GENERAL MARKET REPORT.

New-York, February 1, 1899.

COFFEE—A quiet but tolerably steady market for Brazilian coffee futures was developed this morning, in view of moderate primary receipts, a good United States warehouse movement and better Brazilian cables. Sellers generally were inclined to hold aloof, despite the fact that European markets cabled little encouragement, the unfavorable effect of yesterday's Dutch sale being still apparent. Hamburg was quiet and unchanged, while Havre declined ¼ franc. Brazilian news, though, offered some support. Thus Rio was a shade higher and Santos firm, although quotably unchanged. Brazilian receipts of 22,000 bags were only moderate and were offset by warehouse deliveries in this country of over 20,000 bags, which represented a continued large distribution of supplies, although not to be compared with the exceptional output of Monday. A decline of 1-32d was made in the Rio rate of exchange. Steamers Strabo, with 5,000 bags, and Holbein, with 11,000 bags, cleared Santos yesterday. A moderate increase for the month was shown in the stock of coffee at Hamburg, actual figures being 745,000 sacks against 720,000 sacks, respectively. In the open market for spot coffee holders were generally steady in their views, although demand continued moderate; quotations are nominally on the basis of ⅝c for Rio 7s. During the forenoon trading in the future market was of insignificant volume, but the feeling was nevertheless tolerably steady throughout the session. By noon sales aggregated but 3,750 bags, of this amount 1,250 bags were done on the call, besides which there was some switching. Total transactions for the day, 12,500 bags. The market closed steady at net unchanged prices. Arrivals at Baltimore during January were 8,800 bags, deliveries 8,800 bags, leaving a stock of 73,600 bags on February 1.

COTTON—There was a decided check to the speculative buying interest in cotton today, the influence of orders which set in some weeks ago showed a subsiding tendency, and the general volume of business was less than for some days past, although liquidation made the average of the day's transactions still quite heavy. The baiting attitude taken by the public led to considerable confidence on the part of local bears, who were confirmed in their views by the retreating attitude of exporters regarding spot cotton in the south as well as at Liverpool and also by the continued weakness of Liverpool. Private cables stated that Neill was retreating his big crop claims and that this was a leading influence in the weakness of the foreign futures markets. The general bearings to-day, however, were otherwise quite as bullish as heretofore, and the decline of 7 to 10 points which was indicated to the lowest prices to-day, was in the face of a continued bullish weather map, supplemented by private advices reporting the impossibility of cotton picking or of other field work. Dispatches from the south also repeated recent claims of neglect as to fertilizers and continued to predict smaller acreage. Advices from cotton goods markets and from American mills continued to reflect encouraging conditions. Yet the best prices of the session were secured on the opening call, when the market was quite steady, with prices generally 1 to 2 points higher. The decline from this basis was quite steady until it reached a level 8 to 10 points from the opening basis, after which there were partial rallies on covering. The market was finally steady with the net loss a matter of 4 to 7 points.

GRAIN—WHEAT—While liquidation again formed an important part of the day's transactions in wheat, causing a further sharp break in values, there were certain evidences that a better class of buying had developed on the break, which led friends of the staple to hope that the worst of the unloading movement had passed. The periods when such buying was most noteworthy were at the opening and again at the close, most of the heaviness coming at midday. In both cases foreign influences were in a great measure responsible for the improvement developed. Liverpool opened less weak than expected, and showed a rallying tendency that gave our market a rather firm start, and prompted considerable covering among local short interests. The final upturn again was based on export transactions reaching 58 loads at all ports. Foreign houses were at work on both sides of the market for futures, but received credit for buying a little more than they sold. Among home factors the most important consideration was the crop outlook. It is still cold over the winter wheat belt, with another and greater drop in temperature predicted, while the snow talked of on Tuesday failed to materialize in sufficient quantity to help the plant. Complaints, however, were not abundant, Oklahoma reporting the greatest damage. Seaboard clearances, while not large for the day, nevertheless show about three-quarters of a million bush increase over the previous week. Liverpool stocks on the first of the month were officially reported at 2,168,000 bush of wheat, compared with 1,129,000 bush a month ago and 1,511,000 bush last year. Flour stocks were 36,000 sacks in excess of last month, and 27,000 sacks ahead of last year. Final prices at Liverpool were ⅛@¾d lower. Paris wheat unchanged and Antwerp ⅛ franc below the previous night. Regarding the Government report on wheat, local traders of statistical mind figure rather bullishly than otherwise. Figuring consumption for the crop year at 290,000,000 bush and exports thus far at 133,000,000 bush, with at most more to come, there is left only 49,000,000 bush for seed and commercial uses, supposing that old supplies were practically exhausted at the close of the previous season. During January four ports cleared 14,983,000 bush of wheat and flour, and all Atlantic and Gulf ports 19,072,000 bush. Final prices for the day were ⅛@¾c net lower. Quotations of cash wheat, f o b afloat basis, were as follows: No 2 red, 82⅝c to arrive; No 1 Northern Duluth, 82⅝c spot; No 2 Northern Duluth, 80⅝c to arrive; No 1 Northern New-York, 81⅝c spot; No 1 hard Manitoba, 83⅝c to arrive. On the curb May sold at 78⅛@78⅝c.....CORN—Liquidation in this market developed also to some extent, but was checked in the afternoon by a heavy export demand, so that final prices showed a partial ½c net advance. In all positions about 96 loads were reported, making over 200 loads so far this week. January clearances from all ports were figured at 12,268,000 bush. Liverpool closed ¼d lower, with stocks reported at 953,000 bush, compared with 798,000 bush a month ago and 430,000 bush last year. Seaboard clearances, like wheat, are away ahead of last week, showing already an increase of 845,000 bush. At the close No 2 corn was quoted at 45⅝c for old and 44⅝c for new, f o b afloat.....OATS—The market was dull here, but firmer at the West with some buying for investment. No 2 oats closed at 34⅝c; track white, 34@36c; track white, 35½@39½c, No 2 white clips, 36½c.....RYE—Market easy. No 2 Western, 66@67c, f o b afloat. No 1 Western, 67c, f o b afloat; State rye, 62c, c i f New-York, carlots.....BUCKWHEAT—Market dull. Quoted, 56c, c i f track New-York.

METALS—The advancing movement in metals is still unchecked. To-day copper, tin and lead made another considerable gain on heavy demand, most favorable news from primary points, and strong cables, or practically the same information that has dominated the market for some time past. Sellers were hard to find, even at the advance, and the outlook is all that holders could desire. At the close to-day the New-York Metal Exchange called pig iron warrants firm, with spot quoted $8 50, nominal. Copper strong and higher at $17@$17 15. Tin strong and quoted higher at $25 10@$25 20. Lead strong at $4 65@$4 70. Spelter firm and quoted at $5 70@$5 80.

MOLASSES AND SYRUPS—High-grade New-Orleans staple continues to hold a relatively firm position, but less desirable qualities find an indifferent market. Offerings of the low grades were in some instances pressed sorrentically, but were slow of sale even at a slade lower rates. Syrups ruled firm, with a good export demand. Quotations follow: New-Orleans centrifugal, common, 10@14c; fair (new), 15@20c; good (new), 16@20c; prime (new), 21@27c. New-Orleans open kettle, new, 32@37c; Porto Rico, 28@35c. Syrups—Common, 12@13c; fair, 14½@15c; good, 16@17c; prime, 18@19c; fancy, 21@27c.

OCEAN FREIGHTS—The market for berth freights was dull at the following quotations: Liverpool, 1⅝d; London, 2⅝d; Glasgow, 2¼d; Bristol, 3d; Leith, 3d; Hull, 3d; Newcastle, 3d; Antwerp, 2¼d; Hamburg, 40 pfgs; Rotterdam, 7c; Amsterdam, 7c; option to Liverpool, per 100 lb, 15c nominal; London, option, 1s 6d.....FREIGHTS—Sail tonnage continues in good demand for the long voyage, general trade, case oil and South American trades, also for the West India and coastwise lumber and coal freights. Vessels are very scarce and difficult to secure and rates are strong in all departments. Steamer freights are weaker, the inquiry for vessels being light. T. Cork for orders the grain rate is 3s, for February and March loading.

OILS—Domestic trade in cottonseed oil continues fairly active at unchanged prices. Linseed oil quiet, but a very firm undertone apparent. Refined petroleum quiet at former prices. COUNTRY PRODUCE MARKETS.

New-York, February 1, 1899.

BEANS AND PEAS—There is a quiet market for marrow beans, but no further change in prices, only the fancifest lots jobbing at $1 50. Medium is little slow, but values sustained. Peas are moving fairly well, with most of the choicest stock commanding $1 27½. A few more red kidney have been taken for export at $1 75, and plenty more stock offering at same figure. White kidney firm, but other varieties still dull. Green peas steady but quiet. We quote: Beans, marrow, 1898, choice, per bush, $1 47½@$1 50; do, medium, 1898, choice, $1 30@$1 32½; do pea, 1898, choice, $1 25@$1 27½; do red kidney, 1898, choice, $1 75; do white kidney, 1898, choice, $1 75@$1 90; do yellow eye, 1898, choice, $1 50; do black turtle soup, 1898, choice, $1 65@$1 70; do lima, California, $2 30@$2 35; green peas, bags, 62½c; do Scotch, bags, $1 62½.

BUTTER—The market is quite active and firm for fancy and all grades of fresh table butter. Fancy creamery nearly all grades of fresh table butter. Fancy creamery is commanding 26c readily, and in a few exceptional cases a little more is obtained. Buyers are not drawing close as little more is obtained. Buyers are not drawing the line quite so closely on quality, and quite a good deal of stock is going through at the top price. Ordinary to choice grades range from 16@18c, and are cleaning up closely, exporters buying all the surplus over home trade requirements. June creamery is doing a little better; sales are at 16½@17c for best lots; remaining stocks are now very light. State dairy fresh tubs when fancy are sought for at 17@18c; most of the stock is still wintry, and such has slow sale. Old dairy getting in rather small compass, exporters having relieved the market of much of the surplus stock at, say, 13½@14c. Imitation creamery and fresh factory are having pretty good export demand, and the market is firm. Best grades of rolls are quiet and, in buyers' favor, but packers are showing more interest in the cheaper stock, and such is slightly firmer. We quote: Creamery, Western, extras, per lb, 19c; do firsts, 17½@18c; do thirds to seconds, 14½@17c; do State, finest, 18@18½c; do firsts, 17@17½c; do thirds to seconds, 14½@16½c; Western, June, finest, 16½@17c; do Western, held, poor to prime, 13@16c; State dairy, half-firkin tubs, fresh made, finest, 17@18c; do Welsh tubs, fresh, finest, 17@17½c; do seconds to firsts, 14@16c; State dairy, summer and fall made, tubs or firkins, finest, 14½@15c; State dairy, tubs or firkins, poor to good, 13@14c; Western imitation creamery, extras, 16@16½c; do firsts, 14@15c; do seconds, 13@13½c; Western dairy, finest, 14½@15c; factory, fresh, extras, 14c; do firsts, 13½c; do seconds, 13c; do lower grades, 11½@12½c; factory, June, finest, 13½@14c; do held, thirds to firsts, 11½@13c; rolls, fresh, choice to fancy, 13@13½c; do common to prime, 11@12½c.

CHEESE—There is fair movement to the home trade, while exporters are still showing interest mostly in summer made storage cheese. We hear of sales of about 200 to 300 boxes of latter grade at about 9c, but exporters are finding difficulty in securing the quality they required at that figure. Some 500 boxes of summer made cheese in store, there is left only 49,000,000 bush for seed and commercial uses, supposing that old supplies were practically exhausted at the close of the previous season. During January four ports cleared 14,983,000 bush of wheat and flour, and all Atlantic and Gulf ports 19,072,000 bush. Final prices for the day were ⅛@¼c net lower. Quotations of cash wheat, f o b afloat basis, were as follows: No 2 red, 82⅝c to arrive; No 1 Northern Duluth, 82⅝c spot; No 2 Northern Duluth, 80⅝c to arrive; No 1 Northern New-York, 81⅝c spot; No 1 hard Manitoba, 83⅝c to arrive. On the curb May sold at 78⅛@78⅝c.....CORN—Liquidation in this market developed also to some extent, but was checked in the afternoon by a heavy export demand, so that final prices showed a partial ½c net advance. In all positions about 96 loads were reported, making over 200 loads so far this week. January clearances from all ports were figured at 12,268,000 bush. Liverpool closed ¼d lower, with stocks reported at 953,000 bush, compared with 798,000 bush a month ago and 430,000 bush last year. Seaboard clearances, like wheat, are away ahead of last week, showing already an increase of 845,000 bush. At the close No 2 corn was quoted at 45⅝c for old and 44⅝c for new, f o b afloat.....OATS—The market was dull here, but firmer at the West with some buying for investment. No 2 oats closed at 34⅝c; track white, 34@36c; track white, 35½@39½c, No 2 white clips, 36½c.....RYE—Market easy. No 2 Western, 66@67c, f o b afloat.
