GENERAL MARKET REPORT.

New-York, July 7, 1899.

COFFEE—The market for Brazilian coffee futures opened steady but quiet at unchanged prices. No business was transacted on the opening call; nor was there any until about 12 m., when quite a movement set in, which resulted in sales of 5,500 bags, extending to seven months, with prices unchanged to 5 points higher than yesterday's closing figures. Subsequently, the market ruled steady, but quiet, and was finally steady and not unchanged. The undertone of local sentiment was more cheerful, but as a rule all hands were inclined to be conservative. The feature of to-day's trading was the indication of small receipts at Rio and Santos. The bears undertook to explain the deficiency by claiming that weather conditions were against the movement. Nevertheless, the fact that receipts at Rio and Santos were falling off at a time when they should be increasing made an impression on the minds of the shorts and covering became a feature. Outside speculation, however, found little encouragement and investment buying was not a factor of consequence in to-day's market, although "outsiders" showed rather more interest than heretofore. Spot Brazilian coffee ruled quiet at nominally unchanged figures; closing with sellers rather than buyers, however, on the basis of 6¼c for No 7 invoice lots and 6⅝c for jobbing parcels. Arrived at New-York, steamer Coleridge, with 4,560 bags Bahia and 22,395 bags Rio. Stock in Havre, 1,564,000 bags, including 1,039,000 bags Brazilian, against 1,562,000 and 1,047,000, respectively, last week.

COTTON—Better conditions prevailed at the Cotton Exchange to-day. The market made a tolerably steady start, with prices unchanged to 1 point higher and then ruled very quiet in the absence of news of consequence, although there was any quantity of gossip in circulation purporting to give authentic information regarding the situation in Texas, but this generally reflected the prejudices of the promulgators and failed to exert any marked influence on the market. It was generally assumed here that the situation in the flooded districts was beginning to better rather than worse, and left some basis for hope of recuperation in the higher counties with the possibility of replanting, to some extent at least, in other counties, while it was argued by the more optimistic crop enthusiasts that enough reason yet remains to overcome, with favorable weather, most of the disadvantages so far recited. Business throughout the forenoon ruled very quiet, but later there was a rally of 3@4 points on covering, with no well-defined reason for the movement, beyond a natural timidity on the part of shorts, in view of the sensational stories still in circulation. The upward movement was retarded to a degree by the unsatisfactory character of the English cables, notably the indication of small dealings in spot cotton at Liverpool. In view of the recent prognostications favoring the idea that foreign consumption of cotton was bound to be much in the strength of orders already in hand, to-day's sales of but 7,000 bales gave little encouragement. Advices reaching here from Southern spot markets were also to an extent unsatisfactory. There were reiterations of good conditions with American cotton goods makers and markets, but they were already discounted and cut but little figure as an influence on the market. Traders were generally disposed to hold off for the Government report. The market closed steady, with prices 2@3 points net higher. According to "The Galveston News" the Brazos River is falling in its upper course, but is still slowly rising and is inundating additional territory near the Gulf. All hope of the flooded cotton surviving is now past owing to the long period that it has been under water. Prominent cotton buyers who are familiar with the yield of productiveness of the flooded region estimate that the total of prospective bales of the staple that have been lost by the high waters is not less than 500,000 bales. If this estimate is anything near correct the monetary loss from this source alone is fully $8,000,000. There are twenty-two counties almost completely covered with water and the estimated loss of cotton yield in each county is from 15,000 to 30,000 bales. If the waters subside in time there will be some replanting done. "The New-Orleans Times-Democrat" stated: "Advices received here by cotton factors from a few points in the immediate district are of the most encouraging character. These reports represent the crops in the first and second bottoms completely ruined, and much of the cotton on the uplands is washed out and the soil carried away by the tremendous downpour of water."

GRAIN—WHEAT—Most of the session wheat was weak, declining steadily until after 1 o'clock under scattered liquidation and disappointing cables, to which were added better crop conditions in the Northwest than prevailed on Thursday. The last hour, however, witnessed a sharp rally and a partial recovery in prices, occasioned by an active export demand at all seaboard points, taking about 80 loads. Last figures of the day were therefore but ⅛@⅜c net lower, against the decline at the weakest interval. Foreign houses sold again around the opening and had cables stating that English heaviness was caused in part by improved weather and prospects of large world's shipments. French markets closed partly 10@15 points higher, and Antwerp unchanged. Local traders were moderately bearish, being timid about too much activity on the short side, with the Government report so near at hand. The Northwest reported clear weather and generally favorable prospects for wheat, but in the modern Miller's" weekly report a gloomy view was taken of wheat's outlook, owing to excessive rains interfering with harvest operations. It also stated that farmers generally show a disposition to market wheat, their offerings being quite generally absorbed by local millers. Snow reported too much rain in the Northwest. Seaboard clearances of wheat and flour were fairly large. The Northwest movement aggregated 424 cars today, against 43 cars last year. It has fallen off somewhat this week, and advices indicate that still further shrinkage may be seen in the near future. World's stocks, according to "Bradstreet's," decreased 1,706,000 bush for the week. Duluth stocks will probably decrease 750,000 bush this week, and as 2,250,000 bush are stated to have been delivered on July contracts for early shipment the stock of contract grain will be down to 500,000 bush. Argentine shipments were 1,100,000 bush, or a slight increase over last week, and the visible supply there is reported at 8,648,000 bush, compared with 1,280,000 bush a year ago. Quotations of cash wheat, f o b afloat basis, were as follows: No 2 red, 80¼c; No 1 Northern Duluth, 81⅛c to arrive; No 2 Northern Duluth, 77⅝c spot; No 1 hard Duluth, 85⅛c to arrive; No 1 Northern Manitoba, 78¼c to arrive; No 2 Milwaukee spring, 76⅝c.....Wheat, in store at the 78¼c elevator. According to "Bradstreet's," wheat, including flour, shipments for the week aggregate 3,798,972 bush, against 3,268,968 bush last week, 2,728,642 bush in 1898, against 3,268,968 bush last week, 2,502,606 bush in 1897, the corresponding week of 1898, 2,502,606 bush in 1897, 2,167,000 bush in 1896 and 2,317,237 bush in 1895.....CORN—The market was influenced by liquidation all the morning, but almost recovered later in the day on renewed buying for export, the transactions reaching 100 loads, all ports. Final prices were ⅛c net lower. Cables were partly ⅛@⅜c lower, and Argentine shipments were 284,000 bush more than last week. Snow said that north of the Ohio River rain was needed, and also in Atlantic and Gulf sections. Western operators heavy sellers of corn early in the session. No 2 corn closed 38⅝c elevator, 39¼c delivered and 39⅝c f o b afloat. "Bradstreet's" stated that the week's exports of corn were 4,097,144 bush, against 4,482,116 bush last week, 2,411,272 bush in this week a year ago, 2,732,717 bush in 1897, 1,848,268 bush in 1896 and 1,055,456 bush in 1895.....OATS—Exporters took about 250,000 bush to-day, but in spite of this fact the market was weak and heavy all day. No 2 oats closed 29½c; No 3 2c, No 2 white, 31c; No 3 white, 30c; track mixed, 29½@31c; track white, 31@36c; No 2 white clips, 31½c.....RYE—Market easier. COUNTRY PRODUCE MARKETS.

New-York, July 7, 1899.

BEANS AND PEAS—Trade was a little quiet to-day, but sellers held all the advantage secured lately and the market had quite a firm tone. One of marrow, medium and pea, with our outside quotations generally obtained on such sales as were effected. Red kidney are still selling at $1 70 generally. Yellow eye a little firmer. California lima sparingly offered; a sale of 200 bags reported at $2 65. Scotch and green peas are very strong. We quote: Beans, marrow, 1898, choice, per bush, $1 52½@$1 55; do medium, choice, $1 40@$1 42½; do pea, choice, $1 40; do red kidney, choice, $1 70; do white kidney, choice, $1 90@$1 95; do yellow eye, choice, $1 30@$1 35; do black turtle soup, choice, $1 70; do lima, California, $2 65; green peas, bbls, $1 15; do bags, $1 10; do Scotch, bbls, $1 12½; do bags, $1 10.

BUTTER—The general trade was quiet again to-day, but the proportion of fancy fresh creamery was not large and the market for such is ruling fairly firm on the basis of 18½c. Jobbers have no difficulty in supplying their wants at that price, but speculative buyers are occasionally paying a fraction more for long lines of very high quality, especially adapted for fancy trade. From the downward at the liberally supplied, dull and weaker, holders would accept a little less money on these goods than they would last week, but are unable to attract important trade. Factory without further change; two carloads more of fancy June stock sold at 14¼c. We quote: Creamery, Western, extras, per lb, 18½c; do firsts, 17½@18c; do thirds to seconds, 15@17c; do State, extras, 18¼@18½c; do firsts, 17½@18c; do thirds to seconds, 15@17c; State dairy, half-firkin tubs, fancy, 17c; do firsts, 16@16½c; do seconds, 14½@15c; State dairy, tubs, fancy, 16½@17c; do firsts, 15½@16c; State dairy, tubs, seconds, 14½@15c; do thirds, 13½@14c; State dairy, tins, etc, 13½@16c; Western imitation creamery, extras, 15½@16c; do firsts, 14@15c; do seconds, 13@13½c; Western factory, extras, 14@14¼c; do firsts, 13½@13⅝c; do seconds, 13c; do thirds, 12@12½c.

CHEESE—There was very little movement in large full-cream cheese to-day and market nominally unchanged. No further room available on the Liverpool steamer sailing Saturday, and exporters show little interest. Some lots of late arrival had to go into storage. Small size lots are moving well, in good demand from the home trade for storage purposes, and we have heard of sales of several long lines at 8½c. Skims have cleaned up fairly well for desirable grades and closing about steady, but ordinary grades dull and irregular. At Cantaraugus yesterday sales of 1,300 boxes large and 2,000 boxes small at 8⅝@8¾c, ruling at 8½c. Liverpool cable, 42s for both colored and white. We quote: State, full cream, large, white or colored, fancy, per lb, 8c; do good to prime, 7½@7¾c; do common to fair, 7@7¼c; do small, colored, fancy, 8½c; do small, white, fancy, 8½c; do good to prime, 8@8½c; do common to fair, 7@7¾c; light skims, small, choice, 6¾@7c; do large, choice, 6¾c; part skims, small, choice, 5¼@5½c; do large, choice, 6¼@6½c; do good to prime, 5¼@5½c; do common to fair, 4@4½c; full skims, 3c.

EGGS—Receipts were fairly liberal again to-day, and the general market was in an unsatisfactory condition. A little very fancy stock sold at 15@15½c, but the proportion of such was so very small that the quotations seem extreme, leaving this grade it was difficult to get over 12@12½c for average good Western packings, with some of the fair marks from best sections selling at 11c at mark. Inferior grades are still a great drug, and we hear of sales down to 7½@8c. Dirties and checks are slow and in buyers' favor. We quote: Jersey and nearby, fancy, White Leghorn, per dozen, 16½@17c; do mixed, fancy, Western State, Pennsylvania and nearby, average prime, 15c, loss off, 15½@16c; Western, loss off, 15@15½c; do selected, at mark, 15@15½c; do selected, average best lots, 14½c; regular packings, average prime, at mark, 12@12½c; undergrades, 9@11½c; culls, $1 80@$3 15.

FRUITS—FREIGHT—Apples increasing in supply, but mostly of small size and poor quality and selling slowly at low figures. Pears in good demand and firm under light offerings. Peaches and plums scarce and nominal. Grapes in light supply. Cherries sell well when choice. Currants firm and higher. Strawberries irregular in quality and value. Raspberries a shade easier, except more Northerly stock, which sells well at full late prices. Huckleberries firm and higher. Bl
