HOME FOR FRIENDLESS GIRLS.

THE GOOD WORK OF THE INSTITUTION NOW IN SUTTON-AVE.

Missionaries connected with the German Baptist Church long felt the need of some Christian home to which the girls who come over from the fatherland to America and who have not any near relatives to have a care for them could go. The first practical movement in the line of getting such a home was made under the supervision of the Women's Mission Union. In a small flat in West Forty-second-st., with a cash capital of $46, the Home was opened. The matron, with the help of the girls, does all of the work—washing, ironing, cooking and everything. It was part of the understanding that each girl should have a measure of responsibility. They see to it that their rooms are always clean and orderly. The girls have a good, comfortable, Christian home. Mrs. Buck, the matron, encourages the girls to make her their confidante. If any of them secure work of such a nature that they have to leave the Home, they are encouraged to come back to it on Sundays and on their "day out," to tell the matron what they are doing and what the influences of their new places are.

The girls get up at 7 o'clock in the morning, and go to breakfast half an hour later. They have dinner at 12:15 and supper at 6:30. At 9:30 they retire, and at 10 o'clock the gas is shut off. The Home is now removed to the brownstone three-story house No. 18 Sutton-ave., and yesterday afternoon there was a little reception and housewarming from 1 until 5 o'clock. At 3 o'clock there was a short service, in which Miss Alice Woodbridge, secretary of the Working Woman's Society, took part.

Since the first opening of the Home, February 1, 1895, it has accommodated 177 girls. In the new home the society is able to give the girls and women employed in stores and factories a Christian home at a very reasonable price. Little restraint is placed upon the girls, and respectable girls will find a friendly reception and a hearty welcome, and are cordially invited to spend their evenings and leisure time there, especially on Sunday afternoons. The officers of the German Baptist Girls' Home are: President, Mrs. Mackler, No. 305 East One-hundred-and-twentieth-st.; secretary, Mrs. R. E. Hoeffilin, No. 1,257 Fulton-ave.; committee—Mrs. Schulte, Mrs. Strumpp, Mrs. Guenter, Mrs. Blaushenbrusch, Mrs. Marquardt and Miss Rapp. In connection with the Home a girls' club has also been formed, which holds its meetings at the Home.

LOCAL BUSINESS COMPLICATIONS.

AN ASSIGNMENT MADE BY THE OLD FIRM OF ANSON D. F. RANDOLPH & CO.

Anson D. F. and Arthur D. F. Randolph, composing the firm of Anson D. F. Randolph & Co., publishers and booksellers, of Nos. 91 and 93 Fifth-ave., made an assignment yesterday to William J. Wiley, giving preferences for $16,750 to the following named persons: Victoria Isabel Wiley, $5,000; Henry Holden, $2,000; Robert Rutter, $2,500; Stuart F. Randolph, $2,000; People's Bank, $1,000; Herbert Jennings, $750; R. R. Bowker, $2,000; the Rev. Herman Hoth, $1,500. Anson D. F. Randolph, the senior partner, is one of the oldest booksellers in the city, is about seventy-two years old, and has been engaged in his business for forty-six years. Of late his health, it is said, has not been good. He is temporarily living at Noroton, Conn. His son has been a partner since February 1, 1884. He lives at Yonkers. Robert J. Bates was a partner in the firm from 1865 to 1881. From March 1, 1892, to December 3, 1894, the business was conducted by a corporation, under the same name as the firm, but it did not prove satisfactory in the corporate form and the partners went back to the firm style. A few days ago the A. D. F. Randolph Company was incorporated, with a capital stock of $50,000, by A. D. F. Randolph, W. J. Wiley and H. Holland. On Tuesday the firm gave a chattel mortgage on plates to W. J. Wiley, for $10,000, and on books to R. Rutter, for $2,500. The firm was formerly at No. 182 Fifth-ave., where it carried a large stock, and last full claimed to have a surplus of $50,000.

The Muehlfeld & Haynes Piano Company, of Nos. 511 and 513 East One-hundred-and-thirty-seventh-st., made an assignment yesterday to William F. Boothe. Proceedings were taken in the Supreme Court on June 6 for the voluntary dissolution of the company, and the order to show cause was set down for September 15. Some of the persons interested in the company preferred to have it go into the hands of an assignee whom they know rather than have a receiver appointed who might be a stranger and not familiar with the business. Mr. Boothe is treasurer of the Sebastian Summer Piano Company. The liabilities of the Muehlfeld & Haynes Piano Company are $35,761, and the nominal assets are $31,333, the actual value of which, it is thought, will be about $15,000.

Abraham Greenberg, dealer in paints and painters' supplies at No. 450 Second-ave., made an assignment yesterday to James A. McCafferty. He has been in this line of business since June, 1889, and went along smoothly until May 3, last, when a fire destroyed his entire stock, and his insurance of $4,000, it was said, did not cover the loss. At the fire nine children narrowly escaped suffocation on the second floor, and were rescued by the firemen with ladders. Mr. Greenberg was reputed to own real estate in One-hundred-and-fourth-st., valued at $8,000, mortgaged for $11,000.

Judgment was entered yesterday, by consent, against John D. Cheever, who is in the bicycle business at No. 1 Park Row, for $12,519, in favor of Victor E. Burke. Of the claim, $5,000 is for money lent by Mr. Burke to Mr. Cheever from January, 1893, to May 15, 1896, and $7,500 is for services as private secretary for Mr. Cheever for the last ten years. A receiver was appointed for Mr. Cheever last week.

J. A. B. Mullally has been appointed receiver in supplementary proceedings for W. E. Waters, of W. Waters & Son, bookbinders, of No. 103 Fulton-st., on the application of H. Griffin & Sons, judgment creditors of the firm. The business has been established thirty-five years, and the plant was formerly valued at $25,000.

EXAMINATION FOR CADETSHIPS.

The examination of candidates for a cadetship in Annapolis and another at West Point began in the Town Hall in Jamaica yesterday. The cadetships are at the disposal of Congressman Richard McCormack, of the 1st District. The candidates for the Annapolis appointment were Charles W. Prentice, of Long Island City; Eugene J. Clarke, of Long Island City; Patrick Foley, of Rockville Centre; Allison Asmus, of Hempstead; Edward W. Manley, Long Island City; John A. Hamilton, Flushing; Robert Cornell, Flushing, and Gerard B. Nightingale, of Babylon.

Those who competed for the West Point cadetship were Clarence Witherspoon, of Corona; Rawton W. Kellogg, of Hollis; Rodman Richardson, Flushing; Conrad E. Koerper, Willet's Point; John D. O'Connor, Rockaway Beach; William H. Williams, jr., Long Island City; Walter J. Whipple, Amityville; Joseph T. Hull, Newtown; Frank N. Wisner, Hempstead; James H. Griffith, East Rockaway; Ralph N. Hayden, Floral Park; Isaac J. Von Shelly, Flushing.

The result of the examinations will be announced next Tuesday, when the appointment will be made.
