BANKERS' CONVENTION ENDED.

ADDRESSES BY JAMES G. CANNON, MYRON T. HERRICK, W. C. CORNWELL AND W. R. TRIGG—OFFICERS ELECTED.

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 7.—The closing session of the American Bankers' Association convention was opened this morning, with prayer offered by the Rev. Paul F. Sutphen, of the Second Presbyterian Church of this city.

"The Possibilities of Banking Co-operation Under a Uniform System of Credit Departments and Standardized Property Statements" was the title of an interesting paper read by James G. Cannon, vice-president of the Fourth National Bank, of New-York. The resolutions offered by Mr. Cannon in regard to a credit information bureau were unanimously adopted.

Colonel Myron T. Herrick, president of the Society for Savings, of this city, was the next speaker, his subject being "The Effect of Banks on the People's Progress."

The next paper presented was on the subject, "What Can Be Done to Perfect Our Currency?" by William C. Cornwell, president of the City National Bank, of Buffalo. He said in part:

How far must the Republican party go, and just how far, to carry out the pledge for sound money? Clearly, only as far as the President, ever since his election, has been advocating. That is to say, they must firmly establish the gold standard by law, and they must rob the greenbacks of their danger, by depleting the Treasury gold, or, in other words, of throwing us off the gold standard.

And these are the two steps absolutely necessary to be taken first to perfect the currency.

If these two things are done—no matter how clumsy or inadequate or ill adapted or ridiculously antiquated and unscientific our currency and other financial arrangements may be—the pledge for sound money will have been kept by the President and the Republican party, and the Gold Democrats, without whom the victory could not have been won, will have been justified in their action in voting for McKinley. Because, whatever may be said, no matter how strongly the President might have pubicly urged it, up to the present time, no bill of the kind could have been passed.

Three main things need to be done to perfect our currency:

First—To establish the gold standard by law.

Second—To cancel or impound the greenbacks.

Third—To retire bond secured bank notes and substitute properly safeguarded banknotes against assets.

The voters have not yet been educated up to the third requirement. They have as to the first two. That is what the victory at the polls in 1896 meant.

"How Can the United States Become the Clearing House of the World?" was discussed by William R. Trigg, president of the William R. Trigg Company, shipbuilders, of Richmond. Mr. Trigg was followed by General Alfred C. Barnes, of New-York, who discussed the same subject at length.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, Walker Hill, of St. Louis; vice-president, Aliah Trowbridge, of New-York City, and members of the Executive Council: Myron T. Herrick, president Society for Savings, Cleveland; Stuart G. Nelson, of New-York; J. D. Powers, of Kentucky; Daniel Annon, of Maryland; T. E. Stevens, of Nebraska; C. T. Lindsey, of Virginia; George F. Orde, cashier Northern Trust Company, Chicago; Caldwell Hardy, president Norfolk National Bank, Norfolk, Va.; J. W. Writing, president People's Bank, Mobile, and J. H. Inscrwillen, president Clinton Savings Bank, Clinton, Iowa. One vice-president from each State was also elected.

At the conclusion of the election President Russell was presented with a loving cup by the members of the Executive Council, for which he returned thanks in a brief speech.

FUTURE COFFEE AT THE LOWEST PRICES.

THE ENORMOUS SUPPLY, WITH BIG CROP PROSPECTS, CAUSES THE REDUCTION.

The lowest price on record for "future" coffee was reached yesterday, when coffee deliverable in October sold on the New-York Coffee Exchange at 4.40 cents. The previous low price was 4.45 cents in June for coffee deliverable in July. The high price in seventeen years was 22.25 cents in June, 1897, for coffee deliverable in the following December. The cash price of Brazilian coffee was yesterday the lowest on record, being 5¾ cents, or one-eighth cent below any previous figure. The low prices now current are due to the enormous world's supply and the expectation that the new crop will reach 11,000,000 bags. The increase in the world's supply in August was 800,000 bags, the largest increase ever reported for a single month. The world's visible supply on September 1 was 7,859,000 bags.

NEW MOTIVE POWER FOR STANDARD OIL.

ELECTRICITY TO REPLACE STEAM IN THE WORKS ON NEWTOWN CREEK.

The Standard Oil Company is to introduce electricity as the motive power in place of steam in its works on Newtown Creek. The expense of the change will be $30,000, and if the experiment is successful electricity will be used for driving pumps and operating machinery in the other works of the company.

THE AMERICAN BRIDGE COMPANY.

A CONSOLIDATION OF THE PRINCIPAL INTERESTS BEING FORMED IN THIS CITY.

Representatives of all the principal bridge companies in the United States are holding a conference in the banquet hall of the Waldorf-Astoria for the purpose of effecting an amalgamation. The conference began yesterday, and it is thought will continue for several days. Representatives were present from the A. P. Roberts Company, Pennsylvania; the Edgemore Iron Company, Edgemore, Penn.; the Youngstown Bridge Company, Youngstown, Ohio; the Wrought Iron Bridge Company, Canton, Ohio; the Boston Bridge Company, Boston; the Cornell Bridge Company, New-York, and the Carnegie Bridge Company, of Pittsburg.

Stephen Little, an expert accountant, who has been engaged examining the books of the companies, made his report at yesterday's conference.

The new combination, it is reported, will have a capital of $[illegible], of which $20,000,000 will be 7 per cent cumulative stock and $[illegible] common stock. It is said the concern will be called the American Bridge Company of the Republic Bridge Company. The underwriting has been arranged for.

SUGAR TRADE AND WHOLESALE GROCERS.

SEVERAL MEETINGS TO BE HELD AND CONCESSIONS OFFERED TO BUYERS.

Several meetings of wholesale grocers to discuss the situation in the sugar trade will be held between now and the middle of September, but the one from which final results are expected is to be held in Saratoga on September 12. The New-York Sugar Refining Company (Deoxher) has made a further reduction of one-sixteenth cent in the price of granulated sugar. The Mollenhauer and National refineries offer one-sixteenth reduction on old contracts as an inducement to buyers to move sugar, but are taking no new business below the list price of 5.35 cents. It is reported in the trade that the New-York company has made a little money in the last year. It is said that mutual friends have approached H. O. Havemeyer, president of the Sugar Trust, with a suggestion that an agreement between all the refiners for apportionment of the output might be feasible, but that Mr. Havemeyer refused to consider it.

TRUST BUYS A ST. PAUL DISTILLERY.

ANOTHER STEP IN THE PLAN TO ABSORB THE INDEPENDENT DISTILLERIES.

The Distilling Company of America has acquired the St. Paul Rye Distillery, located at South St. Paul, Minn. This distillery will commence operations at once, and about thirty thousand barrels annually will be produced. C. T. Hanna, who built every important rye distillery in Pennsylvania during the last twenty years, will be the superintendent of the St. Paul plant.

The reduction in the price of spirits by the Distilling Company has, as expected, greatly stimulated the demand. It is said to be the policy of the company to make large sales at small profits, rather than small sales at large profits. The intention of the company is, generally speaking, to carry on its business on practically the same lines as the Standard Oil Company.

The company expects to control the Kentucky whiskey business. It has a trade organization that covers the country, and believes that the effectiveness of this organization will enable it to absorb the trade of the independent distillers. It is anticipated that the independents will, for the most part, sell out to the Distilling Company before long. The company asserts that it does not seek nor desire a fight, and says that the independents would have little or nothing to gain by one. The independents in the whiskey trade are in about the same position as the independent sugar refiners in the sugar trade. The American Sugar Refining Company, otherwise the Sugar Trust, has the upper hand in the sugar trade, and the Distilling Company of America, otherwise the Whiskey Trust, considers that it has the best of it in the whiskey and spirits trade. The Kentucky independents are numerous, but in this instance, it is alleged, there is not strength in numbers. The business of the Distilling Company is concentrated and can be handled economically, while that of the independents is declared to be so divided up that it is expensive to handle.

OFFICERS OF COTTON DUCK TRUST.

Baltimore, Sept. 7.—The permanent organization of the Mount Vernon-Woodberry Cotton Duck Company, recently organized under the laws of Delaware and which acquired fourteen cotton duck mills situated in various parts of the country, which are said to manufacture 90 per cent of all the cotton duck made in the United States, was effected today at the office of the Continental Trust Company. The Board of Directors comprise the following: Richard Cromwell, James Hooper, Thomas M. Turner, Henry A. Parr, David H. Carroll, S. M. Lehman, G. K. Sheridan, F. F. Carpenter, Theodore Hooper, Michael Jenkins, Andrew D. Jones, S. Davies Warfield, E. A. Brinckerhoff, J. Spencer Turner, Charles K. Oliver and W. Kennedy Cromwell. On the board are all of the mill owners who originally owned the properties absorbed. S. Davies Warfield, president of the Continental Trust Company, was elected chairman of the Board.

The following officers were elected: President, Richard Cromwell, who was formerly president of the Mount Vernon Company; vice-presidents, J. Spencer Turner, Charles K. Oliver and W. Kennedy Cromwell. The offices of secretary and treasurer will be filled later.

The Executive Committee elected comprise the following: Richard Cromwell, Thomas M. Turner, Andrew D. Jones, Michael Jenkins and Henry A. Parr. It is understood that the mill owners who managed the respective companies in the past will still actively manage their old companies for the new corporation.

COLLECTOR BIDWELL'S ST. GALL APPEAL.

The appeal of Collector Bidwell in the St. Gall embroidery cases, more particularly the specific case against Loeb & Schoenfeld, importers, of this city, was made public yesterday. There are no less than fifteen specifications in the complaint made to the United States Circuit Court, but the case, it is admitted, hinges chiefly on the right of the Secretary of the Treasury to compel the Collector of Customs to act in customs cases.

In the first specification it is contended that the Board of General Appraisers erred in assuming jurisdiction to review the decision of the Collector. The second specification holds that the amount of duties assessed was illegally exacted by the Collector. Some of the other specifications cite precedents in support of the stand taken by the Secretary of the Treasury in ordering the appeal.

GOLD CERTIFICATES FROM WASHINGTON.

Gold certificates, in denominations of $100, $50 and $20, to the amount of $620,000, were received at the New-York Sub-Treasury yesterday from Washington. They were taken by banks. A transfer of $[illegible] to Chicago and another of $[illegible] to New-Orleans were made through the Sub-Treasury yesterday. The first was in connection with the moving of the cotton crop.

OFFICERS OF MALTSTERS' ASSOCIATION.

Detroit, Sept. 7.—The National Malsters' Association, which has been in convention here the last two days, elected the following officers to-day: J. C. White, of Buffalo, president; John C. Nott, of Davenport, Iowa, vice-president; O. M. Pettit, of Kenosha, Wis., treasurer, and J. H. Park, of Chicago, secretary. The next convention will be held in Chicago.

REAL ESTATE.

MORE RUMORS REGARDING THE W. W. ASTOR HOLDINGS.

Reports concerning the real estate holdings of William Waldorf Astor continue to multiply, despite the fact that no one connected with Mr. Astor has as yet indicated that he has any intention of making a wholesale disposition of his property.

The story that Jefferson M. Levy, who is now in Europe, had made an offer for all of the Astor property was followed yesterday by the announcement that Henry Morgenthau, president of the Central Realty Bond Exchange and Trust Company, who is now on his way to the other side of the water, had gone for the express purpose of investigating Mr. Astor's intentions in regard to his realty, and to make him a proposition for the control of the same by a stock company. Inquiries from Delmonico to Sherman at his back, at Mr. Morgenthau's office yesterday, it was said that the story was true, in so far as it and that Mr. Morgenthau was on his way to Europe, but that there it ceased to have the slightest verification in fact.

The usual number of unconfirmed rumors were present yesterday, and a few of them made their way into the news columns of the afternoon papers. It was reported that Samuel Goldfricker had sold for Edmund Coffin to a builder the plot of about eight lots on the south side of One-hundred-and-twelfth-st., 267 feet west of Fifth-ave. Negotiations were said to be pending, but no contracts had yet been signed. It was also reported that P. Tecumseh Sherman had sold the four story brownstone dwelling house, with lot 20x100, No. 61 West Seventy-first-st., formerly the home of General William T. Sherman. The price paid for the property was quoted to be about $35,000 but here again there was a denial, Mr. Sherman asserting that no sale of the property had been made.

Lowenfeld & Prager have purchased from Charles J. F. Decker, the four-story building, with lot 25x98.10, No. 178 Eldridge-st., on private terms.

R. C. & F. T. Barry have sold for Mrs. Mary J. Cannis, to M. Green, the three-story private dwelling house, on lot 12.10x100.9½, No. 56 East Ninety-first-st., on private terms.

Schmidt & Co. sold to a builder, for Addison & Stone, No. 411 East Eleventh-st., 25x103. The buyer will improve. They also sold for E. Lowenthal the new dwelling house in Nelson-ave., near Dovecot-st., 20x50. The seller takes in exchange a dwelling house in Brooklyn.

S. B. Goodale & Son, in conjunction with William N. Gilbert, No. 27 West Twenty-fourth-st., a four story dwelling house, lot 25x[illegible]. The property will be improved by the erection of a business building or a bachelor apartment house. In part payment for the Twenty-fourth-st. parcel the buyer gives the Joseph Stephenson country property at New-Rochelle.

William Evans is the seller of the southwest corner of Avenue A and Eleventh-st., reported yesterday.

The Bankers' Trust Company, recently organized, is the lessee of the offices soon to be vacated by George R. Read, at No. 10 Wall-st.

Two parcels in foreclosure comprised the offerings at the New-York Real Estate Salesroom yesterday, which were disposed of as follows: Peter F. Meyer & Co. sold the four story brick dwelling house, on lot 17.6x99.11, No. 454 West One-hundred-and-forty-fourth-st., to the plaintiff for $[illegible], and Bryan L. Kennelly & Co. sold, No. 59 West One-hundred-and-fourteenth-st., a five story brick flat house, on lot 26x100.11, to Kirchoff & Brown for $[illegible].

Plans were filed yesterday at the Department of Buildings for alterations to the church of Our Lady Queen of Angels at Nos. 228 and 230 East One-hundred-and-thirteenth-st., to cost $4,000.
