AFFAIRS IN BROOKLYN.

DID HE MEAN WHAT HE SAID?

THE PROHIBITION CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR OF BROOKLYN MAKES A REMARK ABOUT MONOPOLIES.

Brooklynites were puzzled yesterday to get at the meaning of Freeborn G. Smith, Prohibition candidate for Mayor, as expressed in his letter of acceptance of the nomination, in which he says among other things: "The suppression of monopolies in the franchises of the people will meet with my positive disapproval." The full text of his letter is as follows:

J. C. Allen, esq., chairman Brooklyn City Prohibition Committee.

Dear Sir: In accepting the nomination of your committee as a candidate for Mayor of the city of Brooklyn on the Prohibition ticket, it affords me much pleasure to state that if elected to this important office it will be my earnest intention to do all in my power to further the interests of our party, and to carry out the principles set forth in the platform of your honorable body. The enforcing of the Sunday and other excise laws will always find in me an earnest adherent, and the suppression of monopolies in the franchises of the people will meet with my positive disapproval, believing them to be most injurious to the welfare of our Commonwealth. If elected as your Mayor, my sole purpose will be to serve the citizens of our great city in an honest, earnest and unselfish manner. Having no personal ambition to gratify, I shall at all times stand for pure government and the strict enforcement of our laws as recorded in our statutes, and here affirm my adherence to the Prohibition party as organized in our State and Nation. I have the honor to remain, yours truly,

FREEBORN G. SMITH.

Brooklyn, October 16, 1895.

THE PICTURES WERE TOO REALISTIC.

As a result of criticisms upon a number of nude studies in the art school exhibition in the Art Building, Colonel Henry T. Chapman, chairman of the Exhibition Committee, has ordered their removal. This caused a stir in art circles in Brooklyn yesterday. The exhibition is under the direction of the Brooklyn Institute, and among the artists interested are Walter Shirlaw, William M. Chase, J. H. Twachtman, J. Massey Rhind, Joseph H. Boston, William H. Snyder, Frederick J. Boston, Wedworth Wadsworth, Frank Squier, Erskine I. Waite, Robert J. Pattison, Miss S. M. Barstow, Miss Elizabeth R. Coffin, Mrs. J. W. Lumsdon, Mrs. M. R. Dixon, Miss Harriet S. Peck, Miss Louisa H. Hall, Miss M. E. Robinson and others. The Hanging Committee passed on the pictures, and it was thought there were none which were too realistic to offend the most delicate. In a room off the main gallery is shown the work of the life classes, the members of which draw from nude models. Friends of Colonel Chapman told him that in their opinion a number of these pictures could be withdrawn without in the least detracting from the merits or attractiveness of the exhibition. The criticised pictures were mostly done in charcoal.

A LAWYER JUST MISSED A THRASHING.

Harry Howard Dale, a lawyer, narrowly escaped a thrashing yesterday in Justice Laimbeer's court. Frederick Nieweiner, a milkman, was charged with assaulting his neighbor, Michael Condon. Dale appeared for the prosecution, and among other questions asked Nieweiner if he did not have the reputation of being a "skin." The question so excited the milkman that he jumped from the chair and with his left hand seized the lawyer by the throat and was about to strike him a blow in the face with his right hand, when one of the court officers seized him and pushed him back.

Considerable excitement prevailed among the spectators, and when quiet was restored Justice Laimbeer said he would not punish the prisoner for contempt of court, as the question put to him by Dale was an improper one, but would hold him guilty of the assault and impose a fine of $10. The fine was promptly paid.

WOMEN ROBBED THE POOR BOX.

Father John T. Woods, of Holy Cross Church, at East Broadway and Rogers-ave., hearing an unusual noise in the church lobby on Wednesday night during service, caught two young women standing over the poor box, which they had smashed and were ransacking. They ran up East Broadway at a lively rate, chased by the hatless priest. He gained on them and they dropped the money, $20, which Father Woods picked up. He described the thieves to the police.

NEARING THE DEBT LIMIT.

City Treasurer Kleley yesterday gave out a statement relative to the city's financial condition, the main features of which are as follows:

The borrowing capacity of the city on January 1, 1894, was $3,697,150 60. During 1894 there were issued bonds and tax certificates to the amount of $5,688,261; redeemed in 1894, $4,078,682 73. This showed a net increase in the debt of $1,609,678 27. The city will be $2,925,047 10 within the debt limit on January 1, 1896. There were sold during 1895 bonds and tax certificates aggregating $4,454,000; redeemed, $2,473,000. Net increase of debt in 1895, $1,981,000.

GATHERED ABOUT THE TOWN.

Ethel Oliver, of Groverstown, Ga., the young nurse arrested on Sunday last at the Methodist Episcopal Hospital for stealing from other nurses in the institution, was arraigned before Justice Walsh in the Adams Street Court yesterday for sentence, she having pleaded guilty to petty larceny on Monday. Her counsel asked permission to withdraw the plea, as she was probably a kleptomaniac. The Judge said he did not believe that he could grant the request, but would defer giving his decision until Monday. Miss Oliver was taken back to Raymond Street Jail.

Mayor Schieren yesterday, in a graceful note, accepted the resignation of Fire Commissioner Wurster. A successor will, it is expected, be appointed to-day.

James Downey, a carriage dealer, of No. 446 Atlantic-ave., reported to the police yesterday that a stranger came to his place on Wednesday and ordered goods worth $600 sent to the Pennsylvania station. He paid for them with a check, which Mr. Downey, by inquiring at the Franklin National Bank, in New-York, found to be a forgery.

President Rossiter yesterday announced the intention of the Brooklyn Heights Railroad Company to build a large two-story brick and stone central station at Box and Clay sts., in the Eastern District.

County Auditor Kellar yesterday announced that he should refuse to audit the bill for researching the title to the St. Johnland Farm, out of which the ring Democracy made millions of dollars by swindling the taxpayers. The bill is for $7,998, and George F. Elliott, counsel to the Board, when asked about it by a Tribune reporter on Monday night, said it was not excessive.

Two strangers kept Miss Mittie Constans busy answering questions while she was alone in her father's hardware store, at No. 229 Bridge-st., yesterday, while a confederate stole $50 from the safe.

Patrick Fitzpatrick, sixty-one years old, of No. 106 Front-st., while driving a balky horse yesterday afternoon, was thrown from his seat, and received an ugly gash on the head and a bruised shoulder. Ambulance Surgeon Mahr, of the Eastern District Hospital, dressed the wound and removed him to his home, where the old man was informed that his son had died suddenly at his home in New-York an hour before. Despite his injuries, the old man insisted on going to New-York and claiming the body.

REPORT LAID ON THE TABLE.

THE NEW-JERSEY SYNOD DECLINES TO REBUKE THE NEWARK PRESBYTERY FOR SUPPORTING A STUDENT IN UNION SEMINARY.

A vigorous discussion was had by the Presbyterian Synod of New-Jersey, in session at New-Brunswick yesterday, over the question of the approval of the minutes of the Newark Presbytery. This Presbytery is supporting a student at the Union Theological Seminary, which is under the ban of the General Assembly. The minutes of the Presbytery showed that a resolution had been offered instructing the student to study in "an approved seminary," but it had been lost by a vote of 12 to 26. A committee of the Synod recommended the approval of the minutes of the Presbytery with the exception of the above section, and in reference thereto "urged the Presbytery to pay attention to the action of the Assembly."

It was moved finally that the portion of the report of the committee referring to the matter be laid upon the table. This was carried by the close vote of 59 to 54. An unsuccessful effort to reconsider was made later.

The Synod will meet next year at Atlantic City.

THE "HIGH TEA" FOR THE SETON SANITARIUM

The "high tea" given yesterday in the dining hall of the Madison Square Garden, for the benefit of the free patients of the Seton Sanitarium for Consumptives, was well attended. The hall was tastefully decorated, and in the course of the afternoon and evening was visited by many New-York society people, who wished to help along the good work of the sanitarium.

Among those present at the tea yesterday were Mrs. Tiebaud, Mrs. John D. Crimmins, Mrs. Van Rensselaer, Miss Van Rensselaer, Mrs. Adrian Iselin, Mrs. Ceballos Sanz, Miss Giulia Morosini, Mrs. Brockholst Cutting, Dr. J. West Roosevelt, Dr. J. J. Cronin, Dr. L. L. Lumsden, J. O'Connor, R. G. Wolf, H. J. Mittell, J. L. Smith and Mr. Lummis.

The Seton Sanitarium is situated on the heights above Spuyten Duyvil Parkway. The general management is in the hands of the Sisters of Charity. The institution is almost wholly dependent on charitable contributions, as only a few beds have been endowed, and the charges for patients are scarcely more than nominal. The desire is to put its treatment within the reach of persons of modest means, and as many free patients as possible are received. The physician in charge is Dr. J. West Roosevelt, who examines all applicants and decides whether treatment is likely to be beneficial.

OPENING OF THE OHIO ATHLETIC FIELD.

The Ohio Society of New-York has accepted an invitation by Chancellor Henry M. MacCracken to attend in a body the ceremonies of the opening of the Ohio Athletic Field at University Heights to-morrow afternoon. The field will be named in honor of the society because of the assistance given by that body in establishing it. Mayor Strong, who was president of the Ohio Society when the movement for the establishment of the field was started, will preside over the ceremonies to-morrow.

GUS PHILIPS'S WIDOW UNDER ARREST.

Marion Philips, alias Marion Weston, the widow of Gus Philips, the character actor, who was widely known under the stage name of "Oofty Gooft," is in custody charged with grand larceny. The complainant against her is A. L. Knight, a lawyer, at No. 32 Nassau-st., who lives at No. 119 Ashland Place, Brooklyn. He met the woman Wednesday evening in the street and was induced to accompany her to her apartments, at No. 236 East Thirty-fourth-st., where she drugged his drinks and robbed him of $23 in money, a gold watch and chain, a gold ring and gold sleeve buttons. The woman is a notorious crook and has already served terms in State prison for robbery and forgery.

LEMONS SOLD AT LOW PRICES.

There were 2,000 boxes of Malaga lemons sold at wholesale auction yesterday for from $2 85 to $3 a box, against from $3 25 to $3 75 a box, the prices realized at the previous sale. This marked decline is attributed to the inferior quality of the lemons, which were said to be almost juiceless. The stock in the market is limited and few are expected to arrive before the new Sicilian crop begins to come in, when they will rapidly become plentiful and cheap.

GUESTS AT LEADING HOTELS.

The leading hotels about held their own yesterday in the number of arrivals. There is nothing of special moment going on in the city just now to crowd the hotels, and their proprietors are now looking forward to the opening of the horse show.

CONDITION OF THE IRON TRADE.

Cleveland, Oct. 17.—"The Iron Trade Review" today says: "Quietness unequalled in months has marked the iron trade the last week so far as buying is concerned. At the same time mills are shipping enormous amounts of material and the current output of blast furnaces, all going into immediate consumption, is the largest in three years. While the current rate of pig iron productions is equivalent to a yearly output of from 10,500,000 to 11,500,000—according as the Eastern or Western statistics of active furnaces October 1 are taken—there was a net reduction of 43,000 tons in unsold stock of coke iron, in the month of September. This heavy consumption supports the belief that the wait of the last four weeks is not likely to be greatly prolonged. Furnaces on foundry iron find that their customers want shipments fully up to contract rate, and in many cases iron cannot be got to foundry yards fast enough. Lake Superior charcoal is probably the firmest factor in the market. While Lake Superior furnaces have not advanced in unison, and there have been conflicting transactions in the last two weeks, the probability of higher prices in the coming winter has made sellers quite firm. Sales have been light the last week, at $15 50@$16, with several furnaces still holding the latter figure as minimum. Bessemer has sold in small quantities at $14 to $14 50 in the valley, but furnacemen still refuse to take any hand on the basis of the month's sales of speculative iron.

"Steel billets are following the Bessemer market."

MILK CASES MAY BE APPEALED.

President Wilson, of the Health Board, announced yesterday that he would take steps to have an appeal taken from the reversal by the General Term of the Supreme Court of the conviction of Victor Bender for selling adulterated milk.

THREE COUNTERFEITERS PLEAD GUILTY.

Frank Carr, Albert Brown, Harry Kindgen and Belle Carr, all members of a gang of alleged counterfeiters of silver dollars, who were arrested by Secret Service agents at No. 339 East Seventy-first-st. on July 10 last, were arraigned for trial in the United States Circuit Court before Judge Brown yesterday.

The three men pleaded guilty, and were remanded for sentence. Belle Carr was discharged.
