NEWS FOR THE GOLFERS

Scene of Competitive Play Shifts to Atlantic City Links.

TURF IN FINE CONDITION

Dunwoodie Country Club to Open Its Tournament Season This Week.

The competitive golf game will shift to South Jersey this week, where on Thursday, Friday and Saturday the amateurs will compete in the annual spring tournament, under the auspices of the Country Club of Atlantic City. A number of golfers from this section have entered and the early list already received insures the usual large field of a hundred or more starters.

Those who have played at Atlantic City this spring declare the turf is in better condition than ever. Improvements have also been made to the clubhouse. As for the programme, provision has been made for five sixteens, besides beaten eight divisions in all sets. There will also be a medal play handicap on the last day.

The Dunwoodie Country Club has arranged to open its tournament season next Saturday with an eighteen-hole qualifying round in Classes A, B and C. There will also be the Red Card competition every Saturday afternoon in these three classes. Later on, members who have competed in three or more monthly tournaments will be eligible for the special October competition.

The tournament committee of the Midland Golf Club, consisting of Henry L. Nichols, James L. Brumley and Jesse Richards, has drafted a schedule to extend between May 4 and October 12. Columbus Day. Medal play handicaps, bogie contests and qualifying tests for future match rounds will be the most popular forms of play.

Exceptional progress has been made recently in the work of improvement on the course of the Apawamis Club, where the next national championship tournament is going to be held. The side of the hill going to the fourteenth hole which was blown away has been levelled off and seeded. The loose rocks and stones were also speedily removed when a force of thirty caddies was set to work picking them up.

The Dyker Meadow Golf Club has issued its programme for the spring fixtures, down to July 4. The first monthly handicap will start next Saturday. On Memorial Day there will be a competition for a cup presented by William C. Freeman. On Independence Day there will be a contest for a cup, eighteen holes medal play handicap.

The conditions of the club championship contest which will take place next October are: The sixteen players who return the sixteen lowest scores in the monthly club handicap events of the year shall qualify to play off at match play, scratch, for the title. A gold medal will be awarded to the winner and a prize to the runner-up.

The players who return the sixteen lowest net scores in the monthly club handicaps will qualify and be drawn to play off at match play handicap for the Dyker Meadow Cup.

The Baltimore Country Club of Baltimore will hold an amateur tournament on June 8 and 10, open to all golfers belonging to the United States Golf Association. The committee in charge is doing everything possible to make this the best golf tournament that has ever been held in the South. Fifteen handsome trophies will be the rewards to the successful contestants.

Among those who have promised to participate are Walter J. Travis and Jerome D. Travers, as well as a number of other equally well known players. The arrangements are in charge of M. Tyson Ellicott, to whom all communications should be addressed, care of the Baltimore Country Club, Baltimore.

According to a dispatch from the West, forty clubs, taking in a wide circle of territory from Texas to Lake Superior, and from Utah to Tennessee, will send their champion golfers to Omaha next August to enter the big trans-Mississippi golf tournament opening then at the Omaha Country Club. The flower of the stick wielders of the Middle West will be here, and their number will run up into the hundreds.

DETROIT WINS ANOTHER

Mullin Registers Third Straight Victory Over St. Louis.

Detroit, April 23.—Stanage's single to centre in the tenth inning scoring Delehanty, enabled Detroit to take the opening game from St. Louis to-day by a 4 to 3 score. It was the third consecutive victory for Mullin. George was wild, but received great support in the pinches. Three sensational catches by Cobb prevented threatening runs.

MONTREAL BEATS NEWARK

Royals Make Five Double Plays with Speed and Accuracy.

With sensational fielding behind him Burke, a recruit from Holy Cross College, pitched the Montreal Royals to a 4 to 1 victory over Joe McGinnity's Indians at Newark yesterday. He had many narrow escapes, but it seemed that the cannonball clouts of the Indians were like love taps to the visiting infielders, and they scooped up several of what ordinarily go for safe hits.

The work for the Montreal infield was cut out for them in great style. There were five double plays, and each one of them of the rapid fire order. The Holy Cross recruit gave eight passes, and his curves were not puzzling to the Indians.
