GENERAL MARKET REPORT.

New-York, July 3, 1905.

COTTON—The cotton market was more active and excited, and fluctuations were broader than has ever been experienced except during the famous January corner of 1901 and during the closing of the 1903-'04 bull campaign. Prices went up over $5 a bale on the active months in about ten minutes' time, and, after a break of about 40 points, rallied again, with the market closing within 3 or 4 points of the top. The business was estimated at fully 1,000,000 bales. The cause of the excited advance was, of course, the July crop report of the government. The trade had been looking for a condition of between 81 and 82 per cent. The weekly report of the Weather bureau has apparently justified such a conclusion by reporting more or less general improvement in condition, but the government reported the condition at 77 per cent, against 77.2 per cent last month, 88 per cent for this time last year and 77.1 per cent on July 3, 1903, when an acreage a little larger than the present produced a crop of about 10,000,000 bales. The market was weak before the report was issued. It opened firm and 22@12 points higher in response to cables, but sold off under liquidation by uncertain longs, and just before the bureau's figures were published was about 7@8 points net lower, with July at 9.45c, October at 9.48c and December at 9.56c. Inside of ten minutes after the report October was selling at 10.50c, and other months were up in proportion. Big bulls sold very freely on the advance, and when local shorts had been partly supplied the price began orders in the hands of wire and commission houses as the report was spread through the country, and the market closed steady at a net advance of $4@101 points. Only twice before since 1880 has the July condition been below 80 per cent. Once was in 1899, when it was 75.8 per cent. That season produced a yield of 193 pounds to the acre, which, applied to the present acreage, would suggest a crop of about 10,800,000 bales. The local bull leader, however, figures that, with weather as good much over 10,000,000 bales on the present acreage, and predicts between 12c and 14c for cotton. The effect of the report on the producer and consumer is, of course, yet to be determined. Southern spot markets were evidently very much unsettled and excited last night, and but few points quoted even nominal prices. Spinners are said to be sold heavily ahead for several months, and the Southern holder is evidently in a position to dictate, the while, with all low a condition on July 1, every adverse item of weather news will probably attract unusual attention from speculation.

The range of contract prices in the local market to-day was as follows:

COUNTRY PRODUCE MARKETS.

(For the days ending Monday, July 3, 1905.)

New-York, July 3, 1905.

BEANS AND PEAS—Receipts for five days, 1,035 barrels of beans and 429 bags of peas; exports, 662 barrels of beans and 138 bags of peas; imports, 30 bags of beans. Recent damage to the bean crop has caused the market to rule firm and advancing for most varieties, particularly large beans, as it is too late to replant these. At the close the holiday interruption causes a quiet market, but tone fully as strong and some holders are asking even more than quoted. We quote: BEANS, marrow, choice, per bushel, $3 40; do, medium, $2 17½@$2 22½; do pea, $1 85; do red kidney, $2 85@$2 90; do white kidney, $2 50; do, black turtle soup, $2 70@$2 75; do yellow eye, $1 85@$2; do Lima, California, $3 75@$3 80; GREEN PEAS, Scotch, per bushel, $1@$1 02½.

BUTTER—Receipts for five days 50,288 packages; last week 77,079 packages; exports to Europe, 1,913 packages and 574 packages to other countries. Arrivals are not excessive to-day, but there is a liberal stock on hand, and a generally free offering. The tone is barely steady for creamery and 20½c—the official quotation for extras—is very rarely exceeded on sales over the trier. Factors steady for desirable lines suitable for export. Other quotations: Western creamery, extras, 93 to 95 score, 20¼@20¾c (Mercantile Exchange official quotation, extras, 20¾); do firsts, 19½@20c; do seconds, 18@19c; do thirds, 17@17½c; State dairy tubs, extras, 19½@20c; do firsts, 18½@19c; do seconds, 17@17½c; do thirds, 15½@16½c; Western imitation creamery, extras, 18½@19c; Western imitation creamery firsts, 16@17c; Western factory, extras, 17c; do firsts, 16@16½c; do seconds, 14½@15c; do thirds, 13½@14c; Western factory, firsts, 16c; do, seconds, 15@15½c; do thirds, 14@14½c; packing stock, No. 1, 15½c; do No. 2, 14½@15c.

CHEESE—Receipts for five days, 19,323 boxes; exports to Europe, 2,313 boxes, and 1,152 boxes to other countries. The market developed somewhat unfavorable features during the latter portion of last week; country markets were generally easier; supplies this way showed a material increase, and with only a fair demand for current use and an absence of any important speculative movement stocks accumulated and dealers were compelled to carry over more cheese than at the close of any previous week of the season. No change was made in the official range of quotations up to the close of the week, but in the anxiety to sell some holders quietly shaded prices whenever necessary. This week opened with advices of still lower prices at the Northern markets on Saturday, and with liberal invoices prices declined ½c on all grades of full cream. The general trading was moderate, the occurrence of the Fourth of July holiday to-morrow evidently having its influence in interrupting trading. Large cheese continues in light supply, but demand limited. Skims selling fairly when of desirable quality, but prices closing ¼c lower in sympathy with full cream. Liverpool cable, new, 47s for white and 46s for colored; old, 51s for white and 32s for colored. We quote: New, State, full cream, small, colored and white, fancy, 9½c; do fair to choice, 8¾@9¼c; do large, colored and white, fancy, 9½c; light skims, choice, 7½@7¾c; do part skims, prime, 5½@6½c; do good, 5¼@5½c; do common to fair, 4@4½c; do full skims, 1@2c.

EGGS—Receipts for five days, 54,204 cases. Arrivals show continued decrease, and there is a fair demand, with a satisfactory clearance of best grades. But the supply arriving is still ample for consumptive needs, and prices are without quotable change, though the average of sales is still a little better than a week ago. We quote: State, Pennsylvania and nearby selected white, fancy, 21@22c; do choice, 19½@20c; do mixed, extra, 19@19½c; do mixed, firsts to extra firsts, 16½@18c; do Western extra, 19@20c; do firsts, 17½@18c; do seconds, 14@15c; do thirds, 13@13½c; Kentucky, 13@14½c; Southern, 12@13c; dirties, 10@13c; checks, 8@11c.

FRUITS—DRIED—Receipts for five days, 1,470 cases evaporated apples and 1,740 pkgs other dried fruits; exports, 9,066 pkgs dried fruits. The future market for prime apples continues to climb, and with other on chop stock is held back for 6¾@7c. Trading altogether in Novembers, few Octobers and Decembers changing hands. In the spot market quotations on evaporated apples have advanced, few prime now offering under 6c. Nothing doing in sun dried apples. The market for small fruits pretty well cleaned up and new fruit will probably command high prices. We quote: APPLES, evaporated, fancy, per lb, 7½c; choice, 6½c; do prime, per 100 lb, $5 87½@$6; do nearby, prime, per lb, 5¾@5½c; do common to good, 4½c; do Canadian, sun dried quarters, 3¾@4¼c; do Ohio, sun dried, 2¾@3c; do chopped, per 100 lb, $1 40@$1 50; do cores and skins, 90c@$1. PEACHES, California, peeled, 15@19c; do unpeeled, 9@12½c. PRUNES, California, 2@6½c; do Oregon, 4¾@7c.

FRUITS—FRESH—Old apples now cleaned up, and quotations little more than nominal. New apples in quite free supply, but showing wide range in quality. Pears have advanced and generally declined under increasing supplies. Peaches have sold well, but prices are low, as much of the fruit arrives specked and out of condition. Plums in moderate supply. Cherries show wide range in quality; supply liberal. Strawberries arriving from Western New-York freely, but up-river stock is running down in quality, and from other sections the season is over. Blackberries have ruled low under heavy offerings. Raspberries in liberal supply, but meeting a good outlet. Huckleberries have declined under larger offerings. Gooseberries lower. Currants have steadily declined, but close 1c higher to-day under light receipts. Oranges and lemons selling well. Grapefruit largely poor. Pineapples have been more plenty and declining. Muskmelons fairly active, but prices are 50@$1 lower to-day under heavy offerings. Watermelons active until just at the close, when prices showed a decline of about $25 per car. HOPS—Receipts for five days, 208 bales. Advices report a spell of wet weather in Oregon, that has developed some vermin and honey dew, which are causing a little uneasiness, though no material damage has occurred as yet and a few days of hot sunshine will overcome this difficulty. There are all other sections crop reports are exceedingly favorable both in this country and Europe. On the local market scarcely any trading is reported, and prices, while quotably unchanged, have a weak unsettled tone. We quote: State, 1904, fancy, per lb, 36@37c; do choice, 32@34c; do medium, 29@31c; do common, 25@27c; do prime, 34@35c; do choice, 30@32c; do medium, 25@27c; do common, 22@24c; Pacific Coast, 1904, choice, 34@35c; do medium, 29@31c; do common, 25@27c; Pacific Coast, 1903, choice, 27@29c; do old ends, 11@12c.

POULTRY—ALIVE—Receipts for five days 13 carloads by freight and about two cars by express. While there was a fair demand for fowls and roosters during the latter portion of last week, it was not sufficient to absorb the receipts, and dealers were compelled to carry over full 5 carloads. This week opened on Monday with advices of only about thirty cars to arrive, and with stronger Western advices fowls and roosters advanced 1c per lb. Spring chickens showed considerable increase in the advices, and prices lower. Turkeys scarce and in good shape. Ducks and geese about steady. We quote: CHICKENS, spring, Western, per lb, 20@21c; do Southern, 18@19c; FOWLS, Western, per lb, 13½c; ROOSTERS, Western, old, per lb, 9c. DRESSED—Receipts for five days, 4,953 pkgs. Supplies of fresh killed fowls continue comparatively moderate, and with a fair demand during the latter portion of last week receipts cleaned up promptly and prices firmly sustained. This week opened on Monday, however, with some increase in the advices, generally slow trade and under increasing pressure to sell the market developed a weaker feeling and prices declined ½c. Spring chickens were in good demand up to the close of last week, in view of the approaching holiday, and prices ruled quite firm. There was some little trade early Monday morning, more especially for very picked, but trading was soon over, and, with some later receipts, which would have to be carried over, the market developed a weaker feeling. Fresh killed turkeys sell slowly. Long Island spring ducks in fair demand and steady. Squabs unchanged. We quote: Fresh killed, iced—TURKEYS, Western, average best, 19@16c; do poor, 13@14c; broilers, Philadelphia, 25@35c; do Western, per lb, 20@25c; do Pennsylvania, 28@30c; do Western, dry picked, 22@23c; do scalded, 3 lb and over to pair, 22c; do under 3 lb, 18@21c; do Southern, scalded, 16@17c; FOWLS, dry picked and scalded, medium size and heavy weights, 15@16c; do scalded, medium size, 12@12½c; do poor to fair, 10@11½c; OLD COCKS, per lb, 8@9c; DUCKS, spring, Long Island and Eastern, per lb, 17c; do Pennsylvania and Virginia, 16@17c; SQUABS, prime, large, white, per dozen, $2 50; do mixed, $2 12@$2 25; do dark, $1 50@$1 62.
