GENERAL MARKET REPORT.

New-York, October 10, 1898.

COFFEE—There was a narrow, featureless market for Brazilian coffee futures throughout the session. Opening steady at unchanged prices to a decline of 5 points the market scarcely varied more than 5 points the remainder of the day and was finally quiet at net unchanged prices to a decline of 5 points. Sales on the call, 1,000 bags; up to 12 m., 1,250 bags, and for the entire session, 22,500 bags. The condition of affairs in European markets is much the same as here. Cables from Havre and Hamburg as well as from Rio and Santos indicated speculative apathy and weakness as a rule. The local market had very little to support it beyond the fact that the warehouse movement in this country continued fairly liberal, while receipts at Rio and Santos continued small. The American visible supply of Brazilian coffee, however, is still burdensome, or at least sufficient to allay any fears on the part of consumers regarding the question of supplies and assortments. Spot buyers therefore continue to show indifference and the market rules nominal on the basis of 6¾c for No 7 Rio, invoice lots, and 6¾c for jobbing parcels. Cleared from Bahia, October 6, steamer Bona, with 4,000 bags coffee.

The range of contract prices in the local market to-day was as follows:

COTTON—The price of cotton again declined and the market closed at about the lowest point of the session. There was a larger liquidation of futures, however, resulting from a disposition to unload, in view of heavy receipts and bearish crop advices. The market opened steady, with but little change in prices; the first call developed an advance of 1 point on some positions, otherwise the list opened the same as it closed Saturday. As the Government report was to make its appearance at noon, trading before that hour was conducted upon a very conservative scale. Early in the session the temper of the market was tolerably steady because a good many of the traders were claiming that the report from Washington would show a condition of 71c, and no better. But every one knew this was mere guesswork, and when receipts began to loom up thus at the ports, there was a prompt increase in the estimated movement for the day, parties who had been figuring on 75,000 bales at the ports revised their figures—increasing the estimate to 78,000 bales. The actual figure proved to be 76,832 bales, against 65,036 bales last week and 60,025 last year. Thus receipts seem more than offset the bullish views of some of the trade regarding the probable purport of the Bureau, and the market began to weaken. Covering just before noon, however, caused a return to about the closing prices of Saturday. The Bureau report was read on the noon call; an immediate decline of 5@6 points followed. According to this report the condition of the crop October 1, was 75.4, against 70.4 in 1897, 60.7 in 1896, 65.1 in 1895, 82.7 in 1894 and 73.3 in 1893, and 79.8 last month, or a decline of 4.4 points during the month. The mean of the October averages of the last ten years was 73.9. The Bureau stated that the decline during September, though by no means uniform, affected the entire cotton-producing regions, being 2 points in South Carolina, Texas and Tennessee; 4 points in Alabama, 5 in Georgia and Arkansas, 6 in Mississippi, 7 in Virginia and Florida, 8 in North Carolina, 11 in Louisiana, 16 in Oklahoma, and 22 in Indian Territory. The market at the weakest interval showed a net loss of 5@7 points. The decline was arrested by covering following claims that yellow fever was spreading in Louisiana and Mississippi. The market was finally barely steady at a net decline of 5@6 points. Price, McCormick & Co.'s cotton letter to-day concludes as follows: "A great deal of cotton is wanted in the neighborhood of 5c per pound by parties who regard that figure as likely to fully discount the supplies which we must this season face. Meantime speculation lacks inspiration, the current exceptionally low price causing the bears to act with extreme caution, whereas on the other hand the heavy movement restricts operations on the part of both consumers and the speculative element. Weather conditions will, of course, be found a more or less important factor in the market from this time forward. The Signal Service predicts frosts to-night in North Texas."

Manchester—Yarns firm; cloths steady.

FLOUR AND MEAL—There was a moderate trade in flour circles to-day, with steadiness the rule, and holders in some cases taking advantage of the rise in wheat to ask an advance over last week's prices. Spring patents, $3 75@$4 25; winter straights, $3 40@$3 60; winter patents, $3 70@$3 85; spring clears, $3 15@$3 40; extra No 1 winter, $2 90@$3 10; extra No 2 winter, $2 65@$2 80; no grade, $1 70, to arrive; buckwheat flour, $1 50@$1 60, spot, to arrive. GRAIN—WHEAT—Higher prices prevailed to-day in response to an unusually bullish combination of influences. At the start there was an active demand for options based on strong and higher Liverpool quotations, together with war rumors and a sharp drop in consols. Following this came a slight reaction at midday on unloading by traders, with a general improvement again in the afternoon to the highest point of the day, with closing prices ⅛@1c above the official of Saturday. Of equal value with foreign news was the development of a big export trade and an increase of only 947,000 bush in the visible supply, where at least 1,500,000 bush increase had been looked for. The business on export account was reported at 113 loads, of which 74 loads were worked here and the balance at outports. The Chicago market led in point of strength most of the session, but all outside markets showed prompt action on the bull side, although the public interest was small and unsatisfactory everywhere. Local scalpers displayed their bearish tendencies by selling short at the start, and were the chief buyers here on every bulge. Of weekly statistics the decrease of 690,000 bush in Russian shipments was deemed most significant. The entire world's shipments were 7,981,000 bush, against 8,150,000 bush the previous week and 7,932,000 bush last year. The amount on passage decreased 400,000 bush, while the English visible increased 380,000 bush. There was a good demand for cash wheat here on Saturday, with prices again higher, attaining practically the figures reached during the Leiter boom. Liverpool futures closed 1¼@1½d net higher. Paris wheat 5@10 points lower, flour 20@25 points off, and Antwerp ½ franc higher. It was said that Liverpool and London have only about 2,000,000 bush of wheat together, former stock not having shown any increase this week. The interior receipts were large again to-day, but fell 313,000 bush behind last week. The greatest change in domestic stocks for the week was in the amount on lakes, which decreased 879,000 bush. The visible supply increase last year was 1,690,000 bush. Its present total is 12,210,000 bush, against 22,794,000 bush last year. The local stock of all kinds of wheat in store and afloat at New-York is 794,000 bush, against 2,385,000 bush last year, the week's increase being 42,800 bush. There were decreases of 45,000 bush in the stock of No 2 red and of 74,000 bush in the supply of No 1 Northern. The final quotations for No 2 red was 74c f o b afloat, October 25@30c, No 1 Northern Duluth, 74c, October 25-30, and No 2 Northern Duluth, 71c, October 25-30. The Government made no report on wheat to-day. The late curb was 70 1-16c for December.

CORN—The Government report had a restraining influence on trade to-day, but the market showed a firmer undertone with wheat, and closed ⅛@¼c net higher. Country acceptances were reported small. Export demand was moderate, taking 51 loads all ports. The visible supply increased 706,000 bush, and is now 22,202,000 bush, against 37,704,000 bush last year. Local stock increased 171,000 bush, and there was a gain also of 58,000 bush in the supply of No 2 corn. Liverpool closed ⅛@¼d net higher. World's shipments were 3,812,000 bush, against 4,218,000 bush a week ago and 2,573,000 bush last year. The amount on passage increased 320,000 bush. No 2 corn closed 36¾c f o b afloat. The Government report made condition 82.9, against 84.1 last month and 77.1 a year ago. Prospective yield, 1,980,146,000 bush, against 1,926,762,000 bush last month and 1,902,967,000 bush a year ago. The report also made oats yield 27.6 bush to the acre, against 25.1 bush last month. Prospective yield, 698,832,000 bush, against 635,532,000 bush last month and 698,767,000 bush a year ago. OATS—There was an export business of 50,000 bush heavy white oats to-day. The visible supply increased 22,000 bush, and is now 5,469,000 bush, against 13,393,000 bush last year. The local stock increased 53,000 bush, and the amount of No 2 oats here decreased 7,000 bush, being now only 3,800 bush. No 2 oats closed 27c, No 3, 26½c; No 2 white, 29c; No 3 white, 28c; track mixed, 26¼@28½c; track white, 27@32½c; No 2 white clips, 30c.

RYE—Market steady; No 2 Western, 54½c spot, 54c f o b afloat to arrive, 50¼c c i f Buffalo; State rye, 50½c c i f New-York carlots. BUCKWHEAT—Market steady; quoted 40@41c c i f New-York.

METALS—The week opened with the metal market in tolerably good form. Tin and spelter particularly exhibited pronounced firmness, and the remainder of the list, while generally unchanged, were steady to firm. At the close, according to the New-York Metal Exchange, some higher Liverpool quotations, together with war rumors and a sharp drop in consols. Following this came a slight reaction at midday on unloading by traders, with a general improvement again in the afternoon to the highest point of the day, with closing prices ⅛@¼c above the official of Saturday. Of equal value with foreign news was the development of a big export trade and an increase of only 947,000 bush in the visible supply, where at least 1,500,000 bush increase had been looked for. The business on export account was reported at 113 loads, of which 74 loads were worked here and the balance at outports. The Chicago market led in point of strength most of the session, but all outside markets showed prompt action on the bull side, although the public interest was small and unsatisfactory everywhere. Local scalpers displayed their bearish tendencies by selling short at the start, and were the chief buyers here on every bulge. Of weekly statistics the decrease of 690,000 bush in Russian shipments was deemed most significant. The entire world's shipments were 7,981,000 bush, against 8,150,000 bush the previous week and 7,932,000 bush last year. The amount on passage decreased 400,000 bush, while the English visible increased 380,000 bush. There was a good demand for cash wheat here on Saturday, with prices again higher, attaining practically the figures reached during the Leiter boom. Liverpool futures closed 1¼@1½d net higher. Paris wheat 5@10 points lower, flour 20@25 points off, and Antwerp ½ franc higher. It was said that Liverpool and London have only about 2,000,000 bush of wheat together, former stock not having shown any increase this week. The interior receipts were large again to-day, but fell 313,000 bush behind last week. The greatest change in domestic stocks for the week was in the amount on lakes, which decreased 879,000 bush. The visible supply increase last year was 1,690,000 bush. Its present total is 12,210,000 bush, against 22,794,000 bush last year. The local stock of all kinds of wheat in store and afloat at New-York is 794,000 bush, against 2,385,000 bush last year, the week's increase being 42,800 bush. There were decreases of 45,000 bush in the stock of No 2 red and of 74,000 bush in the supply of No 1 Northern. The final quotation for No 2 red was 74c f o b afloat, October 25-30; No 1 Northern Duluth, 74c, October 25-30, and No 2 Northern Duluth, 71c, October 25-30. The Government made no report on wheat to-day. The late curb was 70 1-16c for December.

CORN—The Government report had a restraining influence on trade to-day, but the market showed a firmer undertone with wheat, and closed ⅛@¼c net higher. Country acceptances were reported small. Export demand was moderate, taking 51 loads all ports. The visible supply increased 706,000 bush, and is now 22,202,000 bush, against 37,704,000 bush last year. Local stock increased 171,000 bush, and there was a gain also of 58,000 bush in the supply of No 2 corn. Liverpool closed ⅛@¼d net higher. World's shipments were 3,812,000 bush, against 4,218,000 bush a week ago and 2,573,000 bush last year. The amount on passage increased 320,000 bush. No 2 corn closed 36¾c f o b afloat. The Government report made condition 82.9, against 84.1 last month and 77.1 a year ago. Prospective yield, 1,980,146,000 bush, against 1,926,762,000 bush last month and 1,902,967,000 bush a year ago. The report also made oats yield 27.6 bush to the acre, against 25.1 bush last month. Prospective yield, 698,832,000 bush, against 635,532,000 bush last month and 698,767,000 bush a year ago. OATS—There was an export business of 50,000 bush heavy white oats to-day. The visible supply increased 22,000 bush, and is now 5,469,000 bush, against 13,393,000 bush last year. The local stock increased 53,000 bush, and the amount of No 2 oats here decreased 7,000 bush, being now only 3,800 bush. No 2 oats closed 27c, No 3, 26½c; No 2 white, 29c; No 3 white, 28c; track mixed, 26¼@28½c; track white, 27@32½c; No 2 white clips, 30c.
