COUNTRY PRODUCE MARKETS.

For the week ending June 23, 1896.

BEANS AND PEAS—Receipts for the week: Beans, 1,024 bbls; peas, 247 bbls. Exports: Beans, 1,258 pkgs; peas, 403 bbls. There has been a moderate demand for domestic marrow beans, and the feeling at times has been somewhat weaker, though prices have made no further change; choice marks are held at $1 15, at which there have been sales for export and home account. Possibly the feeling is a little steadier at the close as the result of much lighter receipts. Medium and pea have improved somewhat; stocks here are now very light, and there has been a little more inquiry for them, resulting in an advance to $1 05 for choice marks, with some holders asking even more. Scarcely anything doing in white kidney, best marks offering at $1 25. Quite a good many red kidney have been sold for export since our last weekly report, mostly on the basis of $1 02½. The feeling is now quite steady at that, but there are ample offerings for all needs. No interest in turtle soup or yellow eye, values are still somewhat nominal. California lima have settled to $1 80. Green peas have declined fully 25c. and are quite dull at the close, but Scotch are firmly held and held rather steadier. We quote: Beans, domestic marrow, choice, per bush, $1 15; do, medium and pea, $1 05; do white kidney, $1 25; do red kidney, $1 02½; do turtle soup and yellow eye, $1 20@$1 25; do lima, California, $1 80; green peas, bbls, 70@75c; do bags, Long Island, 70@75c; do bags, 70@72½c.

BUTTER—Receipts for the week: 68,428 pkgs; exports, 5,822 pkgs. The market has shown very little change during the week. Demand has been fair, but not active; a great deal of stock has gone into storage on shippers' and receivers' account, and this has relieved the market to a large extent. There has also been some final end out-of-town speculative buying, and a little stock has gone for export. Stock at all in all the business has been fair, and sellers have experienced no difficulty in maintaining the full range of values on most grades. At the close there is a steady feeling on fancy fresh creamery at 19½c; sales are so general at that price that no range seems necessary. Buyers, however, are critical about quality, and goods have to be very fine to command that rate. Leaving extras there is a little business at 15c, but that class of stock is so near up to the best grade that it is taken by some buyers for their best grade. Dairies are commonly understood by the trade, and are offering freely at 14@14½c, and quite a good many seconds have been moved at 12½@13c. There is an accumulation of all these undergrades, and the market for them is weak. Advices from the producing sections have been as well as from this city quite favorable for a continued large make, and a very conservative feeling exists throughout the market. Qualities have been improving somewhat, but only a little State dairy arriving; farmers in most sections packing into firkins for later markets. Where the half tubs are really fancy, 14½@15c is obtained, but more of the lots go at 14c downward. Imitation creamery is steady; demand absorbing the stock pretty closely. Less doing in factory and supplies are accumulating. Exporters are without orders of importance, and do not seem inclined to do much at present. We quote: Creamery, Western, extras, per lb, 15½c; do State, extras, 15@15½c; do firsts, 14@14½c; do thirds to seconds, 11½@13c; State dairy, half drkin tubs, extras, 14½@15c; do Welsh tubs, extras, 14½c; do thirds to firsts, 10@14c; imitation creamery, firsts, 12@12½c; do seconds, 10½@11c; Western dairy, 9@12c; factory, extras, 11c; do firsts, 10@10½c; do thirds to seconds, 8@9½c; old butter, 7@10c.

EGGS—Receipts for the week, 50,550 cases. The market has ruled generally dull and heavy on the usual qualities. There has been a considerable decrease in receipts, but the demand has also fallen off and the supply has been more than ample of strictly fine goods suitable for the highest class of trade, and a few such still command 12c. These are, however, becoming quite exceptional, the bulk of the Western receipts having recently sold at 11½c; lower qualities are dragging at lower prices, and culls of all kinds show further decline. We quote: Jersey, and nearby fancy, per dozen, 13½c; State and Pennsylvania, 12@12½c; Western strictly fancy, 12c; do average prime, 11½c; do fair to good, per case, $2 70@$3; do culls, $1 50@$2 10.

CHEESE—Receipts for the week, 36,251 boxes. Exports, 15,553 boxes. The market for full cream large cheese has been in a very unsatisfactory position all the week. The stock cost high in the country, and receivers have naturally been slow in giving way in price, but export demand has been very slow, and toward the close of last week it was simply impossible to get out at cost of stock laid down here. The bulk of the sales toward the latter part of the week was at an actual loss. This week opened on Monday with very free supplies, and with cost in the country still ruling high receivers were generally disposed to ask a shade higher than prices ruling at the close of last week. But foreign advices continued unfavorable, exporters had very few orders and very little business was possible on account of a very limited scale. Sun-dried apples are ruling rather dull and a shade weaker to sell; holders ask about the same rates but do not do much business. No chops or cores and skins here. Southern peeled peaches have had only small jobbing sales, and prices favor the buyer; unpeeled entirely neglected. Raspberries have shown further weakness; best lots of evaporated offering at 16c without sale. Cherries have shown some strength, not from any improvement in the demand, but as a result of the unfavorable crop reports. Huckleberries and plums very quiet. Blackberries in small stock and quite firmly held. California fruits working out moderately at unchanged prices. We quote: Apples, evaporated, fancy, 6¼@6½c; do, prime to choice, 5@5¾; do, common to fair, 3@4¾c; sun-dried, sliced, Southern, 2@3½c; do, coarse-cut, Southern, 2@2½c; do, Southwestern, 2¼@3c; do, State and Western, 2½@3½c; chops, 2¼@2½c; do, cores and skins, 2@2¼c; peaches, Southern peeled, 3@6c; unpeeled, 1¾@2c; raspberries, evaporate, 16c; cherries, 9@10c; huckleberries, 5@5½c; blackberries, 5½c; plums, State, 5c; do, Southern, 4½c; apricots, 8½@11½c; do, peaches, California, peeled, 10@14c; do, unpeeled, 3½@6½c; prunes, 3½@3¾c.

HOPS—Receipts for the week: 373 bales; Exports: 812 bales. Crop reports from this State and Pacific Coast have not varied much during the week. The vines are making fair progress in yards that have been reasonably well cultivated, but a great many of the yards lack care. It seems quite evident from all advices now at hand that this year's crop will be close to one-third short of last year. From across the water the advices are a little better; recent rains have benefited the vines and lessened the amount of vermin. Lice and fly have done some damage, but not materially thus far. So far as the trading on the local market is concerned there is nothing of special interest. Buyers' wants have been small, and holders have not tried to push sales at the expense of any concession in price; indeed, there seems to be a pretty steady feeling throughout, more especially on the finer grades, which comprise so small a part of the holdings. We quote: State, 1895, choice, 7½@8c; do, choice to prime, 6@7c; do, common to fair, 3½@5½c; Pacific Coast, 1895, choice, 6½@7c; do, common to prime, 3½@6c; State and Pacific Coast, 1894, 2½@4c; do, 1893, 1½@2½c.

POULTRY—ALIVE—Receipts have been moderate, and with demand quite active; some improvement has been established toward the close. Fowls sold at 10c per lb until to-day, when most offerings realized 10½c. Prime large chickens in good demand and steady, but small Southern show some decline. Roosters sell fairly at 6c. Turkeys not plenty and firm. Ducks and geese arrive sparingly and prices show no material change. Old pigeons steady, but young birds neglected. We quote: Spring chickens, local and Western, per lb, 14@15c; do Southern, 12½@13½c; fowls, per lb, 10@10½c; roosters, per lb 6c; turkeys, per lb, 8@9c; ducks, Western, per pair, 60@75c; do Southern, 50@60c; geese, Western, per pair, 85@$1; do Southern, 75@85c; pigeons, old, per pair, 35c; do young, 20@25c. DRESSED—Receipts for the week, 4,062 pkgs. The supply of Western dressed poultry has been considerably lighter the last week, and while trade has not been especially active at any time, prices have ruled firm and somewhat higher. Fowls cleaned up closely at the end of last week with a firm feeling on the basis of 10@10½c for dry-picked and 10c for scalded, but Western spring chickens, advancing on Wednesday and Thursday to 17@18c for dry-picked and 16@17c for scalded, sold very slowly at these prices, and before the end of the week a decided reduction had to be made in order to clean up. The higher prices brought out a large quantity of frozen broilers, which hurt the demand for fresh materially. This week opened Monday with moderate supplies of both fowls and chickens, and while trade was only moderatively active prices were steadily sustained on fowls and spring chickens were held a shade firmer. Invoices for latter part of the week are not considered large, and while trading at the close is slow the outlook is considered favorable. Nearby spring chickens steady for strictly choice lots, but for average quality arriving demand is slow, with prices showing a wide range. Spring ducks have been fairly plenty and rather weak and irregular, with 15c all that can now be depended upon for fair to good. Occasional small lots of Eastern spring geese have arrived and been peddled out at about 18@20c per lb. Fresh turkeys sold readily to speculative buyers at generally 10c for prime mixed weights, choice tame squabs not plenty, but a liberal supply of fair to good quality, which have dragged heavily at irregular prices. We quote: Fresh turkeys, prime mixed weights, 10c; spring chickens, Philadelphia, dry-picked, selected, 22c; do ordinary, 16@20c; do Pennsylvania, 18@20c; do Western, dry-picked, choice, 16@17c; do small, 13@15c; do, scalded, choice, 15@16c; do small, 13@14c; fowls, Western, dry-picked, choice, 10@10½c; do scalded, choice, 10c; do fair to good, 9@9½c; spring ducks, Eastern and Long Island, 15c; spring geese, Eastern, 18@20c; squabs, per dozen, $1 25@$2 25.

HAY AND STRAW—HAY—To-day's market was dull and unsatisfactory. Yesterday's eased quotations were full ones for any line of grades, the outside rates rarely obtained. The abundant off-quality grades, which have been neglected for a number of days, still keep in a narrow outlet. Much of it is likely to sell lower if additions continue. About all of the late arrivals of canal hay has been placed mainly in small lots. A portion was condemned in a leaky boat. Here is a significant line which has appeared almost daily and uniformly in sellers' letters to the hay regions during the last week: "Stop sending low quality stuff." STRAW—There is a lull in the receipts of old long rye. New straw of fine feature yet, but the prospect for early good receipts is in favor of sellers. We quote: Hay, prime, per 100 lb, 95c; No. 1, per 100 lb, 90@92½c; No. 2, per 100 lb, 65@70c; shipping, per 100 lb, 67½@70c; clover mixed, per 100 lb, 67½@72½c; clover, per 100 lb, 60@65c; salt hay, per 100 lb, 45@50c; State, long rye straw, per 100 lb, $1 05@$1 10; New-Jersey, per 100 lb, $1@$1 05; short do, 70@75c; best oat, per 100 lb, 50@60c; tangled rye, per 100 lb, 60@65c; wheat straw, per 100 lb, 45@50c. The official report of receipts of hay in bulk and in bales to-day was as follows: Hudson River Railroad, 250; Erie Railroad, 580; Pennsylvania Railroad, 50; Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad, 30; West Shore Railroad, 130; Lehigh Valley Railroad, 250; Central of New-Jersey Railroad, 20; river boats, 150; per canal, 84; total, 1,664 tons; receipts of straw, 80 tons; exports of hay for week, 2,019 bales.

POTATOES AND VEGETABLES—We have had an excessively large supply of new potatoes beginning last Thursday. The market fell into a glutted condition, and it was simply impossible to move the arrivals. A large part was of common to only fair quality, and receivers got prices to a very low point without opening any adequate outlet. Up to the close of the week the best goods had fallen to $1@$1 25 per bbl, and thousands of barrels of fair stock were forced off at 50@75c. Monday's arrivals were again very heavy, and there was no improvement. At the close, in the absence of fresh receipts, receivers are making a strong effort to clear the decks without regard to price, but the chances of success are not good. With moderate supplies to arrive to-morrow, however, it is hoped that the market may get in a better position. Old potatoes have also declined. Onions of all kinds have sold very slowly, and at weak and irregular figures. Asparagus dull. Local cabbages about steady. Jersey green corn and peppers have arrived in some quantity, and close lower under liberal supplies. Other local vegetables are moving rather slowly at comparatively low prices. Southern cabbages are now about worthless. Southern cucumbers and string beans have sold generally at extremely low prices. Lima beans at the close choice lots of beans are selling rather better under light supplies. Tomatoes have also become very plenty and are moving slowly at low figures. Many lots are not worth expenses. We quote: Potatoes, Southern rose, per bbl, 75@$1 25; do Chili red, 75@$1 12; do culls and soft stock, 40@65c; asparagus, per dozen bunches, 50@$1 75; cucumbers, Charleston, per basket, 40@60c; do Norfolk and North Carolina, 30@50c; cabbages, Long Island, per 100, $2@$3; do green corn, per crate, $1@$1 25; do Southern, 75@$1; eggplants, Florida, per bbl, $3@$4; do Charleston, per basket, $1 25@$1 50; onions, Bermuda, per crate, 75@90c; do Egyptian, per bag, $1 50@$1 40; do New-Orleans, per bbl, $1 75@$2; do per bag, 75@85c; do Eastern shore potatoes, per bbl, $1 25@$1 50; do Jersey, per basket, 75c; okra, Charleston, per basket, $1@$1 50; peppers, South Jersey, per crate, $1 25; string beans, Long Island, per basket, $1@$1 50; do Jersey, per basket, $1; do Maryland, 75@$1; do Norfolk, 40@75c; squash, Long Island, per bbl, $1 50@$2; do Southern, 75@$1; tomatoes, Savannah, per carrier, $1; do Florida, 40@90c; do Mississippi, 60@90c; turnips, Russia, per bbl, $1; do white, per 100 bunches, $1 50@$2; carrots, per 100 bunches, $1@$1 50; green peas, Long Island, per bag, $1@$1 75; cauliflowers, per bbl, $1@$3.

GENERAL MARKET REPORT.

New-York, June 23, 1896.

COTTON—The opening prices were at a shade advance over yesterday's closing, but there was a loss of 4 or 5 points during the morning on reports of rain in Texas and free local selling, combined with some selling orders from Liverpool. There was a recovery of a few points and then a decline, the market closing at about the lowest prices of the day, with a net loss of 7 to 10 points. The fluctuations on active months were within a range of about 8 points. The total sales were 100,000 bales. The market was easy. Liverpool showed a net loss on futures of ⅛ to 1 point, with the tone barely steady. The decline in Liverpool was explained by the reports of rain in Texas made early by private dispatches and confirmed by the Government weather report. There was rain at Cuero, Longview and Columbia, Tex. This in itself was not considered sufficient to cause much improvement to the crop, but the chances that there has been rain in some sections not reported which may be of quite general benefit to the growing cotton. The local spot market, as well as Southern spot markets, are unchanged. Local operators were acting cautiously, with a majority of traders looking with favor upon the bull side. Some express the opinion that the cotton crop has deteriorated, and that the next Government report will be of a less favorable character than the one published this month. Indianola, Miss., reports that cotton is growing nicely, and that prospects indicate a good crop everywhere. Jackson, Miss., reports that the recent cool spell has made the cotton plant look sickly in various localities of the State. It is not believed, however, that any serious damage was done, and that the plant was only temporarily set back. Evergreen, Ala., says that too much rain has fallen and cotton in bottom lands is turning yellow. Paris, Tex., reports that the situation is really alarming in Northern Texas on account of dry weather, which is playing havoc with cotton. The plant is said to have quit growing and "has bloomed clear to the top of every stalk." Price, McCormick & Co. say: "The trade has become so thoroughly imbued with the mammoth crop idea that it will doubtless require positive assurances of crop damage to stimulate a sufficient demand for cotton to bring about any material advance. Meanwhile the liability to crop damage is becoming daily greater, as we are just entering upon the most critical period of the crop's growth." Hubbard Bros. & Co. say: "With the general belief throughout the country of a large cotton crop this season all favorable news is acted upon, while no attention is paid to unfavorable advices. This is not an unusual feature of the market, which has been declining for several months, with a gradual lessening of the long interest, but it requires continued good crop and bad trade reports to prevent an advance with the small visible and invisible supply of cotton."

FLOUR AND MEAL—There is no feature to the market to-day, which continues dull, there being no demand even at concessions. The buyers and sellers seem tired and indifferent, and the market is allowed to drift. Total sales amounted to only 11,750 bbls, including 450 bbls winter patents, $3 00@$3 80, 2,000 bbls straights, $3 35@$3 45 (bulk $3 40); 100 bbls clears, $3 25; 300 bbls extra 2s, $2 70; 500 bbls extra 2s, $2 40@$2 45; 3,000 bbls spring patents, $3 55@$3 65, 500 bbls spring clears, $2 85@$2 90. FOREIGN DRIED FRUIT—The trade in dried fruit is somewhat better for out-of-town accounts, but mainly in the way of small orders rather than liberal purchases for speculative account. Prunes are quite active for the season of the year. Raisins are firm, with supplies of some grades light. Currants are firmly held, but dull. Nuts are without feature. We quote: Valencia raisins, 5¼@6c; Sultana, 5½@8c; California, 3½@5c; dates, 2½@5c; currants, 3¾@4½c; California prunes, 40@44c; almonds, 7@18c; walnuts, 6@8½c; filberts, 5¾@5½c; figs, 3¾@8c.

FOREIGN GREEN FRUIT—There is but little aside from moderate jobbing trade in lemons to report. Prices are influenced somewhat by the pressure of offerings to the out-of-town trade from the outports. Oranges are somewhat easier, with demand light. Pineapples exhibit less interest on liberal arrivals. We quote: Lemons, $1 85@$3 50; Messina oranges, $4 25@$4 75; Rodi, $4 50@$5; California seedlings, $3 25@$4 50; bananas, 75@$1 25; pineapples, Havana, $4@$12; Florida, $10@$18; cocoanuts, $22 50@$29.

GRAIN—WHEAT—The early movement of the wheat market was in favor of a little lower price, but the pressure was short-lived, and a firm and hardening tendency was developed. The volume of trade all day was comparatively mild and limited to the operations of professional dealers and to the changing trades from near to distant deliveries. This style of operations resulted in considerable strength in distant deliveries, while the July option was heavy. The foreign markets were very quiet and foreign trade was again narrow. Good crop weather continue favorable as a whole. The Northwestern advices were of favorable prospects, and a flood of wheat keeps pouring in at Minneapolis and Duluth, the arrivals to-day being 820 cars, against 644 last week, and 270 last year. From the Southwest there came reports of rain and injury which reduced a little buying of distant deliveries. Bradstreet's visible showed a very heavy decrease in the world's stocks, the reduction being 3,063,000 bush, or into decrease, 1,723,000 bush were in America, and 1,340,000 bush in Europe and afloat. The American stocks are now reduced to 63,467,000 bush, and the European stocks, 43,640,000 bush. The market was influenced a little in the latter part of the session by some report about the Venezuelan matter. Shorts were disposed to cover, and the purchase of 100,000 bush of wheat for export was about somewhat of a firming effect. The sales were 64,000 bush, No 2 Northern spring, 2c over July, f. o. b. afloat and private terms, July closed at 67c, 1,000 bush, No. 1 hard, private terms and 50,000 bush ungraded spring, private terms. No. 2 red was quoted at 68½c over July, f. o. b. afloat, and No. 1 hard 4¾c over July, f. o. b. afloat. The close of the future market was 5@5¾c net rise. CORN—There was a small local trade in the market for corn. The favorable crop reports and early decline in wheat encouraged a little selling, but later a somewhat steadier feeling prevailed. There was not, however, anything of speculative activity. Receipts continue liberal and growing crop reports very favorable in the main. Bradstreet's visible showed a decrease of 163,000 bush, making the total 11,453,000 bush. The future market closed at the advance to ¼c decline. Cash corn was very quiet. Sales reported of 7,000 bush, No. 2 yellow, at 34½c, elevator. No. 2 corn was quoted at 34½c, in elevator. 8,000 bush No. 2 sold at 35 5-16c f. o. b. afloat, for export. OATS—Another new record was made in the market for oats by a further decline in both cash and futures, and the close was weak at the lowest, at the net decline. The movement of old oats is very liberal. The crop reports show decidedly favorable promise for the growing crop. The visible decrease showed an increase of 262,000 bush, making a total of 19,647,000 bush. Cash sale were weak. Sales included 20,000 bush for export. Total sales were 94,000 bush, as follows: 20,000 bush, No. 2, about 29½c f. o. b. afloat; 24,000 bush, ungraded white, 21@27c; 18,000 bush, No. 2 white clipped, 25½c, f. o. b. afloat, and 2,000 bush, choice, 26c f. o. b. afloat. No. 2 white quoted at 29½@29¾c, 30,000 bush, No. 2 white oats, private terms, f. o. b. afloat, for export. BARLEY—Dull. Feeding quoted at 32c CORN. RYE—Dull. No. 2 Western quoted at 39@39½c, c. i. f. FLAXSEED—Market dull, and weak at $1 07.
