Foreclosure Sales.

NEW YORK SUPREME COURT, COUNTY of New York.—Samuel E. Kilner, as sole surviving executor, &c., plaintiff, against Mary Heath Farmer and others, defendants.

In pursuance of a judgment of foreclosure and sale, duly made and entered in the above entitled action, bearing date the 19th day of June, 1900, I, the undersigned, the referee in said judgment named, will sell at public auction, at the Exchange Salesrooms, now located at No. 111 Broadway, in the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York, on the 24 day of October, 1900, at 12 o'clock noon on that day, by Peter F. Meyer, auctioneer, the premises directed by said judgment to be sold, and therein described as follows:

All that certain lot, piece or parcel of land, with the buildings and improvements thereon erected, situate, lying and being in the Twenty-second Ward of the City of New York, bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point on the southerly side of Seventy-eighth street, distant one hundred and six feet and three inches westerly from the corner formed by the intersection of the southerly side of Seventy-eighth street with the westerly side of Columbus (formerly Ninth) avenue; running thence westerly along Seventy-eighth street, twenty-three feet nine inches; thence southerly, and parallel with Columbus avenue and part of the way through a party wall, one hundred feet and one inch; thence easterly, and nearly parallel with Seventy-eighth street, twenty-six feet to a point distant one hundred and four feet westerly from the westerly side of Columbus avenue on a line drawn at right angles therefrom; thence northerly, and parallel with Columbus avenue one hundred feet six inches to the point or place of beginning; said premises being now known as No. 108 West Seventy-eighth street.

Dated New York, September 10th, 1900.

SUPREME COURT, COUNTY OF NEW YORK.—The New York Life Insurance and Trust Company, Plaintiff, against Jennie B. Boyd, Harkness Boyd, William I. Seaman, Harry McCallum, Joseph Loth, Alexander A. Wild and John N. Drake, Defendants.—In pursuance of a judgment of foreclosure and sale, duly made and entered in the above entitled action, bearing date the 12th day of September, 1900, I, the undersigned, the Referee in said judgment named, will sell at public auction at the New York Real Estate Salesroom, No. 111 Broadway, in the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York, on the 12th day of October, 1900, at twelve o'clock noon on that day, by Peter F. Meyer & Company, Auctioneers, the premises directed by said judgment to be sold, and therein described as follows:

All that certain piece or parcel of land, situated in the City of New York, bounded and described as follows: Commencing at a point in the westerly line of St. Nicholas Place where said westerly line is intersected by the dividing line between the lands of Jennie B. Boyd and land now or formerly of Mr. Stebbins or his trustee, which point is distant measured on a line at right angles to One hundred and fifty-fifth Street one hundred and thirty-three (133) feet ten (10) inches southerly from the southerly line of said One hundred and fifty-fifth Street; and running thence southerly along the westerly line or side of St. Nicholas Place, one hundred and one feet six inches to a point distant two hundred and twenty-four (224) feet and four (4) inches northerly from the northwesterly corner of One hundred and fifty-third Street and St. Nicholas Place; thence westerly parallel with One hundred and fifty-third Street and along land conveyed by Jennie B. Boyd to Frederick N. Trubee, one hundred and four (104) feet; thence southerly and parallel with St. Nicholas Place sixty-six (66) feet three (3) inches to the southerly boundary line of the lands of Jennie B. Boyd; thence westerly in a direct line along the land now or late of said Dubois one hundred and six (106) feet eight and one-half (8½) inches to a point in the easterly side of St. Nicholas Avenue distant one hundred and fifty-four (154) feet ten (10) inches northerly from the northeasterly corner of One hundred and fifty-third Street and St. Nicholas Avenue, thence northerly along the easterly side of St. Nicholas Avenue one hundred and sixty-seven (167) feet and one-half (½) of an inch to a point where the dividing line between said land now or late of said Stebbins and land of Jennie B. Boyd intersects said easterly line of said St. Nicholas Avenue, which point is distant about one hundred and forty-eight (148) feet four (4) inches from the southeasterly corner of One hundred and fifty-fifth Street and St. Nicholas Avenue, and thence easterly along said line of said Stebbins two hundred and forty-five (245) feet eight (8) inches to the point or place of beginning, be the said several distances or dimensions more or less.

Excepting, however, from the above described premises so much thereof as has been taken for the Croton Aqueduct.

With such right or easement, if any, as the said Jennie B. Boyd and Harkness Boyd may have had on April 4, 1895, to cross the Croton Aqueduct in front of said premises.

Being part of the same premises conveyed to the said Jennie B. Boyd by John McLean by deed dated the twelfth day of July, eighteen hundred and eighty-six, and recorded in the office of the Register of the City and County of New York in Liber 1977 of Conveyances, page 279.

Dated, New York, September 14th, 1900.
