NATIONAL FINANCES.

December Deficit $8,535,000—Increase in Circulation.

Washington, Jan. 2.—The monthly statement of the government receipts and expenditures shows that for December, 1907, the receipts were $47,283,828 and the expenditures $55,818,573, being a deficit for the month of $8,535,000. The receipts fell off, as compared with December, 1906, about $8,520,000 and the expenditures increased by about $9,281,000. The receipts from customs for December, 1907, were $21,744,672, which is a decrease for the month of about $7,000,000. Internal revenue also showed a marked decrease, the receipts falling from $23,583,489 in December, 1906, to $20,815,224 in December, 1907.

For the six months of the present fiscal year a deficit is shown of $9,303,000. As compared with the first half of the last fiscal year, the receipts for the last six months show a decrease of about $11,000,000 and the expenditures an increase of more than $23,000,000.

The monthly comparative statement of the Controller of the Currency shows that at the close of business on December 31, 1907, the total outstanding circulation was $690,130,895, which is an increase for the year of $93,268,426 and an increase for the month of $33,912,699.

ANOTHER ARREST IN CAR THEFT CASE.

Rochester, Jan. 2.—Charles Miner, twenty-one years old, has been arrested in connection with the recent theft of a box containing nearly $3,000 from a streetcar in this city. Miner, who is a waiter, has admitted being one of the party in the automobile, but denies complicity in the robbery. George Carlisle, leader of the gang, pleaded guilty in police court this morning to grand larceny.
