Boston Scores Triumph in Lawn Tennis Battle

The invading lawn tennis players from Boston, representing the Longwood Cricket Club, won five out of six matches yesterday morning and afternoon against the West Side Tennis Club, thereby taking the intercity series by a total of eight matches to one. Karl Behr, the old Yale player and former internationalist, was the only New York man to win his match, which he did by defeating G. P. Gardner, of Longwood, in straight sets.

The West Side club obtained some satisfaction, however, by the clever victory of G. A. L. Dionne, the club captain, over Mr. Sheafe, president of the visiting club. Dionne won by a score of 4-6, 6-3, 6-0. This did not, however, count in the team tournament.

Those who went to the West Side club's courts at Forest Hills were rewarded by the fastest exhibition of lawn tennis seen this year. All the players reeled off their matches at top speed, and the gallery got many opportunities to applaud.

Perhaps the most spectacular contests were those between R. Norris Williams, inter-collegiate champion and a member of last year's Davis Cup team, and F. B. Alexander, long famous in doubles with H. H. Hackett, both here and abroad, and the doubles match between Williams and Johnson, of Longwood, and Hackett and Alexander.

Every man of the four rose to great heights in the doubles match, with Williams overshadowing them all. After a dazzling battle Williams and his partner won in three sets, the scores being 7—5, 5-7 and 6—0.

Then Williams, apparently as fresh as before he started, engaged Alexander in singles, winning from the old Princetonian by a score of 6-2, 10-8. On the opposite court Karl Behr was taking the measure of G. P. Gardner, of Longwood, outplaying his rival and winning by a score of 6-3, 6-1.

Irving Wright, brother of the famous Beals, defeated the towering Llyle Mahan in a lively match, the score going to the Boston man at 6-3, 6-4. Johnson, Williams's partner in the doubles, found stiff opposition in defeating Walter M. Hall, the latter forcing the contest into a three-set affair. The score was 6—3, 1—6, 6—3.

The last match of the day, that between Wright and Gardner and Dean Mathey and Karl Behr, required the playing of forty-two games, many of them at deuce, before Gardner and his partner pulled out a victory at 8—10, 7—5, 7—5.

As has been intimated, Williams was in rare form and seemingly tireless. In his match with Alexander he gave a brilliant example of what he is capable of when the opposition is sufficiently strong. His control over the ball was almost uncanny; in fact, it was his faultless placing down the side lines and his sharp angled 'cross-court shots that won for him.

Many a mile did Alexander travel on his side of the court as he chased Williams's shots. First on one side, then on the other, did the young Boston player shoot the ball. Alexander, although his playing was metoric, could not prevail against such machine-like placing, and finally succumbed after two heart breaking sets.

Paired with Johnson, Williams played even more sensationally than in the singles, and despite the best that Hackett and Alexander could do, the Boston men won the three-set match, taking the last set at love, with the loss of only eight points.

The summaries follow:

Singles—Irving Wright, Longwood, defeated Lyle E. Mahan, West Side, 6—3, 6—4; R. Norris Williams, Longwood, defeated Fred B. Alexander, West Side, 6—2, 10—8; Karl Behr, West Side, defeated G. P. Gardner, Longwood, 6—3, 6—1; Harry Johnson, Longwood, defeated W. M. Hall, West Side, 6—3, 1—6, 6—3.

Doubles—Williams and Johnson, Longwood, defeated Hackett and Alexander, West Side, 7—5, 5—7, 6—0; G. P. Gardner and Irving Wright, Longwood, defeated Behr and Mathey, West Side, 8—10, 7—5, 7—5.

"Nobody Home" on This Court

When Dean Mathey and Karl Behr were in the middle of a hot volley at the net with G. P. Gardner and Irving Wright at Forest Hills yesterday, Behr catching a high lob sent it crashing directly between Wright and Gardner.

Either man could have returned the ball, but didn't. Instead, each leaned forward toward it, each had his racquet poised to catch it, but the ball landed at their feet, scoring a point for Behr and Mathey.

Wright and Gardner were still glancing dumbly at each other when a wit in the gallery remarked in a high treble, "Nobody home!"

Everyone, including Wright and Gardner, joined in the laughter.

CLARK LOWERS THE COLORS OF KRAMER

Jackie Clark, the speedy little Australian cyclist, lowered the colors of Frank Kramer, the American champion, in two out of three heats, at one mile each, of a match race at the Newark Velodrome yesterday.

And the best part of it, from a Clark standpoint, is that Jackie took the second and third heats, after losing the first. It was the first time that the Newark fans saw Kramer beaten in a match race during the thirteen years he has been a champion.

When the race was over the army of 12,000 persons who packed the stands rose as one man and cheered Clark as he made a round of the track.

Kramer outjockeyed Clark in the first heat, ducking under him on the pole, while the latter was riding on the bank and looking for him.

Clark pushed up to Kramer's side in the last half, but couldn't hold the pace, and was beaten by three-fourths of a length.

Clark won the second and third heats by starting off in front and keeping there. When it came to the final sprint Clark blocked Kramer's sprint by riding up and down in front of him.

Two-mile (novice)—Won by Michael Capo, Newark; Andrew Backer, Newark, second. Time, 4:42 2-5.

Two-thirds mile (handicap; professional)—Won by Alfred Goullet, Australia (scratch); Robert Spears, Australia (10 yards), second; Frank Cavanagh, Newark (20 yards), third; Norman Anderson, Denmark (80 yards), fourth. Time, 1:12 4-5.

Half-mile (handicap; amateur)—Won by William Murray, Harrison (120 yards); George Smith, Newark (75 yards), second; Henry Werner, Newark (65 yards), third; Walter White (50 yards), fourth. Time, 0:54 4-5.

One-mile (invitation; professional)—Won by Lloyd Thomas, San Francesco (scratch); Jay Eaton, Newark (70 yards), second; Al Triebel, Newark (85 yards), third; C. H. Georgi, Newark (100 yards), fourth; Willie Coburn, Newark (50 yards), fifth. Time, 1:35 3-5.

One-mile match race (professional; Frank L. Kramer, America, vs. A. J. Clark, Australia)—First heat, won by Kramer; time, 2:56; last twelfth, 12 seconds. Second heat, won by Clark; time, 3:33; last twelfth, 12 seconds. Third heat, won by Clark; time, 2:07 2-5; last twelfth, 12 1-5 seconds.

Ten mile triple match race (professional)—Won by Joseph A. Fogler, Brooklyn; Frank Cavanagh, Newark, second; Alfred Goullet, Australia, third. Time, 19:50.

Two-mile (invitation; professional)—Won by Jenus Bedell, Newark; John Bedell, Newark, second; Peter Drobach, Boston, third; Ernest Rye, Australia, fourth; Ernest Johns, Newark, fifth. Time, 4:37 2-5.

Five-mile (handicap; amateur)—Won by Harry Karser, Bronx (scratch); William Hanley, San Francesco (25 yards), second; Fred Taylor (60 yards), third; Fred Weber, Newark (80 yards), fourth; Thomas Smith (scratch), fifth. Time, 10:35 1-5.

UPSETS ON BRONX COURTS

Galvao, German Player, Advances to Round Before Semi-Finals.

Upsets were the feature of the second day's playing in the Bronx lawn tennis championship tournament on the courts of the Bedford Park Lawn Tennis Club yesterday. M. L. I. Galvao, the German player, advanced to the round before the semi-final by winning two matches, the last one against Allan Tobey, former Princeton crack. The score was 6—2, 6—3.

The first upset occurred when Dr. William Rosenbaum was put out by W. H. Wood, formerly of Columbia University, the score being 8—6, 1—6, 6—4. Wood kept Rosenbaum footing it continually and found many openings in the latter's court.

Robert Le Roy, former intercollegiate title holder, apparently having taken on a new lease of life, defeated B. W. Stair at 6—0, 6—2. His long drives were fast and found the ranges of the court accurately.

The summaries follow:

Bronx championship singles (first round)—Abraham Bassford, jr., defeated E. Fixman, 6—4, 6—2.

Second round—K. M. Boorman defeated F. C. Baggs, by default; J. W. Fox defeated R. Pearsall, by default; G. A. L. Dionne defeated Paul E. Mead, 6—4, 1—6, 6—3; O. C. A. Child defeated W. C. Grant, by default; G. G. Grenz defeated Roland Raymond, 6—1, 8—6; R. C. Baggs defeated T. F. Walsh, 6—3, 4—6, 6—4; Louis Graves defeated A. H. Woods, by default; E. Henderson defeated J. V. Collins, 2—6, 6—3, 6—2; Lincoln Reimer defeated A. M. Lovibond, 6—4, 6—4; A. Bassford, jr., defeated G. L. Robinson, 6—1, 6—3; J. G. McKay defeated Dr. B. F. Drake, 6—3, 6—4; Ingo Hartmann defeated H. Marschalk, 6—0, 6—1; Dr. W. Kugler defeated W. F. Gloede, 6—3, 6—0; B. W. Stair defeated B. J. Baldwin, 6—2, 6—0; Dr. William Rosenbaum defeated H. W. Robinson, 3—6, 6—3, 6—4; Addison Brown defeated E. Behar 6—2, 3—6, 6—2.

Third round—M. L. I. Galvao defeated A. C. Lord, 6—2, 6—1; Allan Tobey defeated Addison Brown, 6—6; 6—3, 6—2; W. H. Wood defeated Dr. William Rosenbaum, 8—6, 1—6, 6—4; Robert Le Roy defeated B. W. Stair, 6—0, 6—2; W. M. Fisher defeated Dr. W. Kugler, 6—3, 6—2; J. G. McKay defeated Ingo Hartmann, 6—4, 7—5; Lincoln Reimer defeated E. Henderson, 6—3, 6—2; Louis Graves defeated R. C. Baggs, 6—4, 6—1; G. G. Grenz defeated O. C. A. Child, 6—0, 7—5; Robert L. James defeated J. W. Fox, 6—2, 6—2; K. M. Boorman defeated F. Hardcastle, jr., 6—3, 6—0; J. H. Steinkamp defeated C. C. Chambers, 6—1, 6—2.

Fourth round—M. L. I. Galvao defeated Allan Tobey, 6—2, 6—3; Louis Graves defeated G. G. Grenz, 9—7, 6—8.

MARSHALL IN CHESS DRAW

Alechine and Lasker Adjourn After Seven Hours' Play.

[By Cable to The Tribune.]

St. Petersburg, May 17.—The second part of the international quintangular chess masters' tournament was begun this afternoon. Alechine played Lasker and Tarrasch opposed Marshall, while Capablanca had a bye. This was the sixth round of the contest.

Marshall, by drawing his game with Tarrasch, maintained his position in fourth place, but, owing to the adjournment of the Alechine-Lasker game after seven hours of play, the standing of the leaders remained unchanged.

The record to date follows:

	W.	L.		W.	L.
Capablanca	10½	2½	Marshall	7½	7½
Lasker	10	4	Tarrasch	7	8
Alechine	8	5

The seventh round, to be played tomorrow, will be contested as follows: Tarrasch vs. Alechine and Lasker vs. Capablanca. Marshall has a bye.

M'DUFFS WIN LAST GAME

Take Hudson United Eleven Into Camp at Huber's Oval.

Winding up a most successful season, the Clan McDuffs, champions of the second division of the New York State Amateur Association, took the Hudson United eleven into camp at Huber's Oval yesterday afternoon by a score of 3 goals to 0.

The McDuffs during the season played eighteen games, winning sixteen, losing one and drawing one. In all the McDuffs tallied seventy goals to their opponents' fourteen. Each member of the team will be presented with gold medals, while the members of the German eleven, runners-up in the competition, will receive silver emblems.

BOILLOT SETS NEW SPEEDWAY RECORD

Circles Indianapolis Track in One Minute Thirty-five and Four-Fifths Seconds.

Indianapolis, May 17.—Georges Boillot, the French automobile race driver, to-day set a new record for one lap at the Speedway when he circled the 2½-mile track in 1 minute 35 4-5 seconds. This is the second time that the record has been broken in three days.

The old record of 1:37, made in 1910, was lowered on Friday by Joe Dawson, who circled the track in 1:36 2-5. Saturday Boillot equalled Dawson's mark and today circled the course in 3-5 of a second less time.

Boillot was practising in preparation for the annual 500-mile race to be held here on May 30.

Harvard Still Leads Way Among College Batsmen

Yale Slumps Badly, While Williams Jumps Into Third Place and Dartmouth Into Fifth.

Harvard made further strides last week toward capturing first honors in batting and increased its average four points, from .291 to .295. The Crimson team up to Thursday had lost only one game out of fourteen played.

Yale slumped badly at the bat, due largely to a fruitless twelve inning game against Pennsylvania. Williams showed an increase in its batting strength, jumping into third place, while Dartmouth also pounded the ball hard and moved up above Princeton, Brown and Columbia.

Pennsylvania fell off badly because of weak hitting in twelve inning games with Yale and Columbia. Amherst dropped down to .165.

Nash and Wingate, Harvard's two leading batsmen up to a fortnight ago, fell off badly. Clark, the Crimson second baseman, jumped to the front ranks, and holds second place with an average of .400. Frye, the Harvard pitcher and pinch hitter, is the real leader, with an average of .409 for nine games. Lowe, of Dartmouth, continued his heavy work with the stick for an average of .375.

TO AVOID TROUBLE OVER GOLF TIES

H. F. Whitney Rules That They Must Be Decided on Day of Match.

SMITH AND MACKIE MAY CLASH AGAIN

Talk of Getting Up Purse for a Return Match Between Pros. at Wykagyl.

Fearful lest there be another misunderstanding regarding the playing off of ties in the qualifying round for the metropolitan amateur golf championship, which begins at Englewood on Wednesday, Howard F. Whitney, chairman of the tournament committee, has called attention to the fact that ties must be decided that day.

It will be recalled that last year at Fox Hills several were tied for the last three or four places, one being Walter J. Travis. The committee decided that the deadlock must be settled at once, and, despite the lateness of the hour, those involved started off. Many had gone home, including Gilman P. Tiffany, of Poweiton.

Travis had prepared to go, and it was the hurry in getting ready for the play-off, along with approaching darkness, that undoubtedly had much to do with his failure to gain the coveted 32. The play was finished on the second hole in absolute darkness, matches being lighted when the remaining contestants holed out so that the cup could be seen.

Whitney wants no misunderstanding this year, and declared that competitors who were either involved or doubtful as to whether or not they had gained the desired positions should remain until official information had been given out.

There is talk up Wykagyl way of getting up a purse for a return match between Alec Smith, the "pro" there, and Isaac Mackie, of Fox Hills. When Smith lost to Mackie on Staten Island last week it was apparent to the friends of the metropolitan open champion that he was not at his best. In speaking of the affair afterward, Smith had no excuses to offer, however, being content to say that he was outplayed. His putting did not anywhere nearly measure up to his past standard, and he explained it was because he was using a different stance.

Since his contest at Fox Hills Smith has shown good golf over the Wykagyl course, one of his recent rounds totalling 73. Alec said last night that he would be glad to have another match with Mackie, and, while he was not doing any bragging, he appeared to think that he would be able to give a better account of himself than he did recently.

GOLF MATCH STIRS UP BRITISH PUBLIC

Excitement Runs High and Betting Is Heaviest Ever Known in England.

Sandwich, England, May 17.—Never has an amateur golf championship meeting been looked forward to with such excitement as that which opens to-morrow for the British title. The accommodations of the little town are totally inadequate for the enormous influx of visitors, numbers of whom must be content to journey up and down from London daily to witness the contests.

There has been more wagering on the result of the tournament than has ever been known in England, and it is said that the London Stock Exchange has neglected its regular business in order to make a book on the championship. It is reported that one firm of commission agents has instructions to get 6 to 1 on Jerome D. Travers, the American champion, to the extent of $150,000 to $25,000, if possible.

While considerable confidence is expressed by the English players that the American endeavor to carry off the championship will not be successful, the abilities of the American contingent, especially Travers, are fully admitted, and ultimate speculation turns on what Howard H. Hilton, the British champion, and Travers are likely to do.

The six players favored by the general public are Harold H. Hilton, the British amateur champion; H. D. Gillies, of London, winner of the St. George's cup last year; Jerome D. Travers, the American amateur champion; John Graham, jr., of Scotland, who recently won the St. George's Grand Challenge cup, and Robert Harris and John Ball, both British players of note.

For a time it was believed that Travers would be handicapped on the Sandwich course by using an iron on the tee, but he has been assiduously practising with a brassie purchased at Hoylake, with the result that he is now playing excellent tee shots, and if the title is to be wrested from England he is regarded as the player most likely to get it.

The course is in good shape and the weather has been hot, with plenty of sunshine. Rain, however, is needed, as the greens are becoming hard.

Much interest has been shown over the sale of Roxton farm, at Rye-Port Chester, N. Y., on Wednesday. The property will be offered by Mr. Kennelly in the Vesey st. salesroom on Wednesday. It comprises 19 villa plots on King st. and Harrison av.

Several stable properties are among the offerings this week, besides a large number of tenement and dwelling house properties in various sections of the city. A complete list of the parcels scheduled to be sold in the downtown and Bronx salesrooms this week follows:
