WHAT A CITY PASTOR SEES.

ITEMS OF PERSONAL INTEREST TO CHURCH PEOPLE.

The Rev. C. H. Tyndall, who has recently resigned the pastorate of the Broome Street Tabernacle, carries with him to Germany the degree of Doctor of Philosophy, which he received last week from the University of the City of New-York. Mr. Tyndall is a graduate of Williams College, but two years ago he received the degree of A. M. from the University, and now he has the added honor of Ph. D. His thesis was on "Nature as the Medium in the Revelation of Spiritual Truth." Mr. Tyndall has been the pastor at Broome-st. for six years, and during that time 289 members have been received into the church. The Tabernacle, between Broadway and the Bowery, is in the midst of a population that is rapidly becoming more and more foreign. It is the great centre of the Italian Colony in New-York, and yet the church is able to report an average attendance on Sunday evenings for the last year of 511. The morning attendance averages 142. Mr. Tyndall says in his little paper, "The Tabernacle Monthly": "For the whole six years the English-speaking Protestant people have been so rapidly moving out of this part of the city that we have no hesitation in saying that we believe that it would have seemed wise to close the Tabernacle several years ago, or change it into an Italian Church, had it not been for the blessing of God in suggesting to the pastor various methods of attracting and reaching the people, and for the earnest spirit of consecration on the part of the church members and loyal and most hearty support of all the work by the elders, and above and beyond all the increasing manifestation of the Holy Spirit in all the work. He has done this work and has been cementing our hearts together, till there was never such a spirit of unity in the church as at present."

"Boston, '95," is the rallying cry of the Christian Endeavor host throughout the United States and Canada. When New-York entertained the Endeavor people, three years ago, no other city had ever seen such an outpouring, but Boston hopes to eclipse New-York next month, when the fourteenth International convention will be held, beginning on July 10. Special Sound steamers and special excursion trains are ready to carry the young people to Boston. "The Golden Rule" is publishing a series of articles entitled, "'Welcome to Massachusetts,' showing the visitors some of the sights which they may expect to see. An extensive programme has been arranged for the great gathering.

While the Presbyterians are raising a million dollars in order to relieve the boards of the Church from the very pressing debts which are hampering their work, the Congregationalists are also making strenuous efforts to clear the debt of the Home Mission Society. At the meeting in Saratoga last week, General O. O. Howard, the president, offered to become one of 1,400 persons to raise the debt. In a letter to the friends of home missions he said: "I should be delighted to lead this roll of honor by my own subscription of $100." The suggestion was accepted at once, and "the General O. O. Howard roll of honor" is rapidly filling up. It was said at Pittsburg that while the boards had been compelled to contract debts during the financial depression of the last two or three years, it was not known that any special retrenchment in the way of Sunday dinners had been observed during that time. There are many ways to raise church debts, but none perhaps more efficient than that adopted by General Howard, who headed the list for the Congregationalists, and Dr. John Hall, who, out of his modest income, sent a check for $1,000 to the Presbyterian Committee.

"Downtown Methodism from the Standpoint of a Downtown Pastor" will be the topic next Monday before the New-York Preachers' Meeting (Methodist Episcopal) and the speaker will be the Rev. Dr. J. A. B. Wilson. It seems a pity that with such a topic and such a speaker the official notice should read: "The public not admitted." If there is one feature of Church work in New-York that the public should know more about than another it is the need of the downtown district and how that need may be met. It is idle to talk about saving the Roman Catholics of Italy and Hungary and the Jews the wide world over, or the foreigners of many faiths and without faith on our frontier until the hundreds of thousands of foreign people in this city have been supplied with the Gospel. The address of Dr. Wilson should have the widest possible publicity, instead of being delivered behind closed doors.
