AN ACTIVE FRUIT MARKET.

PRICES GENERALLY FIRM—ORDERS COMING IN FOR FOURTH OF JULY TRADE.

There were thirty carloads of California fruit sold at public auction in this city last week, against forty-four in the preceding week and twenty-seven in the corresponding week of last year. On account of the reduced receipts and the improved condition of the fruit as compared with that received in the previous week, the market was stronger, and somewhat higher prices prevailed. Royal Anne cherries especially arrived in excellent order, and were readily sold for from $1 15 to $1 35 a box, while sound black Tartarians commanded from $1 to $1 10 a box. Royal apricots were of larger size than those previously received, and were in good demand at from $1 to $1 20 a crate. Receipts of peaches were larger than in the previous week, but sound Alexanders of desirable size were easily sold for from 90 cents to $1 15 a box. Clyman plums were in good demand at from $1 20 to $1 70 a box. One carload of choice California oranges of the Valencia variety was sold at an average price of about $3 90 a box.

Mediterranean oranges were in ample supply. Rodis were disposed of for from $2 50 to $3 50 a box, and Sorrentos for from $1 50 to $2 50 a box. Lemons were in active demand on account of the intensely hot weather that prevailed in the West and Southwest. About fifty thousand boxes were sold, the price of sound fruit of desirable size ranging from $3 25 to $4 25 a box. There are now on the way from Mediterranean ports 25,000 boxes of oranges and 150,000 boxes of lemons, destined for this city, and 11,500 boxes of lemons for New-Orleans. Bananas, pineapples and limes were in increased demand and prices firm. Florida Le Conte pears were in good supply, and sold for from $1 to $1 25 a crate and $3 to $4 25 a barrel. Florida peaches were in limited supply and sold for from $2 50 to $3 50 a crate. Shipments of Georgia peaches are expected to arrive this week. Watermelons moved slowly at from $12 to $30 a hundred. Berries of all kinds were plentiful and cheap. Orders from out-of-town dealers began to come in for various kinds of fruit for the Fourth of July trade, and many are expected this week, in which, with favorable weather, active business and a strong market are anticipated.

CHARGED WITH HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

Frank Quinn, twenty-seven years old, of No. 206 Spring-st., and Frank Hannon, thirty-seven years old, of No. 550 Greenwich-st., were prisoners in the Jefferson Market Court yesterday on the complaint of Solomon Weischelbaum, of No. 88 Sheriff-st., who said that the men knocked him down and beat him in Spring-st., Saturday night, and robbed him of $27 and a roll of cloth. The prisoners were held for examination to-day.

ALLEGED CHINESE GAMBLERS IN COURT.

Inspector Allaire and Detectives Sullivan, Watts and Miller made a raid on an alleged Chinese gambling shop at No. 21 Mott-st. at 11 o'clock Saturday night, and arrested nineteen persons, including the reputed proprietor, Fung Wah. The players were in the basement in the rear of a front store, which was reached by a ladder. When the police arrived the players rushed for the front store, in which there were a number of barrels filled with rice. Some of the Chinamen endeavored to hide in it, but the police were too quick for them, and all were captured. The dominoes, buttons, etc., used in playing the games were secured by the officers.

When the alleged players were arraigned in the Centre Street Court yesterday before Magistrate Deuel, ex-Assistant District-Attorney O'Hare was their counsel. All were discharged except Wah, who was held in $500 bail.

REAL ESTATE.

A WEEK OF LARGE AND IMPORTANT TRANSACTIONS.

If all the recent reports of big sales, involving from several hundred thousand dollars to a million or more each, are to be credited, last week may be set down as one of the most remarkable in the history of the real estate market. While it is known positively that transactions involving more than $2,000,000 have been closed within the last week, rumor has it that immense tracts in the North Side have been disposed of at figures which would make the total of the week's sales at private contract more than twice the amount already named.

All this is the more remarkable when it is considered that it is the vacation season and that the market has been dull largely because prices have been so high. Many of these sales seem almost to have closed themselves, for in some cases the principals had gone out of town—one of them, at least, to Europe for the summer—and the brokers had declared that nothing definite would be decided until the fall. The element of trading has been conspicuous in the transactions referred to, but this is the logical outcome of a stagnant market and prevailing high prices. Actual cash transactions, however, have not been few in number or insignificant in the amounts involved.

The confidence that well-known investors are showing in Fifth-ave. property in the section where handsome dwellings are so rapidly giving way to business structures, received additional assurance on Friday, when Martin & Bro. purchased from Miss Imogene Hart the four four-story brownstone dwellings at No. 463 to 469 Fifth-ave., on a plot 66x100 feet, between Fortieth and Forty-first sts., for about $300,000. This was a cash transaction, and Thomas Dooner signed the contract for the buyers. Martin & Bro. only a few weeks ago purchased the old property of the Church of the Divine Paternity, 100 feet front, at the southwest corner of Forty-fifth-st. and Fifth-ave. They have since sold the corner half of the plot at a substantial advance, and negotiations are pending for the purchase of the remaining fifty feet.

The property on the North Side received a considerable boom last week through the well-authenticated report that contracts had been signed for an immense sale of unimproved land in the Twenty-third Ward. It was asserted, on excellent authority, that a Chicago syndicate had purchased a tract of many acres in the Hunt's Point District, and that the land would be divided into small parcels for sale and improvement. This transaction, which is said to be the largest ever recorded in the North Side, is in addition to the sale by the Paul Spofford estate of a tract of 181 acres, also in the Twenty-third Ward, to George Crocker for about $886,000, closed on Saturday.

Besides the foregoing, a deal involving the sale of flat, store and apartment properties in this city and parcels in Brooklyn and Passaic, N. J., at a total valuation of more than $1,000,000, and the exchange of No. 506 Broadway for a Chicago parcel, were among the week's dealings.

THIS WEEK'S AUCTION SALES.

Among the auction sales scheduled to take place this week at No. 111 Broadway, unless otherwise specified, are the following:
