FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

Hazel Happenings.

Dear Sentinel:—I will try and give you what news I can get up.

Farmers are moving around these beautiful days, putting in guano, planting corn, etc.

Little Mae, the two-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Winchester, is very sick with pneumonia. We hope for her a speedy recovery.

Colds and grip are prevalent in this section.

Ye scribe went over to Greenville on the 20th ult. and was made to wonder at the rapid growth and business of the city.

Mr. Daniel Winchester has his mill in fine trim and ready to serve his custom.

A flourishing Sunday school has been organized at Antioch, with Mr. R. P. Prince as superintendent.

What J. D. Moore Has to Say.

You know my sentence was $225, Tho' some of my friends were still alive;

They went down in their pockets, that made me laugh

When they came out with almost half.

I had four or five foes who wanted me to the chain-gang go, But my friends said "No, it will not be so."

Such friends in need are friends in deed, and will never be forgotten by J. D. MOORE.

Closing Exercises of Colored School.

The closing exercises of the Pickens colored graded school was held Friday night. John I. Miller, the principal, has labored faithfully for five months to inculcate the right kind of knowledge and education into his charges; how well he has succeeded was demonstrated Friday night. John deserves much credit for his patience and painstaking teaching. The exercises were rather lengthy but not wearisome. There were 26 regular numbers on the programme, one special number, and two encores. The programme consisted of songs, dialogues, recitations, speeches and drills. All of the selections were well rendered; the various parts were well carried out; the pieces well chosen and much study given to the proper delivery of them. The solo, the fan drill, the scarf drill and the prize declamation are deserving of special mention. The exercises were held in the church and it was filled to overflowing with attentive and well-behaved patrons and spectators. Prof. Miller, who had sent out special invitations to the white citizens of the town, reserved one wing of the church for their special benefit, and it taxed him to his utmost to seat all who came.

The talk by Miller, at the close of the exercises, was a good, logical one and straight from the shoulder. He spoke of educating the head, the heart and the hands, and proved conclusively that the uplifting and salvation of the negro race lay in their attending to their own business, keeping off the streets, staying away from the North, where they could do nothing but "sling hash," following honest work and keeping the friendship of the white people. If the people of his race will take his words to heart, follow his example and heed his precepts there will be no need for them to go hungry, half-clothed, or "do time" on the chain-gang.

John is a broad, liberal-minded and well-educated negro, who is not above his station in life, and is doing a noble work as a teacher. His white friends wish him well in his chosen field and would be glad to see him re-elected as principal of the colored school here, for they believe he is the right man in the right place.

Easter, with its hard-boiled eggs accompaniment, has come and gone, which reminds us of the following ancient jingle:

"Maria ate ten eggs, and so did Miss Nellie,

And both hurried home with a pain in her —;

Now don't get excited, and don't be misled—

Each dear little girl had a pain in her head."

Only Two Million Dollars.

"A little matter of only $2,000,000 doesn't amount to much one way or the other."—E. H. Harriman.

Only $2,000,000!

Merely a wisp of hay To stop up the crack in a window,

To keep the wind away; Certainly not worth counting,

A paltry little sum, That isn't enough to distinguish

A well-to-do from a bum.

Only $2,000,000!

A measly, miserable wad That wouldn't pay for the water

In a good Kentucky tod; Simply a sign of the spirit

To moisten the thirsty tongue; Merely a fleeting nothing

More than a szell at the bung.

Only $2,000,000!

Homes for a thousand or more, Or clothes for two hundred thousand,

Or food for a million poor.

Only $2,000,000!

Gee! what a little stack, When you come to learn

Of the limitless yearn Of a Harrimania!

—[W. J. Lampton.

Be a Booster.

Do you know there's lots of people Settin' 'round in every town,

Growlin' like a broody chicken, Knockin' every good thing down;

Don't you be that kind of cattle, 'Cause they ain't no use on earth,

You just be a booster rooster, Crow and boost for all you're worth.

If your town needs boostin', boost her, Don't hold back to wait and see

If some other feller's willin'; Sail right in, the country's free.

No one's got a mortgage on it, It's yours just as much as his;

If your town is shy of boosters, You get in the boostin' biz.

If things don't seem just to suit you, And the world seems kinder wrong,

What's the matter with a boostin' Just to help the thing along?

'Cause if you should stop a goin' We'd be in a sorry plight;

You just keep that horn a blowin', Boost 'er with all your might.

—[Phila. Inquirer.

Roosevelt Luck.

Released from jail, former Senator Burton says that President Roosevelt is a hypocrite; that other senators are just as guilty as he is; that he isn't guilty; that federal judges ought to be elected; that he bears no resentment for his wrongs; that he is going to publish a magazine and "speak" presumably upon the platform. Not the least of "Roosevelt luck" is the president's luck in getting the right sort of enemies.—[New York World.

To All the Women Who Suffer Per-una Is Earnestly Commended

Mrs. Geo. C. Worstell, 11 River Road, Clarksburg, W. Va., writes: "I trust that no one will think from this that I want my name in public for any cause only to let sufferers know where they may find relief from many ailments. "I can truly say I have been much benefited by the use of Peruna. I feel better than I have for two years. It is the best medicine that I know for pelvic troubles. "I have taken medicine from the doctors and found no relief; but when I began taking Peruna I could see that before I had finished taking the first bottle it was doing me good."

Cold Developed into Catarrh.

Mrs. N. P. Lawler, 423 1/2 N. Broadway, Pittsburg, Kas., writes:

"Peruna is a sovereign remedy for catarrh. Last spring I caught a severe cold which developed into a serious case of catarrh. I felt weak and sick and could neither eat nor sleep well.

"A friend who had been cured of catarrh through the use of Peruna advised me to try it and I did so at once. I expected help, but nothing like the wonderful change for the better I observed almost as soon as I started taking it.

"In three days I felt much better and within a week I was well. I continued taking the entire bottle and within two weeks I was in fine health. Peruna is a wonderful medicine."

Catarrh of the Bowels.

Mrs. Maggie Darbin, 1332 North St., Little Rock, Ark., writes:

"I was troubled for five years with a chronic disease. I tried everything I heard of, but nothing did me any good. Some doctors said my trouble was catarrh of the bowels, and some said consumption of the bowels. One doctor said he could cure me; I took his medicine two months, but it did me no good.

"A friend of mine advised me to try Peruna and I did so. After I had taken two bottles I found it was helping me, so I continued its use, and it has cured me sound and well.

"If anyone wants to know what Peruna did for me if they will write to me I will answer promptly."

Pains in the Side.

Mrs. Julia Braxton, Apollo, Pa., writes:

"Peruna has cured me of heart trouble and pains in the side.

"A year ago I was expected to die at any time, and the doctor was sometimes called at two o'clock in the morning. But I am thankful to say that I do not now have to send for a doctor now.

"Since I have used your Peruna as you advised me, I am well and able to do all my housework.

"I have all the faith in the world in Peruna as it cured me and I know that it will cure others.

"I cannot praise Peruna enough for what it has done for me."

Stomach Trouble.

Miss Anna Carsten, Clayton, Ill., writes:

"Your Peruna did me so much good. I am feeling so well now and have no trouble with my stomach."

MISS NETTIE E. BOGARDUS

Miss Nettie E. Bogardus, R. F. D. 21, Westfield, N. Y., writes: "I have been a great sufferer from sick headaches, but am now entirely free from that trouble. I have not felt so well in ten years as I do now. I would recommend Peruna and Manalin to all sufferers. I will say, God bless Dr. Hartman and his wonderful remedies."

Stomach Catarrh.

Miss Julia Butler, R. R. 4, Appleton, Wis., writes:

"For the past six years I suffered with catarrh of the stomach, causing less of sleep and appetite, with frequent severe pains after eating.

"My sister advised me to try Peruna. I took your treatment and my appetite returned speedily.

"I gained strength and flesh and am in perfect health.

"I am so thankful your medicine has done me so much good."

MRS. GEO. C. WORSTELL

MRS. O. D. ROBINSON

Mrs. O. D. Robinson, 43 St. Felix St., Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "I have taken Peruna and it did me more good than all my two years' treatment by special physicians. I can really say that I feel like another person. No more swollen feet and limbs. No more bloating of the abdomen. No more shortness of breath. No more stiff and sore joints. You have no idea what your treatment has done for me. It certainly has prolonged my life and made a new woman of me.

"O, such a blessing I have received through your kindness, doctor, and the assistance of the medicine which you so kindly prescribed. I am able to work since I began your treatment, but before I was not able to help myself, much less work for any one else. All praise is due to Dr. Hartman and his treatment."
