Washington, April 18.—New-York turned the tables on Washington to-day and won through bad errors by the home team. Meekin started in to pitch for the visitors, but was in poor form, and was relieved by Van Haltren at the end of the second inning. Gleason took Van Haltren's place at centre, Pfeffer covering second base. Van Haltren did good work and no runs were made off him until the ninth inning. Malarkey was replaced by Gilroy in the eighth inning. The former would have won his game easily with proper support. Attendance, 3,500. The score:

POND PITCHES A FINE GAME FOR THE CHAMPIONS.

Baltimore, April 18.—Dr. Arlington Pond was the star performer in the closing game of the Brooklyn series, and he pitched out a victory for the champions. In four innings he sent the visitors to the bench in one, two three order amid the plaudits of the spectators.

Payne essayed to do the twirling for the Brooklyns, but he retired after the third round, when the home team, with three singles and a double and daring base-running, tallied four times and won the game. The fielding on both sides was sharp, neither of the misplays affecting the result. The score:

PHILADELPHIA 11, BOSTON 1.

A STRONG BATTING GAME SEEN ON THE PHILADELPHIA GROUNDS.

Philadelphia, April 18.—Philadelphia played all around Boston to-day in the presence of 14,000 spectators, and won by a score of 11 to 1. Taylor, who was downed by Boston in the opening game on Thursday, was again in the box for the home team, and he was effective. Sullivan started to pitch for the visitors, but in the third inning Philadelphia took his measure, and in the fourth he retired in favor of Mains, who fared little better. In the seventh inning Brouthers and Clements, the first batsmen for Philadelphia, got their bases on balls, and Cross brought them home by making a triple to left field. Hallman then set the ball over the right-field wall, and two more runs were the result. This ended the run-getting. The centre-field work of both Duffy and Sullivan was above par, a long running catch by the former being a feature of the game. The score:

YALE BEATEN BY WILLIAMS.

LEWIS PROVES A PUZZLE TO THE NEW-HAVEN BATSMEN—THE SCORE 5 TO 4.

New-Haven, Conn., April 18.—Yale was defeated by Williams this afternoon at Yale Field by a score of 5 to 4. Lewis, Williams's pitcher, as usual, kept the Yale batters guessing, and untimely errors by Keator and Letton allowed three unearned Williams runs to be made. Trudeau was hit hard when men were on bases. Yale made a desperate effort to win in the last inning. With two men on bases, Keator's single scored Jerrems, who had lined out a two-bagger, but Captain Quinby put up an easy fly for Doughty and the scare was over. Street played a fine game for Williams and De Saulles batted and ran bases well for Yale. Joseph Jefferson was a spectator. The score:

PRINCETON'S EASY VICTORY.

Princeton, April 18.—The Princeton baseball team met the State College of Pennsylvania nine here to-day, and defeated them by the score of 8 to 5. The Tigers showed great strength in batting, Captain Bradley leading the list with four two-baggers and a single. The State College played a good fielding game, but was able to get only eight hits off Easton and Wilson. The feature of the game was Altman's home run in the eighth. In the seventh inning Nesbit, the State College pitcher, was hit on the arm by a liner from Titus's bat, and had to retire in favor of Walker. The score by innings:

George St. John Sheffield, of Attleboro, Mass., also came here yesterday to assist Captain Treadway in coaching.

PROVIDENCE, 7; BROWN, 4.

Providence, R. I., April 18.—Brown University's second game of the season was with the Providence League team this afternoon at Adelaide Park. It resulted in a defeat for the collegians by a score of 7 to 4. Three times the Brown team had the game practically in their hands, but just at those crises costly errors were made. The score by innings:

Basehits—Providence, 8; Brown, 7.

WESLEYAN, 11; TUFTS, 4.

Middletown, Conn., April 18.—Tufts was defeated this afternoon by Wesleyan in a listless and loosely played game. Wesleyan's infield work was especially ragged. She was, however, able to bunch her hits at the right time, which Tufts did not do. Townsend, the new freshman pitcher, held Tufts down well, striking out nine men. The score:

SCHAEFER AND DALY WON THE MATCH.

A FINE GAME OF BILLIARDS BETWEEN THEM AND IVES AND GARNIER.

Boston, April 18.—The best game of billiards of the week was seen this afternoon at Bumstead Hall, in the four-handed match for a prize of $300, between Schaefer and Daly on one side and Ives and Garnier on the other. Fourteen-inch balkline, one shot in balk, was the style of the game, and the number of points was 500.

The game was opened by the Ives-Garnier team. One was all they could get. The combined efforts of Schaefer and Daly amounted to 5. Ives and Garnier did not get above half a dozen until the sixth inning, when the Frenchman scored 14. Schaefer put up 57 in the second inning, and Daly followed with a run of 52 in the third. Daly collected 25 more in the seventh. Ives made 22 in the ninth and Schaefer 37 in the tenth. Daly, who was playing a remarkably clean game, increased the score of his side by a run of 33 in the eleventh. Ives made 73 in the thirteenth, Garnier 29 in the fourteenth, and Ives 29 for his side in this inning. In the sixteenth Schaefer collected 121.

Ives followed this with 85, bringing down the house with two sensational jump shots. Daly in this innings put up some fine billiards and got away with 42. The scores at the end of the seventeenth inning were: Schaefer-Daly, 435; Ives-Garnier, 299.

Then Schaefer nursed out 30. Everybody thought he would finish the game, but the balls got away from him and he slipped up on a try around the table. Daly got 25 and failed on an easy shot when he had only ten to go to finish the game. Schaefer made 8, and with the score of his side 301, Ives began to count. He managed to get 25, and then Daly made 2, and the game was at an end. The score:

Schaefer-Daly—5, 57, 52, 1, 0, 0, 25, 4, 10, 37, 33, 19, 1, 1, 27, 121, 42, 30, 25, 8, 2—500.

Ives-Garnier—1, 4, 6, 4, 0, 14, 11, 1, 22, 7, 2, 7, 73, 20, 29, 4, 85, 4, 6, 1, 25—326.

Winners' average, 23, 17-21; losers' average, 15 11-21. Winners' highest run, 121; losers' highest run, 85.
