O' Interest to Women

VALUE OF BUTTONS

They Are Indispensable for Decorative Purposes.

Months ago it was announced that Paris was tired of buttons, but the modes sometimes seem as little inclined to yield to the preferences of humanity as the weather, and thus far neither Paris nor New York has had any relief from buttons. Apparently these little articles are so useful that they cannot be dispensed with until something has been found to take their place.

NEW FRENCH AFTERNOON GOWN AND SKATING COSTUME.

It is, of course, as a decorative feature that their services are most valuable, what they may feel inclined to do or not to do in the way of fastening garments being a matter of little consequence, since this is a work in which the humble hook and eye is generally very successful.

From the shoe on her foot to the hat on her head—or the parasol over her head—there is no article the fashionable woman wears that may not be adorned with buttons, either with or without the addition of simulated buttonholes. Fashion has decreed that they may be dropped down almost anywhere, and their effectiveness is often remarkable. They provide a convenient means of introducing any touch of color that is wanted, and are especially useful in bringing out by repetition any particular shade one may wish to emphasize in the other decorations with which they are used.

Buttons have an influence on lines, too, as well as on color, and may be used to make or break them, as may be desired. In the afternoon gown shown to-day the buttons have the effect of making the waist line seem higher than it really is, since, being arranged horizontally on the corsage, they make it seem short, while at the same time the vertical row on the skirt increases its apparent length. The skating costume has some interesting and novel features besides its buttons, although these are quite unusual. Frock, muff and chapeau are made of ratine, and the decorative bands and buttons are of crocheted wool.

BEEF AT WHOLESALE HIGHER.

Wholesale prices for beef in the New York City market, as quoted yesterday, show an advance of half a cent a pound on nearly all cuts during the last two weeks. Loins were quoted yesterday at 11½ cents a pound, as against 11 cents on January 3. Ribs at the same figure show the same advance. Rounds rose in price from 9 cents to 9½ cents a pound during the same period. The cheaper cuts show little advance.

RAYMOND-RING VERDICT REDUCED

The verdict a jury in the Supreme Court at White Plains gave Miss Grace Raymond against Mrs. Naomi Duncombe Ring, of Mount Vernon, was reduced to $1,000 yesterday by Justice Morschauser, who stipulated that unless counsel agreed to accept this sum he would grant defendant a new trial.

WOMEN MOCK AT GOVERNORS

Hold Conference to Unsettle the Affairs of State.

"It's a long time between drinks," said Mrs. Belle de Rivera, president of the New York City Federation of Women's Clubs, to Mrs. W. G. Demarest at the Waldorf-Astoria yesterday.

"It is," said Mrs. Demarest, and they arose and filed out to the elevator, paying no heed to Mrs. J. F. Trow, who called after them that the bar was closed.

Post parliament was having a congress of governors. Mrs. Trow led the meeting as President Taft, with a huge picture on her breast of the Chief Executive, smile and all. President Taft said he had long thought that the federal laws ought to originate in the recommendations of the governors, and to that end had called the council. The President read letters of regret from various public officials, but was unable to gratify the Governor of New Jersey, who called insistently for one from City Chamberlain Hyde.

The Governor of New York—Mrs. Gerard Bancker—said that, being so new in office, he wanted advice. What should he do about the United States senatorship?

"Ask Murphy," called the Governor of Colorado, Mrs. William Grant Brown.

The Governor of New York said he would. "I am not going to offend the greatest political organization in the world," he assured his hearers, and continued:

"I stand for reform. I am going to discharge the scrubwomen, and the money thus saved will enable me to refurnish the office of the Governor of New York, the greatest office in this country."

The Governor of Massachusetts—Mrs. R. H. Rucker—wanted the help of the other states in reducing the Bay State's surplus female population. "I call on Utah especially," he said.

"Send the surplus to us," said the Governor of Utah—Mrs. Mortimer M. Menken.

Utah grew excited when President Trow proposed discussing the question of a uniform divorce law. "We don't need divorce laws," he said. "We take care of our women in Utah. It's a great state for providing for women and for leaving men untrammelled. A man can have thirty wives if he wants to"—

"Untrammelled with thirty wives!" scoffed the Governor of South Carolina, and Utah sat down.

The Governor of Nevada recited the anthem of his state:

Nevada, 'tis of thee,
Sweet state of liberty,
Of thee I sing.
State to which our fathers flee,
State which makes our mothers free,
Marriage because of thee
Hath lost its sting.

The Governor of North Carolina, Mrs. de Rivera, said he had a tale of woe to unfold. "North Carolina has gone Prohibition!" he mourned. "The spirit of conviviality which once reigned in that state has been disturbed by women, who came in and with cabalistic signs, W. C. T. U. and such, shut the open door."

After settling the divorce question, the conservation of forests, child labor and a few other matters the council turned to the discussion of a national flower.

Utah wanted the lily, "emblem of purity," and Kansas wanted the sunflower, but President Trow called on all present to vote for the laurel, and with the exception of a few malcontents they did.

SEEN IN THE SHOPS.

A combination coat and trousers hanger for men is very handy for a traveller, as it is light and will go into a suit case. It costs 22 cents, and is made of wood and metal.

A new cake cooler is a plaited wire frame on six legs. It sells for 18 cents and is excellent for the purpose.

Rotary coffee roasters for family use sell at $1.85 for the size holding two pounds of coffee beans.

Meat cleavers for family use in different shapes cost from 35 cents to $1.25 each.

Candlesticks in the red Sheraki ware, with a fierce looking devil supporting the holder, sell for $1.50 each.

Twin saucepans in the light blue and white ware to use over one gas hole sell for $1.70, and the three fitted for the same purpose are $3.65. It is a great saving of gas to use these utensils, as one burner does the work of three.

Brass coal hods for open fireplaces sell for $7.10 each.

White Japanned baskets for fruit sell from 25 cents up. With a brass handle they are 60 cents and upward.

Italian mosaics, black, ground with colored figures, come in all sizes, and may be used in many ways, framed for the wall or for trays of different kinds, and the prices run from $2.89 up.

Japanese carved bone candlesticks on ebony bases cost $1.49 each.

A majolica candlestick in the form of a twisted vine, with two large daisies, one at the base and the other forming the holder, sells for $2.49.

A round coaching candlestick of Doulton ware in soft yellow, with the figures in black, sells for $1.19, and is good for the Dutch shelf.

The names of shops where articles mentioned on this page were seen can be obtained by sending a stamped and addressed envelope to "Seen in the Shops," New-York Tribune. To insure a prompt reply the date of publication should be given.

CULINARY SUGGESTIONS.

Raisins coated with melted chocolate make a unique confection to serve at the end of dinner. Melt some sweet chocolate and dip fine, large raisins, seeded, into it. Let them cool and harden before serving. Small stoned dates of superior quality may also be coated with chocolate in this way. A candy dipper is a most convenient little utensil when dipping fruits or nuts into melted chocolate. It costs only a dime.

If there is to be a pot roast of beef for dinner, and the housekeeper desires to use up some cold biscuits left over in the biscuit pan from yesterday's breakfast, she can turn them into dumplings by dropping them into the gravy surrounding the meat. By the time they are well moistened with the gravy they are ready for serving. Do not let them stand in the gravy until they lose shape.

A delicious mince of beef was recently prepared from some cold roast and a small quantity of cold stewed tomatoes, with a dash of curry and of Worcestershire sauce. A brown sauce was prepared by mixing butter with flour in the usual way and letting it brown. The stewed tomato was used instead of water. When well heated the minced beef was added. Just before pouring it over some delicate slices of toast the seasonings were stirred into it, together with a big pinch of salt and a little white pepper.

THE TRIBUNE PATTERN.

Simple, practical gowns are the really essential ones, and this one is smart and attractive. The blouse is closed at the front and the skirt consists of three circular flounces. The lines are all good, and a great many different materials will be found appropriate. In this case, wool material is trimmed with wide braid and with soutache, but trimming offers many opportunities this season. Bands of velvet or of silk would be smart and braid could be applied over a stamped design or the skirt could be finished with underfacings, or hems, only.

NO. 6,849—TISSUE PAPER PATTERN OF TUCKED BLOUSE. NO. 6,791, PATTERN OF CIRCULAR TRIPLE SKIRT, EACH FOR 10 CENTS.

The lowest flounce is attached to the foundation and the two upper ones are arranged over it. Fine French serge and henrietta cloth suggest themselves at once as especially suited to such a model, but there are almost numberless attractive materials.

For the medium size the blouse will require three and five-eighths yards of material 24 or 27 inches wide, two and one-half yards 36 inches wide, or two yards 44 inches wide. For the skirt will be needed five and one-half yards 24 or 27 inches wide, or three and one-fourth yards 44 inches wide, with three and one-half yards 24 or 27 inches wide for the foundation.

The pattern No. 6,849 is cut in sizes 34 to 42 inches bust measure, and the pattern No. 6,791 in sizes 22 to 30 waist measure. They will be mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents.

Please give number of pattern with bust and waist measure distinctly. Address Pattern Department, New-York Tribune. If in a hurry for pattern send an extra 2-cent stamp and we will mail by letter postage in sealed envelope.

News of the Markets

The Advent of Dandelion.

Trade is dull at Washington Market this week, except in the line of vegetables, the different varieties of which show a downward tendency in price. Salad makers will be glad of the advent of dandelion, which is selling at 20 cents a quart. Mushrooms are down to 60 cents a pound again, beans and peas are only 35 cents a quart and tomatoes are 30 cents a basket. Cauliflowers are 25 cents for domestic and 35 to 40 cents a head for French. Brown kale is 20 cents the half peck, spinach is 20 cents the half peck, flat celery is 20 cents a bunch, endive is 25 cents a pound, escarole is 12 cents a bunch, lettuce is 12 cents a head, romaine is the same price and knob celery is 10 cents a bunch. Greening apples are 25 cents for two quarts, Brussels sprouts are 20 cents a till, cucumbers are 15 cents each, cabbages (red and white), are 12 cents a head; cranberries are 18 cents a quart, sweet potatoes are 15 cents a quart, new carrots are 5 cents a bunch, beets are 10 cents, white onions are 10 cents a quart and Spanish onions are 5 cents each.

Good Show of Grapes.

There is a good show at the fruit stalls of the better class grapes. Hothouse grapes are $1 a pound, muscatels range up to $3 a pound and English hothouse grapes are $2 a pound; malagas are 35 cents a pound. Florida grapefruit are 25 cents for two, mangoes are 25 cents each, alligator pears are 50 cents to 75 cents each, pomegranates are 60 cents a dozen, tangerines are 40 cents a dozen, French figs are $1 a dozen, kumquats are 35 cents a box and persimmons are $1 a dozen.

South African peaches are $9 a dozen, South African apricots and plums are 25 cents each, and the nectarines are 50 cents apiece. Florida naval oranges are 60 cents to $1.50 a dozen and seedless Floridas are $1 a dozen; King oranges, from 70 to 90 cents a dozen, are scarce. Spitzenberg apples and Newtown pippins are $1 a dozen and Roman beauties are $1.50 a dozen. Comice pears are $3 a dozen, Easter beauties, Winter Nellis and Du Barry pears are $1 a dozen and Anjou pears are $1.50 a dozen.

Fish Prices Unchanged.

Fish prices are about the same as last week. Yellow perch are 30 cents, though at the beginning of the week they were as high as 35 cents; frost fish and carp are 10 cents a pound; cod, flounders and haddock are 12 cents; yellow perch, 15 cents; seabass and smelts, 18 cents; Spanish mackerel and sea trout, 20 cents; halibut, filet of sole and whitefish, 25 cents a pound. Lobsters are 30 cents a pound, scallops are 75 cents a quart and hardshell crabs are 50 cents a dozen.

Drop in Eggs and Butter.

Eggs and butter are down a little, eggs being 40 cents a dozen and butter being 34 cents a pound, while sweet butter sells at 38 cents a pound.

There is no fluctuation in prices at the poultry stalls, most lines selling steadily at the usual winter figures.

Pork tenderloin is 35 cents a pound, loin of pork and fresh ham are 18 cents a pound, smoked hams are from 18 to 22 cents a pound, legs of lamb are 18 cents a pound, forequarters are 14 cents and hindquarters 18 cents. Veal cutlets are 28 cents a pound, veal chops are 25 cents, shoulders and breasts of veal are 17 cents and loins of veal 23 cents a pound. Sweetbreads are from 90 cents to $1.50 a pair. Porterhouse steak is 25 cents, sirloin 20 and 22 cents, round steak 20 cents and top sirloin 18 cents a pound.

Uptown Prices.

Yellow pike are selling from 20 to 35 cents a pound uptown, whitefish are 25 cents, smelts from 14 to 20 cents, sea trout 18 cents and sunfish 14 cents a pound. Lobsters are 30 cents a pound, hardshell crabs are 40 cents a dozen and scallops are 60 cents a quart.

Good lettuces are 15 cents a head, fresh Florida green peas and beans are 32 cents a quart, new carrots are 5 cents a bunch and beets are 25 cents for three bunches. Endive is 25 cents a pound and oyster plant is 10 cents a bunch. Cauliflowers are 10 and 15 cents each, lettuces are 8 cents apiece, Savoy cabbages are 15 cents and white and red cabbages 10 cents a head. Brussels sprouts are 15 cents a till, sweet potatoes are 12 cents a quart and mushrooms are 50 cents a pound. Field salad is 20 cents a quart and flat celery is 25 cents a bunch.

Maryland geese are 20 cents a pound, ducklings are 23 cents, turkeys are 28 cents and dairy fed ducks are 25 cents a pound. Small rabbits are 40 cents a pair. Meat prices show no difference from those of last week.

Malaga grapes are 30 cents a pound, cooking peas are from 7 to 10 cents a quart, Spitzenberg apples are 60 cents a dozen, comice pears are 75 cents a dozen and grapefruit are 25 cents for four.

FROM FLAT TO BIG HOUSE

German-American Club for Young Women Makes Progress.

From a tiny flat on Lexington avenue to a corner house on Park avenue so large that it has thirty windows is a big advance, but it is an advance that has just been made under the patronage of the Countess von Waldersee by the German-American Club for Young Women, founded by Fräulein Maria Lydia Winkler a few years ago.

Fräulein Winkler began looking into the conditions surrounding young German women alone in this country, and found some of them so heartrending that she says: "I cannot laugh any more. I cannot smile any more." The flat was her first effort to help them. Now she has the house at No. 1217 Park avenue, and two boards of directors, one German and one American, on which are many well known names. The society has just been incorporated.

Fräulein Winkler has lately returned from Germany, where she spent several months in the interests of the "Deutscher Heimathaus," as it is called. She succeeded in enlisting all the societies in Germany that have to do with emigration. Among the members of the German board are the Princess Marie zu Erbach-Schönberg, who is president of the Freundinnen Junger Mädchen; the Princess Schönaich-Carolath, representative of Hanover, and the Baroness von Westenholz, who represents Hamburg. Mrs. Alexander M. Thackara, wife of the American Consul General in Berlin, is also a member of the German board, and the president and secretary is Frau Oberstatzanwalt Dr. Hirsch. Professor Hugo Münsterberg is on both boards.

In this country the Hamburg-American Steamship Line is represented in the society by Emil L. Boas, and the North German Lloyd by Gustav Schwab. The president of the American board is Dr. I. W. Loch, and among the members are Dr. Josiah Strong, representatives of the German and Austrian consulates, Miss Elizabeth Moss and Miss Bertha Rembaugh, who is the society's lawyer. Miss Agatha Schurz, daughter of Carl Schurz, is also interested.

Countess von Waldersee has been interested in the work from the beginning, and the German Empress sent contributions to a bazaar given here in its aid.

The club has been in the new house only since Christmas, but Fräulein Winkler says it "looks like something already," though it will "look like more" when they get more furniture. It is to be a regular clubhouse, with both resident and non-resident members. There are classes in German, in English, in dressmaking and various things, and there is a department where bachelors can get mending done for a moderate price. Fräulein Winkler says the young women are to have "American liberty," but if they are out after 10 p. m. there will be a small fee for them to pay, and a double fee if they extend the dissipation till after 11 o'clock.
