

As the candidates are beginning to announce themselves, it may be of some service to give a brief outline of a part of the constitution of the Democratic party. Several subscribers have requested it.

Art. I provides for the organization of one or more Democratic clubs in each township or ward. The officers of a club are president, one or more vice-presidents, a recording and a corresponding secretary and a treasurer, and the following working committees, of not less than three members each: A committee on registration, an executive committee and other committees as the club may desire.

Art. II requires the clubs to meet on the fourth Saturday in April and the county convention on the first Monday in May.

Art. III authorizes the president or five members to call an extra meeting of the club.

Under the 12th Art. each club is entitled to elect a member of the county executive committee. The chairman of this committee is elected by the county convention.

Under Art. V each club is allowed to elect one delegate to the county convention for every twenty-five members, and one delegate for a majority fraction thereof.

Under Art. VI all candidates, except for magistrates and masters and supervisors of registration, must go into the primary. The club rolls shall constitute the registry list, and no person shall be allowed to vote except his name be enrolled on the particular club list at which he offers to vote at least five days before the first election. Each club must have a separate polling place. Candidates should note the following: "That no vote shall be counted for any candidate who does not file with the chairman of the State executive committee, or with the respective chairman of the county executive committees a pledge in writing that he will abide the result of such primary and support the nominees thereof, and that he is not nor will become the candidate of any faction, either privately or publicly suggested." The latter as to being a factional candidate we think is an amendment made in 1898, and we merely call attention to it that it may not be omitted and the risk incurred of having one's votes uncounted through defect in the form of the pledge.

A PRISON NEWSPAPER.

It is not generally known that a newspaper is published at King Sing, N. Y., within the prison walls. Such, however, is a fact and as the Literary Digest says, "not all the journalistic talents of the country is on the safe side of the prison bars." The newspaper is called "The Star of Hope, and represents the three State prisons of Auburn, Sing Sing, and Clinton. All the work in the paper, including the editing, type setting and printing is done by the convicts.

The papers must be a great pleasure to the convicts, and it contains a great deal of wit. The reporter of the woman's prison at Auburn Mrs. No. 196 writes, "every window on the front of our ladies' boarding house was handsomely decorated on the two Dewey days; the balcony over the front door was especially remarkable, being completely covered with Old Glory. The girls celebrated on their own hook, and our caged Patrie sang in concord and discord, out of the Star, 'Yankee Doodle, how do you do?' 'Dewey, you're a dandy.'"

The following is a sample of the humor in which the requirements for admission into Auburn are compared to a university:

1. Candidates must have graduated from some recognized jail.
2. Must give satisfactory evidence of an immoral character.
3. And must pass successful examination in the following branches: Intoxication, dissipation, profanation, degradation, speculation, hyper-correction, and peripatetic ratiocination.

That department of the paper devoted to Clinton prison is usually found to be scintillating with wit. There are finger marks which point to the editor being Irish. He inquires how far a man drops when he falls asleep, and records that "One of our ex-governor man craked the other day that association with himself is spoiling his morals."

Unquestionably many prisons make life too hard, but the serious question will yet be made: How far should the reform go?

A NUMBER of complaints have come to us from subscribers in the county that they do not receive their papers as soon as they should. The Buckhead package a few days ago did not reach its destination at all. We have heard that papers sometimes take two or three days to reach Nelson's. Nelson's is only six miles from Winnsboro right on the railroad, and there is no excuse for this. We can only say to our subscribers that the fault is not in this office, and that other newspapers are reporting the same trouble. We hope that all complaints of this kind will be reported to us so that we may have some report of it and point it out specifically to the postoffice authorities.

Mrs. Harriet Evans, Hunsdale, Ill., writes, "I never fail to relieve my children from cramp at once by using One Minute Cough Cure. I would not feel safe without it." Quickly cures coughs, colds, grippe and all throat and lung diseases. McMaster Co., N. C., was in town Friday.

JUST A MILLIONAIRE.

The election of Mr. Bard to the Senate from California adds another millionaire to that body. He appears to be a more millionaire. The Chicago Publisher speaking of Bard's election says: "This particular millionaire—his name is Thomas R. Bard—whom the legislature of California has sent to Washington, appears to be wholly undistinguished except as a millionaire. There is no indication that he earns a dollar of his income. Even Rockefeller does better than that. Nor does Bard appear to have any opinions on public questions. Asked his views on expansion, he said it was too big a question to answer offhand, but he was satisfied the Republican party would work it out satisfactorily. As to the Philippines he did not care to discuss that question, and for the present he preferred to say nothing on the subject of trusts. And, while he favored 'the lowest possible freight rates and passenger fares' in and from California, yet he was unwilling to express himself as to the Boer war. He said: 'My opinions on that question are purely personal and private.' The Chicago paper adds: "Doubtless Senator Bard knows enough to go in when it rains. If he didn't, he wouldn't be a millionaire; and if he were not a millionaire, he wouldn't be a Senator."

And yet United States Senators are indignant when it is claimed that statehood in the Senate has declined and that the Senate contains no really distinguished men. Mr. Bard is a Republican. Is it any wonder that that party has blundered so much on the great new questions of the day?

THE COURSE OF SOME INDIVIDUAL REPUBLICAN SENATORS may serve to smooth over the blunder of the Republicans in the House in the matter of the Porto Rican tariff bill. Some of the Republicans in the Senate are revolting against the administration. One of the leaders is Senator Davis, of Minnesota, chairman of the committee on foreign affairs, and quite a number of others will refuse to be whipped into line. Senator Furaker, of Ohio, has shown considerable temper, and his Republican colleagues had to use considerable effort to hold him in check. The truth is that the Republicans in the Senate have seen and are feeling the indignant resentment by the people against the miserable administration policy towards Porto Rico, and they see that a continuation of it will result in ruin to the party. It is reported that pressure has been brought to bear on McKinley, and he can't stand pressure—to retract his steps. Mr. McKinley is a good flopper, and another flop may come at any time.

THE adulteration of food products, it is now hoped, will receive the attention of the United States Senate, though we have little hope of anything very good coming out of that body as now constituted, but the discussion will at least enlighten the people. The committee appointed to investigate the extent to which food products are adulterated, and their adulteration is practiced to a very alarming extent, the ingredients used often being very injurious to the health of the consumers. Almost every article of food contains some adulteration. Black pepper sold by one dealer, according to his confession, contained about 60 per cent of ground cocoon shell. That adulterant are used in sugar, flour, and meal is generally known. Really we do not know what we are eating when we buy all our food products. The only safe way at present is to raise supplies at home.

NARRORS are very much like big bullies, and they are relying a great deal on bullying to carry out their intentions. Large navies are maintained to bully and overawe. It is reported from Washington that the German ambassador had a conference with Acting Secretary Hill in which the latter was informed that a demonstration would be made in China by Russia, and the navy department will send the Oregon, Baltimore, the Iowa, the Pennsylvania, Maryland, and the Michigan to China to show Russia that we can bully too. And it is presumed that Germany will do a little bullying too, or as it is called officially make a demonstration.

KRECK is certainly no fool. He made a remarkably shrewd diplomatic move when he obtained from the English premier a tangible statement to annihilate the independence of the South African Republic. The Boers are bound to fight now, and the number of their sympathizers will increase.

JENKINSVILLE NEWS.

If news could be manufactured from March winds, rain, sleet and snow there would be abundant material to read just now. The few balmy, spring-like days to which March treated us in the beginning of his mad career led us to expect and hope for better things at his hands, but "Richard is himself again" and is giving us the "trou-mant."

With longing, impatient eyes gazing upon the biggy soil where they hoped to have the seeds germinating which were to supply their tables with sweet, vegetables, but from proper prospect cow-pas and turpentine will hold undisturbed sway for some time to come.

A few potatoes have been planted, and a few furrows run in the fields. No spring sets sown. Wheat looks well.

Love laughs at rain as well as at locksmiths. It is my privilege to mention the marriage of Miss Lizzie Kabb, of Long Run, to Mr. David Hamiter, of Monticello, which took place at the home of her brother, Mr. Augustus Rabb on the evening of the 28th of February. The rain poured in torrents, winds wailed and howled, but "Hyman was not cheated of his love delighted hour." Rev. E. A. McDowell officiated.

Mrs. M. D. Spigner has returned from Columbia where she has been engaged in keeping boarders for some months past.

Miss Lina McMeekin, who has been clerking in Newberry since last fall, is now at home. She will return when the spring trade opens.

Mrs. Carrie Elkin, of Alston, recently moved to Columbia. Her sons are engaged in business there.

Mrs. Martha Elkin has been visiting Mrs. J. D. Murphy.

The school at Long Run, taught by Miss Lida Noll, closed on Friday last. Miss Lida won the love of all by her overflowing zeal and patience.

It is cheering to have the jolly face and figure of Dr. Scott among us occasionally although his presence is suggestive of the many "his to which flesh is heir."

GREENRIAR DOTS.

"Have you planted in your garden?" is the leading question of the day. The ladies of the community are enthusiastic on the subject of gardening as the men are on farming. Owing to the inclemency of the weather both have been retarded considerably.

We have a fine school again. During the last winter some of the scholars were allowed to venture out.

Mr. Pope McKibbin has bought a home-sick in our midst, and is now having but a pretty little cottage on it under the efficient management of Mr. John L. Cantren.

Miss Bessie Ruff, a student of the Columbia Female College, is at home for a few days on account of sickness.

Mr. Adell and son, of Chester County, paid the community a flying visit last week.

Little children Ruff and happened to a very painful and might have been serious accident last Saturday by falling from a wagon.

Mr. C. L. Lister, who has been very sick, is slowly recovering.

Mr. Frazier of Blair's, is visiting her brother, Mr. Thos. Blair.

Miss Edith Lyles, of Horeb, spent from Friday until Sunday in the neighborhood. M. G. C.

BUCKHEAD NEWS.

"Spring, with that nameless pathos in the air
Which dwells with all things fair,
Spring, with her golden suns and silver dews
Is with us once again.
In the heart of every forest tree
The blood is a gleam,
And there, a look about the leafless boughs
As if their dream of flowers."

The above quotation from the immortal Tennyson typifies this lovely morning with its foretastes of spring!

How dreary has been the winter with its cold winds and rains, and how welcome is any herald of spring!

Owing to the almost incessant rains but little farm work or gardening has been done. Here, as well as elsewhere, the oat crop will be almost a failure on account of the hard freeze.

If only the weather would continue favorable for a while the familiar "go and sow" will resound through the land, for the farmers are getting anxious to prepare for the planting season.

The Booked postoffice has been removed from Kayfield's store to the residence of Mr. J. C. Frasier, with Miss Augusta Salyer as postmaster. The improvements at Buena Vista, the residence of Miss F. G. Frasier, progress steadily, and, when completed, will make it one of the most desirable homes in the county.

The Rock Creek congregation are pleased to have Rev. E. A. McDowell as pastor again. Days of service are held on third Sundays, at 3 p. m.

We understand that the owners of the quarry at Blair's are hoping to work them this summer. So mote it be! Anybody that develops old Blairfield is a member of rejoicing to her.

I hope the county commissioner will have the road leading to Ashford's Falls by Capt. T. M. Lyles' place worked at least impassable.

LECTURE AT ELLENSTOWN.

The little hamlet of Blackfoot was cheerfully entertained Thursday evening, March 15, by the talented Rev. H. W. Beasly, of the E. Church, who presented an exhaustive subject.

It is interesting to note that copiousness of our fluency of words is but a caricature of learned men, treated to a subject in a scholarly and entertaining style. His remarks were interspersed with sparkling wit and original and bright reminiscences of his own youthful days, beginning with his debut into social circles.

He spoke of courtship most sacred, and the blending of two lives, which should be based on true nobility of character, next in importance to the soul's awakening, the greatest event of life.

He discussed was closed in a most pathetic and impressive manner.

Rev. P. B. Ingraham is to be congratulated upon securing the services of so gifted a lecturer as Dr. Beasly, which was appreciated to church purposes.

The Greenville (S. C.) News prints an interesting description of a supper given last Saturday evening by the overseers, second hands and cotton hands of the Piedmont (S. C.) cotton mills, one of the most successful industrial enterprises in the South. Two hundred and fifty guests were present and the tables were graced under the tempting edibles prepared for the occasion. Twenty-five young ladies served the guests in a most obliging and delightful manner. A number of speeches were made, that of Col. James L. Orr, the president and treasurer of the Piedmont Manufacturing Company, being the leading one. Colonel Orr told of the beginning of the enterprise, the obstacles it had encountered, its present position and prosperity and the thoroughgoing policy which had been followed by the company and the employees.
