SEVEN STRAIGHT DEFEATS.

THE NEW-YORK BASEBALL TEAM BEATEN BY BROOKLYN.

AN UNUSUALLY SMALL ATTENDANCE AT THE POLO GROUNDS—BALTIMORE, CHICAGO, WASHINGTON AND PITTSBURG WON.

GAMES YESTERDAY.

Brooklyn, 3; New-York, 2. | Chicago, 8; Cleveland, 3.
Baltimore, 9; Philadelphia, 4. | Pittsburg, 6; St. Louis, 0.
Washington, 8; Boston, 4.

Nothing of a particularly stirring nature occurred in the baseball world yesterday. It might be mentioned that the New-York team lost another game, making the seventh straight victory which some other team has taken from the hired men of Harlem. This continual struggle to get to the tail end of the League race by the New-York players is really pathetic. Struggle as they will, the representative nines of St. Louis and Louisville continue to lose games, and the best that the home team can do is to stick close to tenth place. While the chances of the team not going any lower may not be overbright, its chances of getting any nearer the front are just about the same.

The attendance at the Polo Grounds yesterday to witness the second game between the New-York and Brooklyn teams was discouragingly small, considering the attraction and the well-contested teninning game of the day before. Had the contest been played in Brooklyn, the crowd would possibly have been twice as large. That the second game between the two local teams, after an extra-inning contest, should attract to Harlem less than four thousand people, is decidedly significant.

When the followers of the one-time Giants at last realize that the team has no chance whatever of finishing near the front, the attendance will drop to nothing so fast that the money-counters at the Polo Grounds will have their labors lessened. The men from across the East River won yesterday through timely batting. Daub injured his pitching arm in the fourth inning, and retired, Payne taking his place. The score:

CHICAGO, 8; CLEVELAND, 3.

Cleveland, June 19.—Griffith had the Spiders at his mercy to-day, while Chicago bunched its hits on Wallace and won the game in a walk. Captain Tebeau and Umpire Lynch had a wrangle over a close decision at first in the seventh inning. During the dispute Decker stole home. Lynch started to fine Tebeau, took it back, and then wanted to fight. Both men went under the grandstand, but officials stopped the fracas. Lynch refused to umpire further, and Dailey, of Chicago, and Young, of Cleveland, finished the game. The score:

Cleveland	2	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	—3
Chicago	0	0	0	0	0	4	2	2	0	—8

Base hits—Cleveland, 7; Chicago, 16. Errors—Cleveland, 4; Chicago, 1. Batteries—Wallace and O'Connor; Griffith and Kittridge. Umpires—Lynch, Young and Dailey.

BALTIMORE, 9; PHILADELPHIA, 4.

Baltimore, June 19.—Lucid lost his speed after the fourth inning to-day, and the home team batted out a victory, to which Thompson's errors contributed somewhat. Pond sprained his knee in running bases in the second inning, but gamely resumed play and held the Philadelphias down to nine scattered hits. Attendance, 2,940. The score:

Baltimore	0	1	0	0	2	3	1	2	0	—9
Philadelphia	2	0	0	0	1	1	0	0	0	—4

Base hits—Baltimore, 14; Philadelphia, 8. Errors—Baltimore, 1; Philadelphia, 4. Batteries—Pond and Clarke; Lucid and Grady. Umpire—Hurst.

WASHINGTON, 8; BOSTON, 4.

Boston, June 19.—Maul's pitching and the fine hitting of the Washingtons beat the Bostons to-day. Hamilton, Lowe and Ganzel hit well, but the Bostons failed to bunch hits. The visitors made four triples and every one counted. In the last three innings only one of the Washingtons saw first. Attendance, 1,500. The score:

Boston	0	1	0	0	2	0	1	0	0	—4
Washington	2	1	0	0	4	1	0	0	0	—8

Base hits—Boston, 10; Washington, 10. Errors—Washington, 1. Batteries—Stivetts and Ganzel; Maul and McGuire. Umpire—Emslie.

PITTSBURG, 6; ST. LOUIS, 0.

Pittsburg, June 19.—Pittsburg took the second game from St. Louis to-day by hitting Hart hard in the sixth inning. Up to that time not a run had been made. Killen was effective throughout. Quinn was hurt in the hand in practice by a swing from Parrott's bat, and this caused a change all round among the visitors. In the fifth McFarland was compelled to retire, having his right thumb injured by a foul. Attendance, 2,000. The score:

St. Louis	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—0
Pittsburg	0	0	0	0	0	4	0	0	2	—6

Base hits—St. Louis, 5; Pittsburg, 10. Errors—St. Louis, 2; Pittsburg, 1. Batteries—Hart, McFarland and Douglass; Killen and Sugden. Umpire—Weldman.

OTHER GAMES YESTERDAY.

MISS MOORE CAPTURES FIRST HONORS.

A LARGE CROWD WITNESSES YESTERDAY'S GAMES IN THE PHILADELPHIA TOURNAMENT.

Philadelphia, June 19 (Special).—By far the largest crowd that has yet attended the tennis matches here this week journeyed out to Wissahickon Heights this afternoon to see the final match in the all-comers singles of the championship lawn tennis tournament. Miss Bessie Moore, the champion of the Middle States, captured first honors easily by defeating Miss Wistar, of Philadelphia, in three straight sets. She will meet Miss Juliette Atkinson, the champion of America, for her title and the challenge cup to-morrow afternoon. An exciting match is looked for, with chances for the victory about even.

Another great match occurred in the semi-final round of the mixed doubles between Miss Atkinson and E. P. Fischer, the champions in this contest, and Miss Moore and J. P. Paret. Each team won a set and the games in the third alternated with the latter pair in the lead until five all, when the champions made a brace and pulled out the match by 4—6, 6—1, 7—5. Scores follow:

Championship singles—Final round—Miss Bessie Moore, of Ridgewood, N. J., beat Miss A. C. Wistar, of Philadelphia, 6—3, 1—5, 6—0.

Mixed doubles—Semi-final round—E. P. Fischer and Miss Juliette Atkinson beat J. Parmly Paret and Miss Bessie Moore, 4—6, 6—1, 7—5; M. R. Fielding and Miss Amy Williams beat F. M. Thompson and Miss Kathleen Atkinson, 6—3, 6—1.

Men's doubles—Semi-final round—Fischer and Paret, of New-York, beat Smith and Tete, of Philadelphia, 8—6, 6—1.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT IN BRIDGEPORT.

Bridgeport, Conn., June 19.—James Terry, of Hartford, made an excellent showing at the State Tennis Tournament on the Brooklawn Country Club's courts this morning in his contest with Arthur E. Foote, the Yale expert. Terry was beaten, but his work won repeated applause. The score was: 6—3, 2—6, 6—2. Sheldon defeated Griffith, 3—6, 6—0, 6—3; Hooker beat Kent, 1—6, 6—3, 6—3; Burchard and Van Beuren defeated Dodge and Cheney, 2—6, 6—4, 6—1. There was a dance at the clubhouse this evening.

LARNED MEETS A BRAVE DEFEAT.

Liverpool, June 19.—In the final game of the lawn tennis tournament to-day H. F. Mahony, of Dublin, after a splendid contest, beat W. A. Larned, the American player, by a score of 3—6, 2—6, 6—3, 8—6, 6—3.

THE INTERSCHOLASTIC GAMES.

Everything is in readiness for the National Interscholastic Championships to be held at Columbia Oval, Williamsbridge, this afternoon, and a special train will carry out the athletes, officials and the bulk of the spectators. This leaves the Grand Central Station at 1:35, and makes the run in fifteen minutes. The Hartford Public School team and the New-England team from Boston arrived yesterday afternoon, and are quartered at the New Manhattan Athletic Club. The annual meeting of the National Interscholastic Association will be held there to-night after the games. The games will begin at 2:30, and will surely be finished before 5 o'clock. The special train will return to the city immediately at the conclusion of the games.

THE BROWN FLEET'S CRUISE.

Newport, R. I., June 19.—The Brown University yacht fleet sailed from here this forenoon for New-London. They had a light, fair wind for the run.

THE LARCHMONT REGATTA.

TWO RIVAL CLASS B SCHOONERS TO COVER THE COURSE.

SCHEDULES FOR OTHER RACES—THE YONKERS CLUB COMMITTEE RULES OUT THE FUGITIVE—THE MAYITA'S TRIAL TRIP.

The annual spring regatta of the Larchmont Yacht Club will be sailed to-day, wind and weather permitting, at 11:30 o'clock, over the club courses. It is interesting to note that the Colonia and the Emerald, which are likely to become old-time enemies, are scheduled to appear in this race over an inside course, and great interest will be manifested to know what one or the other, or both, will accomplish in the contest, granting that each carries her regular crew and regular skipper. It may be taken for granted that Captain Charley Barr will be the skipper of the Colonia, and that J. Rogers Maxwell will be found at the tiller on board the Emerald. There is also a notable lot of the 30-footers entered for the race, and a glittering collection of the half-raters whose trial races for the international cup begin on Monday next, under the auspices of the Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Club's auspices. Here are the entries as announced by the Regatta Committee, comprising John F. Lovejoy, chairman; Otto Sarony and H. C. Wintringham:

The judges and the Regatta Committee of the Yonkers Corinthian Yacht Club met in the clubhouse on Thursday night and considered the protest of John Dickson, owner of the Edna, against the Fugitive, in which he alleged that in the race of last Saturday the Fugitive fouled one of the stakeboats, and therefore the race should not be awarded to her. The interest that has been manifested in the work of the two boats drew a large number of yachtsmen to the hearing. "Tom" Webber, who built the Fugitive, was present to look after the interests of the boat. The evidence showed that the Fugitive had not only fouled the stakeboat off Mount St. Vincent, but had also fouled the Colleen, one of the Corinthian's fleet, as well. The Regatta Committee therefore ruled the Fugitive out and gave the race to the Edna. These two boats are to fleet to-day in the regatta of the Tower Ridge Yacht Club of Hastings, and the decision intensifies the interest in the race between them.

The Greenville, N. J., Yacht Club will hold a club race this afternoon at 3 o'clock for a silver cup presented by Commodore Renshaw. The course will be a triangular one off the clubhouse, and will be sailed around three times. This race is the first of a series to be held for the cup, the conditions being that the boat winning it the greater number of times by the end of the season will hold the trophy permanently. On the evening of Saturday, June 27, at 8 o'clock, a grand concert will be given on the club grounds by an orchestra of forty pieces. There will also be selections of vocal music by well-known local talent. The grounds are to be illuminated for the occasion. The fleet of the club will make a cruise to Sandy Hook on the morning of July 4, weighing anchor at a signal from the commodore at 8 o'clock in the morning. The fleet will return home on the afternoon of July 5.

The new twin-screw steam yacht Mayita, designed and built by Charles L. Seabury & Co. for Louis Bossert, of Brooklyn, in her recent trial trip on the Hudson exceeded the guaranteed speed of the contract, which called for twelve miles per hour over a measured course. She easily attained a speed of 14.26 miles per hour over the course. The Mayita is 85 feet over all, 72 feet water line, 12 feet beam and 5 feet draught. Her accommodations are excellent, and the finish of cabins, staterooms, etc., handsome. The machinery consists of two Seabury triple-expansion marine engines and a Seabury safety water-tube boiler of the latest design. The yacht is flush-deck, schooner-rigged. Forward is a mahogany deckhouse, over which is the bridge. Everything in connection with the yacht and machinery is modern in every way. She is lighted throughout by electricity. The yacht will soon leave Seabury's and be put in commission. Captain Carmen is in charge. The chief engineer is Mr. Waldron.

The steam yacht Washita, built by Seabury & Co. last season, has left Nyack for Charlotte, Vt., on Lake Champlain, where she will be used by her new owner, H. W. Putnam, jr. Captain S. M. Macomber is in charge.

The new catboat, the Kenwood, designed and built by Seabury for George R. Thorne, has proved to be a fast boat. She has beaten almost everything in the sail-yacht line in the vicinity of Nyack, and last Saturday she beat everything of her class in the Yonkers Corinthian Yacht Club regatta.

The half-rater Ulmec, owned by W. W. Howard, has been sold to W. Gould Brokaw. She will hereafter be known as the Defender II. Mr. Howard sails to-day for Europe in the Campania, and when on the other side will participate in the races of the Royal Canoe Club. He will sail his canoe, the Yankee, against the English fleet for the challenge cup on July 18. The course will be one of ten miles in Burnham-on-Crouch, an estuary course about thirty miles from the Thames.

YALE'S CREW WAXING ENGLISH.

THEIR STROKE NOW DOES NOT SEEM TO BE SO MUCH LIKE CORNELL'S.

London, June 19.—The Yale crew were out in their boat at Henley at 10:45 o'clock this morning and practised for an hour and a quarter under the coaching of "Bob" Cook, who rode a bicycle along the banks of the Thames.

Mr. Cook says that the practice of the crew was not so successful this morning as it was yesterday, their work being less steady on account of their low stroke of 24 and 26 per minute, the crew being at their worst in the matters of the length of stroke and the feather on recovery. The men are in good spirits and greatly pleased with their food and accommodations generally. Englishmen think that the Yale men are improving every day in the length of their stroke. The weather at Henley continues to be fine.

The Yale crew were again out on the Thames at Henley this afternoon. They got into their boat at 5:30 p. m. and rowed for an hour, coached by "Bob" Cook, who was on horseback on the river bank. The men went over the full course, and later, after going up the river, tried the English stroke of twenty-four to the minute. Both Mr. Cook and Captain Treadway say that the boat in which they worked is unsteady, but that it is quite satisfactory for practice. The crew had decidedly more body swing to-day than they have shown at any time since they began practice.

Dr. McDowell, of Chicago, who is entered in the race for the Diamond Sculls, was out for practice on the Thames for the first time this afternoon, rowing over the full course. He made a poor impression.

The Yale men, as compared with the English oarsmen with whom they are to compete, seem very large. The Yale flag was hoisted over the Yale headquarters to-day for the first time. The crew celebrated the occasion in the usual manner. When the crew rowed over the course this afternoon there was a heavy head wind.

The Englishmen look upon Yale as the most formidable of their opponents. The Yales have made their stroke longer, with a good body swing. They seem to be copying the English reach, and on the catch do not go so far back.

COURTNEY LIKES THE COURSE.

CORNELL'S COACH LOOKS FOR A SUCCESSFUL RACE AT POUGHKEEPSIE—A LIVELY DAY WITH THE CREWS.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 19 (Special).—Mr. Courtney, Cornell's coach, is greatly pleased with the Poughkeepsie course. In speaking on the subject today he said: "I have always been opposed to river rowing because I have had so many disastrous experiences myself with the swells of steamboats, but this is a magnificent stretch of water, and with the attendance of revenue cutters to enforce police regulations, I anticipate that the coming race will be an immense success."

In referring to Pennsylvania's crew he said: "Considering that they are all green men, they row remarkably well. I give Ellis Ward a great deal of credit for taking a lot of freshmen and making such a crew out of them."

Fred White, of Cornell, arrived to-day, and is assisting Courtney in coaching the Cornell freshmen crew.

The 'Varsity and freshmen crews had an interesting scrub race this evening. They started at the finish of the course and rowed to the big bridge which marks the three-mile point. The coxswain in each boat urged the men on, and when Courtney tooted the launch whistle the 'Varsity crew was only half a length ahead of the freshmen. Harvard's and Columbia's crews were out twice to-day practising starts and spurts, and rowed on their own short courses which they have established near the starting-point of the four-mile course.

Pennsylvania's crews paid a visit to the Ithacans this afternoon, and when the launch was crossing the river the engineer dislocated his shoulder while adjusting the machinery. As a result Mr. Ward, the coach, was running up and down the West Shore Railroad tracks this evening with his megaphone coaching the 'Varsity crew.

THE SATANITA WINS OFF QUEENSTOWN.

Queenstown, June 19.—There was only one race, that of the large-raters, in the Royal Cork Yacht Club regatta to-day. The course was the same as that of yesterday, from the Spit Lightship to Poorhead, thence to and around Daunt's Rock Lightship and back home, three times around, finishing in the harbor, fifty miles. The prizes were £60 and £20. The weather was fine and there was a good westerly breeze.

The yachts crossed the line together at 11:05. The Satanita was the weather boat, and the Ailsa was to leeward of the Britannia. The first round was finished as follows:

The Satanita	12:58:42	The Britannia	1:03.02
The Ailsa	1:00:52

The wind was growing fresher as the first round ended. The freshened wind held throughout the second round, which was finished as follows:

The Satanita	2:28:05	The Britannia	2:33:05
The Ailsa	2:30:35

The Satanita was the winner and the Ailsa took second prize, the boats finishing in the following order:

The Satanita	4:13:25	The Britannia	4:25.24
