The prompt intervention of the police alone saved Umpire Murray from probable serious injury from the mob.

The trouble began in the third inning, when Captain Doyle protested so vigorously over a decision at the plate that the umpire sent Doyle to the bench and Murphy went in to cover second base. This set the crowd wild with indignation, and poor Murray's life was made miserable during the remainder of the game. Had Murray decided differently, the Giants would have made a triple play and Pittsburg would have had one less run, that's all.

The trouble broke out again in the fifth inning, when New-York scored two runs. Three men were on bases for New-York, with nobody out, when Fuller sent an easy fly to Bauer. The second-baseman muffed it, and Farrell and Wilson started for the plate. Bauer made another error, a high throw over Sugden's head to the stand. Killen chased in to cover the plate, and he and Wilson came together with a crash. Both lost their heads and began to use their hands in true pugilistic fashion. The other players rushed forward, and fortunately no more blows were struck. In the melée Burke tried to hide the ball between his feet, and he was roughly pushed aside by one of the Pittsburg players.

Farrell seemed to be one of the few cool-headed players, and he soon prevailed upon the excited athletes to go back to their respective positions. Killen was severely spiked in the leg and retired from the game, giving way to Hawley. After the contest the crowd made a rush for Umpire Murray, but the police surrounded him and conveyed him under the grandstand, where he remained until the crowd dispersed.

Pittsburg won the game through superior all-around work, their field work being particularly brilliant and their batting strong and timely. Clingman, Beckley and Van Haltren made pretty fielding plays. The score:

BROOKLYN DEFEATS CHICAGO.

The Chicago team outbatted the Brooklyn nine in the game at Eastern Park yesterday, but lost all chance to win through amateurish work in the field. The playing of Dahlen, Everett and Donohue was particularly poor. The score:

OTHER GAMES YESTERDAY.

Washington, June 8.—To-day's contest was a hard-hitting one, and Washington clearly had the better of it. Ehret was wild, but only one of his numerous bases on balls counted in the run column. Some sensational fielding was performed by both teams, the work of Glasscock, Crooks, Abbey, Quinn, Ely and Dowd being particularly noteworthy. Stockdale relieved Anderson at the conclusion of the seventh inning and did well. Attendance, 2,500. The score:

Washington	4	0	1	0	4	1	0	1	3	—14
St. Louis	9	0	0	2	0	1	3	0	0	—6

Base hits—Washington 17, St. Louis 12. Errors—St. Louis 3. Batteries—Anderson, Stockdale and McGuire; Ehret and Peitz. Umpire—Long.

Baltimore, June 8.—Hoffer was a strategist to-day and the Cincinnatis got no more than one hit in any inning. The champions took kindly to Parrott's delivery and banged the ball hard. Spies was injured in the third inning. Betts's decisions caused Frank Bancroft to ask President Young for his removal. Attendance, 4,780. The score:

Baltimore	1	0	1	0	0	1	3	1	x	—7
Cincinnati	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	1	—2

Base hits—Baltimore 15, Cincinnati 9. Errors—Baltimore 2. Batteries—Hoffer and Clarke; Parrott, Spies and Merritt. Umpire—Betts.

Boston, June 8.—To-day's game at the South End was nothing more than a farce. Cunningham and McDermott lasted two innings each, and McCreary, who succeeded the latter, was wild as a hawk. Kemmer at third was little better than a cigar sign, and the crowd got its greatest pleasure guying him. The visitors could do but little against Nichols, who received superb support. Duffy worked the trap ball trick to perfection in the ninth inning with the bases full and no one out. Attendance, 3,500. The score:

Boston	3	5	3	1	3	1	1	0	x	—17
Louisville	0	1	1	0	0	0	0	0	1	—3

Base hits—Boston 13, Louisville 9. Errors—Boston 2, Louisville 4. Batteries—Nichols and Tenny, Cunningham, McCreary and Welch. Umpire—Emslie.

Philadelphia, June 8.—The home team rounded out a week of defeats this afternoon by losing to Cleveland in a ten-inning game. Knell was effective in the latter part of the game, but in the first six innings was hit rather freely. Thompson knocking the ball over the centrefield fence in the third and Delahanty cracking out a home run over the right field fence in the fifth. Burkett scored the winning run in the tenth, he making a single, stealing second, going to third on McKean's out at first, and tallying on Childs's single. Grady, of Philadelphia, and McGarr, of Cleveland, umpired in the first inning, McDonald, the regular umpire, not arriving until the inning was over. The score:

Philadelphia	0	1	3	0	1	2	0	0	0	—7
Cleveland	0	4	0	1	0	0	1	1	0	—8

Base hits—Philadelphia 9, Cleveland 13. Errors—Philadelphia 3, Cleveland 7. Batteries—McGill, Buckley and Grady; Knell and Zimmer. Umpires—McGarr, Grady and McDonald.

Providence, June 8 (Special).—Brown defeated Lehigh on Lincoln Field this afternoon, aided materially by the errors of the visitors. Brady occupied the pitcher's box for Brown and showed good speed and splendid control of the ball. Donovan for the home team put up a brilliant game at second, accepting nine chances without an error. Dunne played remarkably well behind the bat. His catch of a difficult foul fly and throw to second on an attempted steal resulted in a neat double play and was the feature of the game. Petrikin played in excellent form for the visitors. The score:

Brown	3	0	0	0	5	2	0	0	4	—14
Lehigh	0	0	0	0	1	1	0	1	0	—3

Basehits—Brown 12, Lehigh 7. Errors—Brown 4, Lehigh 9. Batteries—Brady and Dunne, Nevins and Goss. Umpire—Burns.

At Scranton—Providence 9, Scranton 6.
At Amsterdam—Amsterdam 14, Schenectady 9.
At Wilkesbarre—Springfield 14, Wilkesbarre 4.
At Syracuse—Buffalo 15, Syracuse 14.
At Elmira—Elmira 16, Binghamton 11.
At Rochester—Rochester 7, Toronto 5.

YALE DEFEATS PRINCETON.

EIGHT THOUSAND PEOPLE WATCH THE GAME.

THE NEW-JERSEY TEAM STARTS OFF IN GREAT SHAPE, BUT THE BLUE COLORS WAVE IN VICTORY AT THE END.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

Trenton, June 8.—Yale won the second game of the series here to-day by the score of 9 to 8. The contest was witnessed by the largest crowd that ever attended a baseball game at Princeton, fully 8,000 people being present. The special trains from New-York and Philadelphia were crowded with fair supporters of both teams and their escorts. The crowd began to besiege the gates at 1 o'clock, and at 3 o'clock the grounds were crowded all the way around the racetrack.

Princeton had the game won in the second inning, when they knocked "Long Dutch" Carter out of the box. Princeton thought the game was all over. In the very next inning Yale began to pull out of the rut, and by three hits and two bases on balls off Easton added three runs to their score, making it at the end of the third inning 7 to 4. Captain Brooks brought Altman in from centre to pitch, and sent Easton out to take his place. Easton was evidently badly "rattled," for he muffed his first chance, a high fly from Greenway, on account of which two runs were scored. Altman held Yale down well until the sixth inning, when three hits were made and four runs scored. Altman nearly fainted from heat and overexertion, and should not have been required to pitch the game. He has been out of the infirmary only a few days, and is weak. "Baldy" Wilson was put into the box, while plucky "Jake" Altman was being led off the field. Wilson pitched a good game, but one hit being made off his delivery. He is much cooler than Easton, and if he had been put in at first the result might have been different.

In the last inning Princeton had another chance to win out, when Smith got first on Rustin's error, and after Gunster all the heavy batters were coming up. Captain Brooks, however, ordered Gunster to bunt, which he did, popping the ball into Quimby's hands, who threw it quickly to Stephenson, catching Smith ten feet off the base.

Carter began the game for Yale. The second ball he pitched Payne knocked away out in right field for a home run, amid the wildest cheering from the Princeton "rooters." In the second inning nine Tigers batted, and six of them crossed the plate from five hits and three bases on balls, after which Carter retired to centrefield and Trudeau went into the box. After that the Tigers could scrape up but four scattered hits in the fourth, sixth, seventh and ninth innings, and in these innings but one run was scored, and that was in the seventh by Ward's hit and errors by Greenway and Carter.

Before the game started, while practising, J. Quimby split his finger by Rustin's swift throw, and Redington covered second. Otto and Trenchard were in collision in the fifth inning while trying for a foul fly, but neither was badly hurt. Score:

ORANGE ATHLETIC CLUB TEAM PROVES TOO STRONG FOR THE AMHERST UNIVERSITY NINE.

The Orange Athletic Club team played a good game yesterday afternoon with the Amherst University nine. Westervelt was in fine form, and struck out fourteen men. Thomas, the crack pitcher of the Amherst nine, sat on the benches and watched the fight. The game was a close and exciting one, the score standing 1 to 0 in favor of Amherst to the first half of the sixth inning, when the Orange team pounded Gregory for two singles, two two-baggers, and a three-bagger, bringing in four runs. Amid the wildest excitement, Orange went to the bat. Bliss doled at first, Westervelt got a single, and, stealing three bases, scored the winning run. The score:

OFFERED $10,000 FOR BREITENSTEIN.

Philadelphia, June 8.—Colonel John I. Rogers, treasurer of the Philadelphia Ball Club, stated to-day that the club will give $10,000 for the release of Pitcher Breitenstein, of the St. Louis team or for any other pitcher as good as he. Colonel Rogers further said: "I offered $10,000 yesterday for the release of Breitenstein, but Mr. Von der Ahe telegraphed back that he would not sell that player for any sum. We will give the same amount for a Rusie, a Meekin, a Nichols, a Hart, or a Hawley, if somebody will deliver one to us. We are doing all that lies in our power to get a pennant-winning team, and will pay down the money in cash any day anybody delivers such a pitcher to us. But the clubs having good pitchers will not sell them at any price."

Manager Buckenberger, of the St. Louis Club, corroborated Colonel Rogers's statement, regarding the offer for Breitenstein, and added that Von der Ahe might as well sell his entire team as to part with that pitcher, for should Breitenstein be released the St. Louis people would boycott the club.

REPAYING VON DER AHE IN KIND.

Washington, June 8.—The trouble between the Wagners, of the Washington Club, and Von der Ahe, of St. Louis, over the dissolution of the American Association resulted in a suit to-day by the Wagners. In that deal Von der Ahe made certain advances to the Cincinnati Club, which he claimed the other clubs in the Association were bound to pro rate with him. The Wagners were at that time owners of the Athletic Club, Philadelphia, and they paid their portion of the debt. Von der Ahe made no effort to collect from the old Washington Club management, but after the Wagners came to this city he held up by attachment their portion of the gate receipts at St. Louis until he had accumulated $2,134. To-day the Wagners entered suit against Von der Ahe in the local courts to recover that sum, and the portion of gate receipts due his club will be retained by the marshal. The Wagners say they have always been ready to have Von der Ahe's claim passed upon by a court, but they don't like the attaching process, and propose to give him a dose of his own medicine.

AN EXCHANGE OF PLAYERS.

Baltimore, June 8 (Special).—Manager Hanlon spent the day with Von der Ahe in Washington and on his return to-night announced that he had effected a deal by which the St. Louis club gives him Arthur Clarkson in exchange for Pitcher Kissinger and Bonner, general utility man. Hanlon has an idea that "Kid" Gleason is a better all-around man than Bonner, and proposes to use him, as he is doing now, on the bases when a player gets injured. Kissinger won one of the two games he pitched and was knocked out of the box in the other.

N. J. ATHLETIC CLUB'S NINE WON.

The New-Jersey Athletic Club's team defeated yesterday afternoon, on the New-Jersey Oval at Bergen Point, in an exhibition game, the Nyack Athletic Club's nine. The score:

RETURNS AFTER FORTY-FIVE YEARS.

A SON OF WORTHINGTON, WHO RUN AWAY IN 1850, COMES BACK TO HIS HOME.

Frederick K. Knight returned to his home in Worthington, near Tarrytown, the other day, after an absence of forty-five years. He ran away to sea as a boy, and brought with him a handsome young bride, whom he married in San Francisco. On August 9, 1850, he had sailed for Dublin on the brigantine Corsen as cabin boy, and in the course of his wanderings had some strange experiences.

OUTLAWS SURROUNDED IN A CAVE.

Guthrie, Okla., June 8.—Jennie Black and the wife of the outlaw, "Zip" Wyatt, who were with the "Bill" Doolin gang when attacked by marshals in the Glass Mountains, were captured and brought to the jail here last night. The cave in which the bandit train robbers took refuge is surrounded by the posse, and there is hardly any doubt of their capture. Two of the ten outlaws who robbed the Rock Island train several weeks ago were wounded in the mountain fight, and the horses of the whole band were killed. The marshals have been in close pursuit since the robbery, and killed two of the gang near Ingalls. George and Asbury Gentry, two of the most desperate outlaws who have operated in Georgia for years, have joined the Doolin band, their cognomen being "Come Lately Boys." Marshal Nix is determined to exterminate the gang.

THE WEATHER REPORT.

A "LOW" AREA FORMING IN THE WEST.

Washington, June 8.—The Eastern area of high pressure has moved from Western New-York northeastward, and is now central over New-Brunswick and Quebec. The Western area of high pressure remains stationary over Montana and Assiniboia. An area of low pressure is forming west of the Missouri Valley, and will probably develop into an extensive low area over the Mississippi Valley by Sunday night. The temperature has risen over Ontario, the Lower Lake region, the Ohio Valley and Southern Illinois. It has also risen over the Northern portion and British Columbia, a temperature of 94 degrees being reported from Spence Bridge. The temperature has fallen 10 to 20 degrees over the Dakotas, Northern Minnesota and Wisconsin. It has also fallen in Colorado and New Mexico. Cloudy weather prevails west of the Mississippi, and rain has fallen in the Central Gulf States and Arkansas, and also in Montana and North Dakota. In this city and vicinity slightly warmer weather are indicated for the lower lake region, the Middle Atlantic States and New-England, and slightly cooler, cloudy weather, with rain, is indicated for the Mississippi and Ohio Valleys.
