PLAY FOR JERSEY TITLE

Miss Wagner Loses One Set in Hard Fight on Courts.

UPSETS IN MEN'S SINGLES

Phillips and Dr. Rosenbaum Beaten and Drop Out of the Tourney.

Devoting themselves to driving at long range, Miss Marie Wagner, the playing through champion, and Mrs. Marshall McLean won their matches yesterday in the continuation of the New Jersey State championship lawn tennis tournament on the courts of the Morristown Field Club, at Morristown, N. J. Miss Wagner disposed of Mrs. George L. Chapman by the score of 6–4, 4–6, 6–3, while Mrs. McLean, who was formerly Miss Helen Homans, the national champion, eliminated Miss Esther Smith at 6–4, 10–12, 6–1. Miss Elizabeth C. Bunce, who holds the national indoor title in doubles with Miss Flemming, experienced an easier time, as she defeated Miss Theresa Kuser, of Trenton, at 6–3, 6–1.

The day was rather a chill one for the sport, and it seemed to numb the women, who seemed unable to execute their drives for placement with their usual accuracy. Against Mrs. Chapman's splendid court covering it looked for a time as if Miss Wagner might be the one to meet defeat. The champion, however, finally warmed up to her work, and by placing the ball swiftly and deeply to the corners finally won the match.

The frequent changes which Miss Smith made in her line of attack puzzled Mrs. McLean. She forced the playing through a gruelling second set of twenty-two games, and then finished splendidly, outplacing Miss Smith in the majority of the rallies.

In the continuation of the men's singles two unexpected defeats were chalked on the board, as K. B. Lamb, a Columbia University player, disposed of Dr. William Rosenbaum at 7–0, 6–2, 7–5, and Cedric A. Major, one of the leaders in the Brooklyn club, scored over Benjamin M. Phillips at 6–2, 6–1. It was by timely and deeply placed lobbing that Lamb overthrew Dr. Rosenbaum, while Phillips suffered from a lame arm and was not able to do himself justice against such a skilful wielder of the racquet as Major.

The summary follows:

MRS. MURPHY AND CALIPH SHIVER

Mrs. Murphy and her son Caliph, the two Central Park hippos, shivered in the near-winter blasts that swept through the menagerie grounds yesterday. Fearing that a colder spell might follow, two or three additional park employes were put to work rebuilding the indoor tank in the lion house on which several men had been at work for some days. Hippos are susceptible to pneumonia.

All morning Mrs. Murphy and her son basked in the sunshine, but when the shadows lengthened in the afternoon both kept below water. Another compartment is being made this year in the indoor cage because the stork is due to pay a visit in the near future.

ENGLISH PLAYERS DEPART

Dixon Sails for Home, While the Others Visit Niagara Falls.

The lawn tennis players of the British Isles team left this city yesterday. Charles P. Dixon, the veteran captain of the defeated forces, sailed for Liverpool aboard the Mauretania, of the Cunard Line. He said that he had enjoyed his visit and that he would make a complete and full report of the competitions for the officials of the English Lawn Tennis Association, which he plans to prepare on his way across the Atlantic Ocean.

Arthur Holden Lowe and A. E. Beamish, the two younger members of the team, arranged a trip to Niagara Falls before they left London. They likewise left the Hotel Belmont, where the players stopped while in this city, and journeyed northward. After viewing the Falls they will go to Montreal and sail aboard one of the Allan Line steamships for home on Saturday.

SURPRISE IN THE ST. LEGER

Frank O'Neill, the American Jockey, Pilots Home the Winner.

Doncaster, England, Sept. 13.—The St. Leger Stakes, of 6,500 sovereigns, for entire colts and fillies foaled in 1908, was run at the meeting here to-day and won by Prince Palatine. Lycaon was second and King William third. Eight horses ran.

The winner was ridden by Frank O'Neill, the American jockey, who is riding for W. K. Vanderbilt in France. The victory was an easy one for Prince Palatine, which won by six lengths. The result of the race was a surprise, as both second and third horses were fancied to win.

WESLEYAN ELEVEN AT WORK.
