CRUSHED UNDER A CABLE-CAR.

A SCHOOLBOY LIKELY TO LOSE BOTH LEGS AS THE RESULT OF A RACE IN THE STREET.

John Fassig, thirteen years old, of No. 1,580 Third-ave., was run over by a Lexington-ave. cable-car yesterday afternoon as he was returning from school, and both his legs were badly crushed. The boy is not likely to recover, or if he does is likely to lose both legs. With a number of companions he was running along Lexington-ave. from the school, in Eighty-seventh-st., and crossed the street directly in front of the car. Many of the passengers in the car were women, and the accident caused great excitement among them. The car was lifted after some delay, and the boy taken from under it, unconscious. He was sent to the Presbyterian Hospital.

The motorman, John Glynn, of No. 2,069 Madison-ave., was arrested and held without bail by Magistrate Olmsted in the Harlem Police Court for examination to-day. He said that he rang his bell and did all he could to bring his car to a standstill, and when he could not do this he then leaned out and tried to push the boy away, almost losing his balance.

JUMPED IN FRONT OF AN ELEVATED TRAIN

A WOMAN'S ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE AT AN UP-TOWN STATION FAILS.

Margaret P. O'Donnell, thirty-five years old, of No. 106 East Fifty-fourth-st., jumped from the platform of the elevated railway structure at Fifty-ninth-st. and Third-ave. yesterday afternoon in front of a train southbound that was just slowing up, sustaining severe injuries.

The woman was well dressed, and attracted the attention of the few persons on the platform by her strange actions. When she saw the train approach she walked rapidly toward the end of the platform and jumped onto the platform on the opposite side of the track. The engineer saw her preparing to jump and reversed the lever so quickly that many of the passengers were thrown out of their seats. The locomotive dragged the woman about twenty-five feet, the train slowing under the brakes all the time. Her clothes were torn into ribbons, and when she was lifted to the platform she was unconscious.

The woman was sent to the Flower Hospital. It was found there that she had severe bruises on her back, and her right arm was badly torn. The wounds, however, are not dangerous.
