SAYLES WANTS HIS MONEY.

AN APPLICATION FOR FORFEITED BAIL.

THE BOND WAS GIVEN FOR ALDERMAN HENRY SAYLES, OF THE "BOODLE" BOARD—RECORDER GOFF DOUBTS HIS AUTHORITY TO GRANT THE RETURN OF THE MONEY—CITY AUTHORITIES TO BE CONSULTED.

Ex-Surrogate Rastus S. Ransom appeared before Recorder Goff yesterday in behalf of Soloman Sayles, who went bail for his brother Henry, a member of the "boodle" Board of Aldermen in 1884. When Alderman Henry Sayles went to Canada without standing trial for the accusation of bribery in connection with the granting of the franchise to the Broadway Surface Railway the bail furnished by his brother was forfeited. Ex-Judge Ransom made application for the return of the forfeited bail money yesterday. Mr. Ransom said that when the bail of $25,000 was forfeited Soloman Sayles got a lien on his property and promptly paid the money to the city. Mr. Sayles's business, he said, was impaired by the lien, and the men with whom he did business objected to continuing their relations with him while that judgment was not removed.

District-Attorney Fellows, he said, recommended the dismissal of the indictment on June 13, 1890, as the people never intended to try the defendant, Henry Sayles, as there was not sufficient evidence to secure a conviction.

Mr. Ransom asked for the remission of the forfeiture, as Henry Sayles had been produced after the forfeiture and announced his readiness to stand trial.

The Recorder said he did not know whether or not he had the power to grant the application. He asked Mr. Ransom if the power was statutory.

Mr. Ransom said he was not prepared to give any opinion on that matter; he had assumed that the Recorder possessed the power. District-Attorney Fellows said that if the judgment had not been executed the court had the power to remit the forfeiture, but when the execution was satisfied he believed it was a matter that should be submitted to the Controller and Corporation Counsel.

In this case the judgment was promptly satisfied before the return of Henry Sayles. He came back after the Court of Appeals had thrown out much of the evidence on which other convictions had been gotten, and after a jury had failed to convict one of the accused Aldermen. The counsel must satisfy the Court that he had such power. The money had passed into the common treasury of the city. Only one power outside of the Legislature could appropriate money from the Treasury. That is the Board of Estimate and Apportionment. He thought the motion should go before another tribunal.

The Recorder said that the Controller, the City Chamberlain and the Corporation Counsel should be present at the hearing of the application and have time previously to look into the matter, so next Friday was set as the day to hear the motion.

SENATOR HILL AND GOV. MATHEWS.

FRIENDS OF THE INDIANA CANDIDATE CURIOUS ABOUT HIS STRENGTH IN NEW-YORK.

Chicago, Nov. 29.—An Indianapolis dispatch says: "An effort is being made to have the date of the Democratic State Convention changed from December 11 to December 5, the date of David B. Hill's lecture here, one of the arguments used being that the presence of Hill will bring together many leading members of the party. There is a good deal of curiosity to learn what support, if any, Indiana may expect from New-York for Governor Matthews for President. The home friends of the Governor have an impression that the New-York Democrats are looking upon the Indiana man not only as a possibility, but as a probability. Friendly relations exist, and it is expected the visit of the New-York Senator will bring additional encouragement."

AN ELECTION INSPECTOR ACCUSED.

CHARGED WITH ALLOWING INMATES OF A CHARITABLE INSTITUTION TO VOTE.

An interesting election case was heard by Magistrate Brann in the Harlem Court yesterday afternoon, when Eugene Frayer, a member of Good Government Club B, charged James D. Arey, chairman of the Board of Election Inspectors, in the Thirty-fourth Election District, of the XXIst Assembly District, with allowing the inmates of a charitable institution to vote at the late election in defiance of the law to prevent such persons from voting.

According to the complaint, thirteen inmates of the Home for Aged and Infirm Hebrews applied at the polling-place, No. 922 Columbus-ave., to vote. Their votes were duly challenged by Mr. Frayer, who was watcher at the polls, but twelve of them stood the examination, made oath to the proper questions and were allowed to vote.

Moritz Helm, superintendent of the home, testified that the institution was supported by contributions and donations, but he acknowledged that it received from $350 to $500 a year from the excise fund. All the other support came from private sources. He added that the institution was not responsible for the acts of its inmates, who came and went at will.

The case was adjourned to December 12, at the Morrisania Court.

MR. TANNER'S MISSION TO WASHINGTON.

Chicago, Nov. 29.—John R. Tanner, who recently resigned the chairmanship of the Illinois Republican Committee in order to enter the field for the Gubernatorial nomination, left here for Washington. Mr. Tanner announced that he will avoid conferences with Presidential candidates, or their agents while in Washington. He said this in response to a hint that his mission to the National capital was of such a character as to lead to such conferences. Asked as to the reason for his sudden departure for Washington, Mr. Tanner promptly said that he had an ambition in regard to the Congressional delegation from Illinois, and that was that it should be Republican without a break.

"I am so anxious to see the Rinnaker and Belknap contests against Downing and McGann settled in favor of our men that I am going down to Washington to do all in my power toward bringing about the seating of Mr. Belknap and General Rinnaker. By the time these contests are settled the date of the National Committee meeting will have arrived, and, of course, I will remain for that."

"Do you think that Chicago will get the convention?" he was asked.

"I can only say that I am determined to do all I can toward bringing the convention to Chicago. My services will be placed at the disposal of the National Committeeman W. J. Campbell. He will go to Washington, doubtless, strengthened with such assurances from the local committee, headed by Mr. Pearce, as will have due weight with the National Committee."

THE MAYOR AT HIS DESK AGAIN.

Mayor Strong and Secretary Hedges, who returned from Atlanta on Thanksgiving morning, were yesterday back at their desks in the City Hall looking refreshed and reinvigorated by their Southern trip. The Mayor found so much pressing business on his hands yesterday that he had little chance to talk about his reception at Atlanta, the glories of Manhattan Day or the wonders of the great Exposition.

General McCook, who went with the Mayor, was also back at work yesterday.

THE FUNERAL OF GENERAL JORDAN.

SERVICES IN ST. FRANCIS XAVIER'S CHURCH LARGELY ATTENDED—FATHER CAMPBELL PRONOUNCES A EULOGY.

The funeral of General Thomas Jordan was held yesterday morning at St. Francis Xavier's Church, and was largely attended. A low requiem mass was celebrated by Father Campbell, rector of St. Francis Xavier's Church, who was assisted in the services by Father Denny, an intimate friend of General Jordan. Following were the honorary pallbearers: General Horace Porter, Colonel A. G. Dickinson, commander of the Confederate Veteran Camp of New-York; Colonel Clifton H. Smith, formerly of the staff of General Beauregard; Dr. John A. Wyath, formerly of General N. B. Foust's Cavalry of the Confederate Army; General Carlisto Garci, former commander of the eastern division of the Cuban Army in the revolution of 1868 and 1870, when General Jordan was chief in command; Dr. E. V. Argramante, who was General Jordan's companion in the escape from Cuba in an open boat; Judge Edward T. Bartlett, of the New-York Court of Appeals; John H. Inman, William J. Marrin and W. P. St. John, president of the Mercantile National Bank of New-York.

A guard of honor made up of Confederate veterans under command of Colonel Charles E. Thorburn and Cuban patriots under Gonzalo De Quesada followed the hearse. After the mass the celebrant, Father Campbell, delivered an eloquent eulogy.

On the coffin were placed several magnificent floral tributes from the Cuban friends of the General. One was a pillow of roses, in the centre of which the flag of the Cuban Republic was fashioned in red and white pinks. The other was a design constructed in the shape of the new Cuban National emblem.

The burial was in the Confederate Veterans' lot in Mount Hope Cemetery.

THE ORIGINAL OF GEORGE HARRIS.

PROVISION TO BE MADE FOR THE DESTITUTE OLD MAN AT LEXINGTON, KY.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 29.—The police have investigated the case of the destitute old man, Lewis George Clark, who claims to be the original of George Harris, in Mrs. Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and find that he is actually the man who furnished Mrs. Stowe with the facts on which she founded her story. Miss Frances E. Willard, president of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, who is visiting here, has taken much interest in Clark's case, and a National fund will probably be raised for his maintenance during the remainder of his life.

THE TRADE IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, Nov. 29 (Special).—Wheat to-day was firm, largely because it was up at New-York and St. Louis. The buying was by shorts, especially those who sold Wednesday on the talk of large deliveries by Armour and on the talk of the McGeoch suicide. December opened at 60⅝, sold between 60 bid and 61 sellers, and closed at 60⅝@60⅝c. In spite of the advance there was some widening of the December-May spread, 4⅝ to 4½ cents at the close. Cables were steady. There was the prospect of extremely cold weather under zero. Estimates were that the visible supply next Monday would increase less than 1,000,000 bushels. The newspapers had some excited messages from Constantinople, but they were offset by higher consols. Seaboard clearances were large, about 600,000 bushels. Minneapolis and Duluth receipts were large, 1,111 cars for two days. The incident of the day was the sale by Armour of 500,000 bushels of No 1 Northern wheat at ⅛ cent over December. The sale was not for shipment, but was to other elevator people. The pit traders were affected by large purchases of wheat by Linn, an influential floor trader, and there was some talk to the effect that he had turned on the market. Advices from Minneapolis were that some of the mills up there would soon shut down. The output at the Northwestern mills for the week was the largest on record.

Corn was a shade easier for nearby futures and a shade firmer for May. November closed at 26⅝. December at 26⅝ cents both ⅛ cent under Wednesday. May closed at 29 cents, ⅛ cent over Wednesday. There was a fair shipping demand from the seaboard, but it was altogether for No. 3 corn. The inspection was 245 cars; the estimate for Saturday, 510 cars. Cables were steady. Seaboard clearances were 342,000 bushels. The weather was through Illinois was wet, but will be dry and colder by to-morrow.

There was nothing doing in oats further than changing. Outsiders were selling December and buying May. Elevator people were doing the other thing. The result was an easy tone for December and a trifling advance for May. The latter sold between 20¼ and 20½, and closed at 20⅜@20½ cents, December closed at 17⅞ cents. The inspection was 132 cars; the estimate for Saturday, 250 cars.

Provisions suffered but little from large hog receipts. For two days there were 58,000 hogs; the estimate for Saturday was 27,000. Lard and ribs lost 2½ to 5 cents; pork lost 7½ cents, but recovered it. It is expected provision stocks next Monday will show about 90,000 barrels of pork, about 28,000 tierces of lard, and about 18,500,000 pounds of ribs.

On the curb puts on December wheat closed at 60⅝ cents; calls at 61 cents. Puts on May corn closed at 29⅛ cents; calls at 29 cents.

THE GENERAL MARKET REPORT.

New-York, November 29, 1895.

COTTON—The news from Liverpool was in the main disappointing. The market there yesterday closed with a net advance of 2 points, after having sold up about 4 points from Wednesday's closing, while the market to-day closed about 20@3 points better than the old Wednesday. There came less active and during the afternoon there was a much quieter feeling. The foreign markets were quiet and fairly steady and there was some foreign buying. There were reports of good cable acceptances, and the statement that late Wednesday afternoon a cargo of nearly 100,000 bush of hard spring wheat was taken, gave confidence to the buyers. The weather through the West was good. "The Price Current" says that the rains have improved the growing wheat, and if the severe weather can be delayed for a few weeks the crop will enter the cold period under fairly satisfactory conditions. Receipts of spring wheat were 1,711 cars to-day, covering the movement for two days. Interior receipts of wheat at spring wheat markets to-day were 1,154,143 bush, against 625,748 bush last year; winter, 43,554 bush, against 77,704 bush; seaboard receipts, 782,127 bush, against 226,744 bush; total, 1,979,824 bush, against 934,196 bush; exports, 474,469 bush, against 120,930 bush. The late afternoon market was somewhat less active than during the morning. Trade was scattered. Some little interest was awakened to-day in the March delivery, that position developing in favor on the theory that with the end of the winter stocks would be reduced so low that it would be possible for advance quotations easily. The close of the list was firm, near the top, at ⅝@⅞c net advance. The cash market was quiet to-day. The sales reported were 88,000 bush late Wednesday at ¼c over May, f o b store. December 15,000 bush, private terms; 20,000 bush No 1 Northern spring, private terms, and 16,000 bush No 1 hard Manitoba, private terms; No 1 Northern was quoted on the spot at 1⅞c over December f o b afloat; December closed at 65c; No 1 hard at 3¼c over December f o b afloat, and No 2 red at ¼c over.

CORN—The market for corn was quiet but fairly steady. Prices were advanced a little during the morning in sympathy with the rain in wheat, but trade was not large and the interest displayed in the market was light all day. In the afternoon the trade was small, with the feeling slightly easier. The receipts of corn to-day at primary markets were only 239,000 bush, against 680,000 bush last year, while the exports were 253,000 bush, against 9,000 bush. The falling off in the movement at the interior and the maintenance of large exports is looked upon as likely to have an effect on prices very shortly if the present conditions are maintained. The market closed at unchanged to ⅛c advance. Cash corn was quiet. No 2 sold at 36½c delivered; 64,000 bush at 36⅝@36⅞c f o b afloat, and 2c over January as to time; January closed at 34⅝c, and 8,000 bush of yellow at 38c f o b afloat.

OATS—Oats were very quiet but fairly steady. Interest in corn is slack enough, but interest in oats is even less proportionately than the interest in corn. Outside orders are few and speculation unimportant. The close was at unchanged to ⅛c advance. Cash oats were quiet. Sales were 35,000 bush, as follows: 4,000 bush I P No 2 at 23c elevator, 24c delivered; 30,000 bush track white, 24@27c, and 1,000 bush rejected mixed; 1,000 bush at 22c delivered. No 2 white was quoted at 24c.

BARLEY—The market continues dull and prices are unchanged at 39@48c for the entire range.

RYE—There continues to be very light trading in this market at 42@43c for carlots.

MALT—Market quiet and quoted at 50@55c.

BUCKWHEAT—Market steady; prices for prime State are 41½@41¾c.

HEMP AND JUTE—The market was dull and nominal for manila and sisal hemp with late prices still ruling. Jute and jute butts dull, with prices ruling in buyers' favor. We quote: Manila hemp, spot and shipment, 4⅝@4¾c; sisal, spot and shipment, 3⅞@3¾c; jute, spot, 2½@3¼c, shipment, 2 3-16@2½c; jute butts, paper quality, 1 1-16c; mixing and bagging nominal; jute butts, shipment, paper quality, 1 1-32c; mixing, 1 3-16@1¼c; bagging, 1¾@1¾c.

HIDES—The market for dry hides is inactive, buyers and sellers holding off. Tanners do not seem to be in need of much stock at the moment, while on the other hand sellers seem to be indifferent about selling unless at full prices. City slaughters are dull, weak and nominal. We quote: Dry, Cordova, 22c; Buenos Ayres and Montevideo, 21c; California, 17c; Matamoras, 15@16c; Orinoco, 17c; Bogota, 15@16½c; Central American, 15@15½c; Galveston, Puerto Cabello and La Guayra, 15c; Rio Grande, 19½c; Corrientes and Colombia, 19c; wet salted Havana cattle hides, 7½c; city slaughters, spready, 10½@10c; native steers, 7½@8c; butt brands, 6½c; side brands, 6c; Texas, 5c; bulls, 6½c; cows, 6½c; country slaughter, nominal; calf, $1@$1 40.

LEATHER—There was quite a fair and steady demand from exporters for hemlock, with the local trade light. Union tanned was in light demand and weak for heavy weights, but steady for light weights, owing to the light supply. Belting buyers were lower or about 4c off on No 1, with the market unsettled. We quote: Hemlock, non-acid, first selection, 24c; seconds, 23c; damaged, 21c; acid, 21½@21c; seconds, 21@22c; damaged, 20@21c; rejects, 20c. METALS—TIN—The metal market shows a quiet feeling, with tin somewhat lower on easier advices from abroad. Spot quotations were officially dropped to $14 22½@$14 27½ at the close. COPPER—The steady offerings by the mines and the somewhat spasmodic demand is steadily working adversely, and spot quotations have been reduced to 10⅞@11c for lake ingot. LEAD—Market quiet with spot steady at 3.25@3.27½c. SPELTER—Market quiet at $3 50@$3 55. IRON—
