ALL IN ONE SHORT DAY.

VARIETY OF SPRING WEATHER AND WHAT IT LEADS TO.

In the morning the snow fell as if millions of white birds were shedding their feathers. By noon the snow had turned into a sullen, beating rain, yet the sun set in unclouded glory. That is the history of an American spring day. This sort of spring does not inspire poets, but it unchains the demon called Grip, and what havoc he makes in the community! No trouble to tell when he has begun his mischief. The headache that banishes rest by day and makes the night a long torture; the pain in bone and muscle; the nervousness; the cough that refuses to be quieted, and the rawness of throat and the soreness of lung, all tell the story.

Naturally this vicious foe to life has set the doctors thinking, talking, and writing. For once they are agreed. The best of all Grip medicines is a stimulant to rouse every latent energy of the body, and at the same time to be free from every trace of deleterious matter.

The one stimulant that meets these conditions is Duffy's pure malt whiskey. So says public opinion; so says the medical profession. Always, at this time of the year, keep a bottle of this whiskey in the house, and you need have no fear of Grip or of its consequences. For sale by all druggists and grocers.

ARRESTED ON THE STAGE.

AN ACTOR CHARGED WITH PASSING AN ALLEGED WORTHLESS CHECK.

Alfred Leggett, an actor, twenty-three years old, of No. 156 Madison-ave., was arrested Saturday, just after the matinee, on the stage of Wallack's Theatre, by Detective Rink, of the East Twenty-second-st. station, on a warrant obtained by John A. Azzimonti, a maker of theatrical shoes, of No. 52 Union Square, who charges Leggett with having given him a worthless check for $108 on July 26 last. Leggett has been playing with Miss Julia Marlowe's company at Wallack's Theatre, and was arrested just after the curtain went down at the end of the last act at Saturday's matinee.

Leggett was arraigned before Magistrate Deuel in Yorkville Court yesterday morning, and held in $1,000 bail for trial. Azzimonti alleged that Leggett had induced him to cash the check by false representation, and said that it had been drawn on the National Bank of Brooklyn, and signed and indorsed with the fictitious name of C. V. Clyde.

MORE ROOM FOR AGED HEBREWS.

The addition to the Home for Aged and Infirm Hebrews, One-hundred-and-fifth-st., near Columbus-ave., was formally opened yesterday afternoon, over 200 persons visiting the building, which now accommodates 211 inmates. The additional portion carries the building through the block to One-hundred-and-sixth-st. It is a handsome stone structure with large and airy rooms and dormitories. Everything that can conduce to the comfort of the inmates has been provided. There is a library well stocked with books and periodicals presented by various subscribers, and a large and pleasant garden; special arrangements have been made for the infirm, who have their own dining-room, obviating the necessity of their walking to another part of the building, and the married couples have rooms to themselves. So healthful is the situation of the home that an average of only eleven members die annually.

The new building cost about $75,000. Subscriptions have been received from all over the country, and the home is now almost entirely out of debt. No inmate is received who is less than sixty years old, and has not lived in New-York for at least five years.

The visitors yesterday expressed themselves delighted with the arrangements of the home. Those present included Simon Borg, president; Mrs. Jacob Scholle, vice-president; Charles Sternbach, Charles Minzesheimer, Frederick Nathan, G. A. Goldsmith, Isaac Bierman, I. Albert Englehart, Ignatz Boskowitz, Gustave Blumenthal, Abraham Cohn, Meyer Jonasson, Morris Sternbach, Mrs. Henry Gitterman, Mrs. L. Kohns, Mrs. J. Z. Cobiens, Mrs. Leonard Friedman, Mrs. Frank Rothschild, Mrs. P. Banner and Mrs. L. Lewisohn.

An entertainment of music, recitations, etc., was provided, the following taking part: Miss Lowenthal, Miss Sternberger, Miss Hauser, Miss Dreyfus (recitations), and Messrs. Blumenthal (cello solo) and Limberger.

THE NOORDLAND IN COLLISION.

London, March 21.—The Norwegian steamer Garonne, from Bordeaux for Aberdeen, has arrived in Dover Roads with her after hold full of water, having sustained serious damage in a port side collision with the Belgian steamer Noordland, from Antwerp for New-York, at 4 o'clock this morning, when off Dungeness. The Noordland sustained no damage and proceeded for her destination.

DENSE FOG AT QUEENSTOWN.

Queenstown, March 21.—A dense fog prevailed here to-day, which caused considerable delay to shipping. The Cunard steamer Umbria, from Liverpool yesterday, did not think it safe to proceed for New-York until about 4 o'clock this afternoon. The same line's steamer Aurania, from New-York March 13, arrived off this place at about 4 p. m., but, owing to the bad weather conditions, she did not stop, continuing on for Liverpool.
