ON THE STOCK EXCHANGE.

Monday, January 20—P. M.

The stock market was dull and unsettled today. At the opening prices fell off fractionally, but the absence of any pressure of long stocks resulted in a recovery. Saturday's shorts hastening to cover. When this demand was satisfied there was almost complete stagnation until soon before the close, when war-scare stories put out by calamity-howlers caused a slight degree of activity. The bear rumor shop gave its seal of approval to the story from Florida that the militia of that State had been called out to oppose the reported acquisition of Cuba by England, and it also sent out a fresh batch of reports upon the dangers which the bears think beset this country, but results in the stock market were not so pleasing as on Saturday. Probably the announcement of expected gold exports on Wednesday and the actual uncertainties of the present financial situation were the controlling factors in the day's trading rather than the monstrous absurdities circulated by the bear element. There was no change in the bond situation. The money and foreign exchange markets were quiet, considerable strength ruling in the last named. The premium on gold and legal tenders remained unchanged at ½@¾ per cent, and it was reported that gold to the amount of $2,550,000 would be exported Wednesday, while the business in gold and legal tenders was heavy. Closing prices of the active list were about evenly divided between gains and losses. The only stocks in which sales were above 10,000 shares were American Tobacco, which gained 1¼ per cent; Sugar Refining, ⅝ per cent, and St. Paul, ⅝ per cent. Burlington, General Electric, Rock Island, Missouri Pacific, Southern Railway preferred, Louisville and Nashville, Chicago Gas, Manhattan, Atchison, United States Leather preferred, Distillers, and Western Union were the only other stocks in which sales were above 2,000 shares. The chief losses were sustained by Lake Shore, which was down 1⅜ per cent, New-York Central ¾ per cent, Western Union ½ per cent, General Electric ½ per cent, Illinois Central 1 per cent and Baltimore and Ohio ¾ per cent. The market continued wholly professional. The close was irregular and feverish. Total sales of all stocks were 124,723 shares, against 125,085 in the two hours of business on Saturday.

Closing prices of the chief active stocks, compared with their last prices Saturday, were as follows:
