GIANTS BEAT THE ORIOLES

THE CHAMPIONS UNABLE TO OVERCOME NEW-YORK'S GOOD LEAD.

AMOLE PITCHES BADLY AND IS TAKEN OUT AFTER THE DAMAGE IS DONE—BLEAK AND DISMAL WEATHER AFFECTS THE ATTENDANCE.

The New-York and Baltimore teams finished their series of games together at the Polo Grounds yesterday in the presence of a small attendance and in the most dismal weather. The Harlem marshes, never inviting at this time of the year, were enough to send the cold chills down the spines of the spectators.

Amole started in to pitch for the champions, but he had poor control, as well as little speed, and the home players took a good lead in the first two innings. Then Captain Robinson took Amole out and substituted Hoffer. The latter did splendid work, but Amole had done the damage, and Hoffer could not repair it. While Seymour showed an inclination to unsteadiness at times, he was generally effective. Both teams fielded nicely.

The Boston and Baltimore teams will begin a series of games together at Baltimore to-morrow, which ought to determine whether the Orioles will retain the pennant or not.

BROOKLYN SHUT OUT IN BOSTON.

THE BASEBALL SEASON THERE CLOSED WITH A DULL GAME.

Boston, Sept. 22.—This was a bleak day to sit through a ball game, and when Lynch called the game at the end of the seventh inning on account of darkness few were sorry. It was the last home game of the season. Boston won from Brooklyn—12 to 0. The game was monotonous and one of the most uninteresting of the year. Stivetts pitched four innings, and then Sullivan went in. Long retired in the fifth. Duffy going to short and Yeager to left. Sheckard made bad work at short, and Smith's catching was not of the best, while Payne did not bother Boston at all. Score:

DIVIDED HONORS IN PITTSBURG.

Pittsburg, Sept. 22.—The Pirates and the Reds split even to-day on two games. In the first game Killen was hit very hard, while Dwyer kept his hits scattered. The feature was Killen's long hit over right-field fence. Peitz was put in to pitch the second game because Rhines, who was scheduled, failed to report at the grounds. Peitz's support was poor. Darkness ended the game in the seventh inning. Attendance, 1,800. Score:

CLEVELAND, 18; CHICAGO, 7.

Cleveland, Sept. 22.—The Colts to-day put up the worst fielding game seen here this year, Friend being the worst of the lot, while the Indians slugged the ball hard all the time. Anson was put out of the game in the third inning by O'Day for kicking. Score:

PHILADELPHIA, 5; WASHINGTON, 4.

Philadelphia, Sept. 22.—Philadelphia defeated Washington to-day in the last game of the season here. The Senators had the game well in hand in the eighth inning, when a base on balls and Shugart's home run tied the score. In the ninth Colley's hit and Lajoie's two-bagger gave the victory to Philadelphia. Attendance, 1,129. Score:

INTERNATIONAL CRICKET IN BALTIMORE.

THE ENGLISH PLAYERS OBTAIN A LONG LEAD OVER THE LOCAL TEAM.

Baltimore, Sept. 22.—Warner's team of English cricket players began a match at the Catonsville Country Club grounds against a Baltimore team today, and when stumps were drawn for the night the visitors had piled up 252 runs, while the home players had scored only 66, with seven out of sixteen wickets down. Twelve of the Englishmen played against sixteen of the Marylanders, and gave a splendid exhibition of good playing, both at bat and in the field. The bowling of Jessop was superb and that of Stocks was almost as good, while Hemingway and Bennett made 61 and 64 runs, respectively, in forty minutes' play. Play will be resumed tomorrow, weather permitting. Summary:

REAL ESTATE.

MORE BOULEVARD PROPERTY SOLD FOR IMPROVEMENT.

Another important sale of Boulevard lots for improvement, and a rumor that the $300,000 deal in uptown property, which had daily been expected to be closed, had fallen through, were the principal features of the real estate market yesterday. Several good properties changed hands, but business on the whole was not as brisk as had been believed likely.

Hall J. How & Co. sold for Francis M. Jencks, to a syndicate of builders, represented by Gunn & Grant, the entire block front on the west side of the Boulevard, between Ninetieth and Ninety-first sts., 100 feet deep, for about $200,000. The property will be immediately improved by the erection of several first-class apartment-houses with elevators. This makes the fourth important sale of Boulevard property by Mr. Jencks within a few weeks. The other sales include four lots at the southwest corner of the Boulevard and One-hundred-and-fifteenth-st.; four lots at the southwest corner of the Boulevard and Ninety-fourth-st.; two lots at the southwest corner of the Boulevard and Ninety-second-st., and the present sale of eight lots. All these have been cash sales.

Slawson & Hobbs have sold on private terms to a client, for James A. Frame, the four-story, high-stoop dwelling, No. 264 West Ninety-first-st., 18x58x extension x100.8.

Dr. E. A. Hoffman has sold the plot, 100x100, at the southwest corner of Fifth-ave. and One-hundred-and-nineteenth-st., for about $50,000.

James & Austen have sold for Mrs. Julia L. Sheffield the four-story brownstone twenty-five-foot house, No. 108 West Seventy-eighth-st., on private terms.

Jesse C. Bennett & Co. have sold for Dr. Wendt No. 118 West Seventy-ninth-st., a four-story private dwelling, 22x60x100x extension, for about $46,000. The same firm has sold for Catharine N. Griffith No. 320 Third-ave., an old building, on a plot 58x100, for $22,000.

James A. Frame & Son have sold for about $32,000 a four-story brick and stone American basement private dwelling on a lot 18x100 to a client.

Frederick Zittel has sold for Mary E. Amabill to Bernard J. Decking, No. 1,672 Lexington-ave., at the southwest corner of One-hundred-and-fifth-st., a three-story dwelling, on lot 17.7x55, for $15,600. The seller purchased the property three years ago for $14,500.

Lowenfeld & Prager have purchased from Gabriel Moses, executor of the estate of Henry J. Hart, through D. Phoenix Ingraham & Co., No. 88 Monroe-st., a six-story store and loft building, on a plot 22.7x53.10. The price is withheld.

Plans were filed yesterday with the Building Department for the twelve-story mercantile building to be erected by the United Loan and Investment Company on the site of the old Bank for Savings in Bleecker-st. The new building is to cost $400,000.

At the Real Estate Salesroom yesterday there was only a small attendance. The auction sales resulted as follows:

By Strong & Ireland—No. 1,505 Hoe-ave., near Charlotte Place, two-story frame dwelling, lot 25x100; amount due, $3,358; foreclosure sale; Carl Rosenbaum against John Hansen et al; referee, Selah B. Strong; attorneys, Rose & Putzel; to the plaintiff for $3,000.

By Peter F. Meyer & Co.—No. 531 West Thirtieth-st., near Tenth-ave, three-story brick tenement, lot 21x81.6; amount due, $5,562; foreclosure sale; the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company, as executors, against Frederick O. Kratcham et al; referee, John H. O'Brien; attorneys, Turner, McClure & Rolston; to John J. Duffy, for $4,050.

No. 2,306 Second-ave., near One-hundred-and-eighteenth-st., three-story brick tenement, lot 17x80; amount due, $1,899; foreclosure sale; William Kingsland against Emma Engel et al; referee, Donald McLean; attorney, Frederic de P. Foster; to the plaintiff, for $18,500.

By Richard V. Harnett & Co.—First-ave., northwest corner Thirty-sixth-st., a five-story brick tenement, lot 24.8x80; voluntary sale; at No. 59 Liberty-st., bid in at $23,000.
