WIFE NAMES STEPMOTHER

Accused of Kissing Nobleman's Toe, She Retaliates.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]

Nyack, N. Y., Oct. 18.—A divorce suit in which one witness testified "he called her dearie and she called him bubby," and in which a counter suit is announced, wherein the wife is accused of humiliating the husband by "publicly kissing" the foot of an Italian nobleman, held the interest of Justice Tompkins and spectators in the Supreme Court in Nyack today.

Mrs. Harriett L. Johnston, wife of Harold P. Johnston, manager of the Jersey City branch of the Colonial Life Insurance Company, was the plaintiff, and she named her stepmother, Mrs. Anna J. Richardson, as corespondent. Mrs. Angie E. Porter, seventy-seven years old, mother of Mrs. Richardson, told the court she had warned Johnston his attentions to her daughter were objectionable. She added that Johnston had played tennis in the day and walked at night a great deal with Mrs. Richardson when Mrs. Johnston was in Europe.

In the affidavit of his counter suit Johnston names as corespondent the Marquis Ludovicco Roccasseca, an Italian nobleman, with whom Mrs. Johnston, her husband charges, travelled in Europe.

Mrs. Evelyn Johnston Weeks testified that she had seen the marquis sit on Mrs. Johnston's lap. The case was adjourned for a week.

AVIATOR FOR GUATEMALA

C. Murvin Wood to Teach Officers of Republic How to Fly.

[From The Tribune Correspondent.]

Hempstead, Long Island, Oct. 18.—C. Murvin Wood, the Moisant aviator who made the flight from Hempstead Plains to Washington in August, left here yesterday for Guatemala, where he will teach officers of the Central American republic to fly.

Captain Dante Nanninni, one of the aids of the Guatemalan President, has been learning to fly here for several weeks. When representatives of his government saw the control he maintained over his biplane they purchased a monoplane. Others will soon be shipped to Guatemala, which is the first of the Central American governments to purchase aeroplanes and have its officers taught their use.

NEWMAN SCHOOL ELEVEN WIN

Hackensack, N. J., Oct. 18.—The Newman School, of Hackensack, defeated Bloomfield High School on the local gridiron this afternoon by a score of 20 to 0. The defence of the visitors could do nothing with Newman's fierce attack.

THE TRIBUNAL

A SUPREME COURT OF ADVERTISING

Investigated Advertisements Indorsed by The Tribune.

Fee Charged for Investigation Arranged in Advance.

Under this classification the man or woman of character and ability wanting employment; the responsible employer wanting reliable and efficient help; the man or firm desiring capital for their business, or those wishing to dispose of anything that will stand the fullest investigation, may go before the readers of The Tribune with their statements indorsed by this paper.

SEEKERS of information about "Tribunal" advertising have at times made complimentary remarks about the friendly manner we have adopted to advertise this classification.

If there is any prospective Tribune advertiser who can use any ability possessed by us in the planning or writing of sincere advertising copy it is at his disposal.

But, like the standard set by The Tribune for "The Tribunal," there must be a foundation of integrity behind any advertising before it can be made effective.

We believe that any business man who has had a fair measure of success must necessarily have methods of merchandizing or business principles around which effective advertising could be prepared.

Advertising is but the expression of individuality, and the individuality of any concern of integrity can be resultfully presented to prospective customers.

We have heard merchants and business men say that if they could, in their inspirational moments, talk to all their customers or clients there would be no limit to progress and growth.

This is exactly what can be done by advertising. An honest product or a business of integrity will suggest inspirational advertising copy.

The Tribune goes into the homes and offices of readers of unquestioned purchasing power. Your advertising in The Tribune will arouse interest in you and your goods because readers believe in Tribune advertising. Confidence unquestionably begets confidence.
