ATHLETES AT THE GARDEN.

REPRESENTATIVES OF A SCORE OF SCHOOLS COMPETE FOR HONORS.

THE ST. PAUL'S TEAM WINS THE RELAY RACE EASILY—ORTON IS THE FIRST OF THE PENNSYLVANIA TEAM TO FINISH, BUT FOUR OF HARVARD'S RUNNERS COME IN NEXT IN ORDER, WINNING THE TROPHY.

The Interscholastic Athletic Meeting, under the auspices of the New Manhattan Athletic Club, drew a large crowd to Madison Square Garden last night. The track was far from being in first-class condition and record-breaking was out of the question. In the main, however, all the contestants were so well matched that enthusiasm was kept at a high pitch throughout.

A score or more of schools were represented in the various contests. The sturdy boy athletes came well supported by admiring hosts of their colleagues, and from start to finish the air resounded with school cries. The contingent from St. Paul's School, with their short, snappy cry, interjected with funny rhymes and resonant calls for "Mr. Announcer" caused considerable merriment, while the enthusiasts from Berkeley School, with their blue and yellow parrot, and several noisy horns, kept pace with their rivals on the other side of the arena. Other schools represented in the boxes were the Curtis, Cutler, Dwight and Worcester.

The half-mile run brought out over a dozen starters, all of whom looked fit to endanger the record. At the crack of the pistol W. S. Nipple, of Barnard School, took a strong lead, which he increased as he sped around the course until he had gained a lap and a half over three of his competitors and put a good fifteen yards between himself and the next man in the procession. C. M. Hall, of St. Paul's School, and G. G. Dow, of the English High School of Boston, were second and third respectively.

The mile walk, by all odds the hardest test of endurance and courage on the programme, was also one of the most interesting, and was one of the best contested. The walk narrowed down to three contestants after the first three laps. E. A. Ware, of Packard Institute, led off and maintained his hold throughout. R. J. Walker, of the Berkeley School, New-York, was close behind for the greater part of the way, but on the last lap A. L. O'Toole, of the English High School of Boston, passed him, and they finished in that order.

The mile run was a spirited contest, in which Mills, of Berkeley, of Boston, took a spurt each time he rounded the arena and finished fresh in 4:55, with nearly twenty yards to spare.

A. F. Beers carried off the all-round honors, as he won the fifty-yard hurdle race with ease and landed a first in the broad jump with a record of 19 feet 2½ inches.

The officials were as follows: Referee—W. B. Curtis, N. Y. A. C. Inspectors—James D. Boyd, N. J. A. C.; George R. Bidwell, city. Starter—Alexander Finlinson, N. M. A. C., and S. Zucker, N. M. A. C. BOXING AT THE N. Y. A. C.

The New-York Athletic Club held its boxing bouts last evening at the clubhouse. The judges were Charles Coster and Edward W. Kearney and the referee was Arthur J. Moore. The gymnasium was crowded. The first bout of the evening was between Samuel Kelly, of this city, and David Wall, of Ireland, who boxed at 118 pounds. Kelly did all the leading, and in the eighth round knocked Wall down, and was given the fight. The second pair were Thomas White, of Chicago, and Henry Apfel, of this city. The boys hugged each other for seven rounds and in the eighth White knocked Apfel down, and as he refused to get up White got the decision. The third bout was between Jack Daly, of Wilmington, and Tom Moriarty, of Holyoke. This was the best of the evening, and Daly won after eight hard rounds. The last was between Sam Tonkins, of Astoria, and H. Peterson, of this city. The boys went at each other vigorously. Peterson knocked his man down twice in the second round. In the third round Tonkins woke up and made a good showing and in the next Tonkins knocked Peterson down and out. Time of last round, two minutes and seventeen seconds.

DIMENSIONS OF THE EMPEROR'S YACHT.

IT IS SAID THAT THE WATER-LINE WILL BE LONGER THAN AT FIRST REPORTED—BOATS NOW BUILDING AT THE HERRESHOFF YARDS.

If the reports from Europe may be relied upon the German Emperor's new yacht will be thirty-six inches longer on the water-line than the Britannia. Captain Gomes, of the Meteor, is reported as having visited the Henderson yard to inspect the work for the Emperor.

J. R. Drexel's steam yacht Sultana will be placed in the drydocks in a few days, and will be painted and fitted for the season's work. She will be commanded by Captain Potter.

A large naphtha launch is being built for Hugh H. Baxter, ex-captain of the New-York Athletic Club, at Morris Heights. The launch will be fifty-three feet over all, ten feet beam, and will have a motor of sixteen horsepower.

The fine steam yacht which is being built for A. J. Drexel on the Clyde from designs by G. L. Watson will be known as the Margarita. That was the name of the yacht which Mr. Drexel sold to Henry Walters, of Baltimore. Mr. Walters has rechristened the vessel Narada.

The council of the Yacht Racing Union of Long Island Sound will hold a meeting at the Seawanhaka Corinthian Yacht Club's city house, Madison-ave. and Twenty-seventh-st., on Wednesday at 8 p. m.

There will be a sharp competition for the Defender's injured topmast, which will be given to the association obtaining the largest number of votes at 25 cents each between now and June 2. The proceeds of the contest will be given to St. Mary's Hospital, St. Mark's-ave., Brooklyn, to which institution the crippled mast was given by Mr. Iselin. The Committee of Award is composed of Latham A. Fish, Brigadier-General James McLeer and J. Rogers Maxwell.

It is reported from Bristol that four of the new thirty-footers built by the Herreshoffs for members of the New-York Yacht Club are about ready for delivery, and that several more are well under way and will be finished before the season opens.

THE GAELIC FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP.

The Mitchells, of Brooklyn, and the Barrys, of Jersey City, will meet at Ridgewood to-day in the semi-annual contest for the football championship of the Gaelic Athletic Association.
