REAL ESTATE.

BUSINESS AMONG THE BROKERS—A DULL DAY AT THE EXCHANGE.

Few sales of real estate were reported yesterday, but the transactions disclosed two interesting purchases. The more important of these was the sale by August Belmont & Co. of the tract on the Harlem River and the Mott Haven Canal, announced in another column. The statement made by the lawyers negotiating the sale, that this property was likely to be used as a freight terminus by one of the railroads on the New-Jersey side of the Hudson, was incomprehensible to many real estate men. The general opinion among these was that the New-Haven Railroad would probably acquire the property.

The Washington Life Insurance Company has sold to Mrs. Ruth A. Wallace the plot west of Eleventh-ave., between Fifty-third and Fifty-fourth sts., comprising about three-eighths of the entire block. The plot has a frontage of 200.10 feet on the Hudson River by 800 on Fifty-fourth-st., 100.5 on Eleventh-ave. by 80x760 on the Fifty-third-st. side. The remaining triangular slip of the block was already owned by Mrs. Wallace. The city has already designated this block as part of the site for a small park, and it is understood to be Mrs. Wallace's intention to resell for this purpose. The present price of the plot is kept secret. The plot was bought by the Washington Life Insurance Company with other property in foreclosure in May, last year, for $200,000.

William Rosenzweig has sold to I. Bachrach for M. Meyer, No. 717 East Ninth-st., a brick stable, on a lot 25x92, for about $13,000.

At the Broadway Salesroom yesterday Peter F. Meyer made an attempt to sell in foreclosure the leasehold property Nos. 398 and 400 Houston-st., and Nos. 289 and 291 Second-st., 40x65.8, with two and three story brick tenement-houses. No bids were made and the sale was adjourned to Thursday week.

Walter E. Thompson has mortgaged the property on the north side of Seventieth-st., 250 feet west of West End-ave. and 60 feet frontage, to Russell Sage for the sum of $40,000 at 4½ per cent for a period of three years.
