Horses Race Over Track Deep in Mud

Vandergrift Makes a Show of His Two Opponents in Handicap.

LAHORE FORGETS TO SULK AND WINS PURSE

Strong, a Hot Paddock Tip, Suffers a Stormy Journey at Empire Course.

By HERBERT.

Small fields battled in mud-strife at the Empire City racetrack yesterday, but in spite of this and a wet, raw, gloomy day the good-sized crowd evinced keen interest in the sport, an interest heightened by two or three driving finishes.

Two handicaps—one under selling conditions—were offered in lieu of a stake attraction, and while the card was cut to pieces by scratches on account of the sloppy going, the fields were well balanced enough to prevent what looked like walkovers.

Neylon, the Western jockey, gave further evidence that he is deserving of a ranking with the leaders by riding two winners—King Rox and Loveland. He has been at the track only seven days and has been first to the wire seven times—a fair average.

Jimmy Butwell is sure to carry off the jockey honors of the meeting, which closes to-morrow, as he is far in the lead, with twenty-two winning mounts; but since Neylon's arrival they have been riding at about the same mark, Butwell having eight to the latter's seven.

Kederis is second on the list to date, with fourteen victories to his credit, and there he will stay, as McCabe and Neylon are tied for third place. Joe McCahey, who headed the list at Aqueduct, has not been getting the same choice of mounts, and, further, was idle for several days on the charge of rough riding.

Buxton's abuse of Princess Ormonde in the first race was deserving of censure by the stewards. He flogged the filly mercilessly in an effort to earn third money and varied this by hitting her over the head with his whip because she showed a tendency to run out. He continued this several times, even after the finish, which seemed to be absolutely inexcusable. Many a good horse has been ruined as to temper by just this kind of rough treatment.

James Butler's Militant, the royally bred filly by Ballot—Pope Joan, was graduated from the maiden class in this race after twice failing. Again she was barrier shy and slow to begin, but fairly ran over the pacemakers rounding the turn.

John W. Schorr's Vandergrift, which has been running with the best of the sprinters, had only Othello, the prince of quitters, and Garl to beat in the handicap at six furlongs, and did it with consummate ease. As a matter of fact, he outclassed his opponents, and while his previous race had been ordinary, it needed little improvement to carry him to the front yesterday.

Othello, which is blessed with rare speed but no heart, raced off to a lead of five or six lengths in the first quarter, but Vandergrift ran him down turning for home and just galloped the rest of the way, to win as McCabe pleased.

Lahore, the six-year-old son of Delhi, forgot to sulk in the selling handicap. The soft going favored his tender leg, and with things all his own way he rated along in front and lasted long enough to beat the steady closing and mud-bespattered Any Port a neck.

The time was not so long ago when Lahore went out to do battle with the best of the handicap horses, but recently he has been relegated to the selling platers, and doing none too well. An ailing leg and a sour temper have been offered as excuses, and followers of the sport gradually accepted these and looked about yesterday for something to beat him.

It was not long before the tip circulated that Strong, a Western horse, just revelled in mud, and had worked fast enough to make his field look cheap. In less time than it takes to tell it his name was on most everybody's tongue and quotations were sought on all sides.

Then came the race. Troxler had the mount on Lahore, and rushing him right to the front he was never headed. Nicklaus had the mount on Strong and was in hot water from the flush of the barrier. The horse was bumped and crowded all around the first turn, although the boy with rare courage fought to hold his position and would not pull up. In the run up the backstretch, however, Strong was pinched off, and with all this discouragement it is little wonder he proved such a disappointment.

BUTLER HORSES NOT IN FUTURITY

Other Good Ones Also Not Eligible for Rich Prize of $20,820.

James Butler will not have a starter in the historic Futurity, to be run at Saratoga Springs on August 29.

This fact became known yesterday, when the Coney Island Jackey Club announced a list of fifty-seven colts and fillies eligible for the rich prize.

With ten starters the race will be worth $20,820, by far the richest fixture decided on Eastern tracks this year, but Pebbles, Comely and Marion H., among others of the Butler string, will not do battle for the little fortune.

H. P. Whitney's Prince Henry, W. D. Coe's Hauberk and Senator Camden's Luke, which are ranked high by the official handicapper, are other good ones not eligible, while Phosphor, the property of Schuyler L. Parsons, and the Brookdale Stable's Coquette also must stand in the stable while the struggle is on.

The best of those eligible on what has been seen to date include John E. Madden's Polish and The Finn, C. K. G. Billings's Lampoon, Captain E. B. Cassatt's Trial By Jury, Ral Parr's The Masquerader, the Oneck Stable's Kaskaskia, the Montpelier Stable's Pixy and R. J. Mackenzie's Sea Shell.

The entry of the Butler horses was made void by the death of James R. Keene, the nominator.

GREGG GOES TO RED SOX

Naps Get Two Pitchers and Catcher for Star.

Cleveland, July 28.—Vean Gregg, the star southpaw of the Cleveland Naps, was traded to-day to the Boston Red Sox for Coumbe, A. Ranking Johnson and Ben Egan.

The trade which marks the beginning of a shake-up of the Naps, is expected to better the Red Sox chances of overhauling the Athletics in the American League pennant race.

Gregg has been with Cleveland four seasons. In that time he has won seventy-two and lost thirty-six games. Coumbe and Johnson are promising young pitchers and Egan is a veteran catcher.

ADVENTURES OF ARABELLA CINCH WITH THE NATIONAL LEAGUE

New Recruits May Join McGraw's Forces Soon

Pitchers from the Texas League Expected to Report Within a Few Weeks.

By HEYWOOD BROUN.

Fans who were cheated by the rain will have to wait a long time to see the game between the Giants and the Pirates which was scheduled for yesterday. True, New York and Pittsburgh will meet to-day, weather permitting, but only one contest will be staged, and the game which was lost will not be played until September 22, when the Pirates swing through the East for the last time.

Jeff Tesreau will probably be the pitching selection of McGraw for this afternoon, but there is no telling the choice of Fred Clarke. It may be Cooper.

From now on new men will begin to drop in upon the Giants from day to day. Al Huenke, who did brave deeds in Dallas, is expected almost any day now, but the rooter who fails to pay close attention will probably miss him for Al is not likely to be seen except in the preliminary practice for some time to come.

J. S. Erickson, a lefthander, also of Dallas, is not expected until the end of the Texas League season. Harry Smith, from Savannah, a catcher, is due to report within a few weeks.

John B. Foster, secretary of the Giants, was discussing the Players' Fraternity yesterday and said that although the organization might be admirable in many respects he thought that it had fatal defects from the standpoint of the sport lover. "I think," said Mr. Foster, "that in a measure the fraternity tends to destroy the individuality and independence of a player and thus does much to impair competition."

A college professor in the Middle West has declared for government ownership in the big leagues. Pause, professor. Remember the rumpus caused by the choice of cities for federal reserve banks and then consider the predicament of the committee intrusted with the apportioning of Cobb, Matty, Wagner, Baker and Collins.

Frank Schulte, of the Cubs, will probably finish the season on the bench, for Hank O'Day made a deal yesterday for Pete Knisely, an outfielder from the Birmingham club of the Southern League. Knisely has been hammering the ball hard, while Schulte is far down in the batting averages of the National League. Knisely was once a Red.

A new record price for a minor leaguer may be set if the major league clubs keep bidding for George Cunningham, a pitcher with the Duluth club of the Northern League. Detroit, Chicago and Cleveland, of the American League, and Pittsburgh, of the National League, are all taking part in the auction.

Charlie Herzog is still playing in hard luck. Just when he had a deal fixed up to get Killifer, the slugging outfielder from Milwaukee, Rawlings, one of the men involved in the deal, jumped to the Feds.

BITTER PILL FOR BUFFALO

Skeeters Cut Down Seven Run Lead in Last Innings.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]

Buffalo, July 28.—Buffalo lost a hard game here to-day to Jersey City by a score of 9 to 8.

The home team went in and batted out seven runs in the first two innings, but these were not enough to stave off defeat.

Clymer has a crippled pitching staff, and McConnell tried to win with a bandaged left hand. He did very well for five innings, after which the Skeeters hit him freely. Jersey City used fifteen men to win, three of that number being pitchers.

None but Runts for This Nine

Kid Gleason plans to tour the country after the world's series with a team made up of the smallest men in the American League. The nine will be known as the Runts.

Eddie Cicotte, of the White Sox, will do the pitching, and Ray Schalk will be behind the plate. Candidates for the infield are McInnis, Bush, Foster and Maisel. In the outfield will be Nemo Liebold, of the Naps, probably the smallest man of the lot; Clyde Milan, of the Senators, and Hughie High, of the Tigers.

Gleason says that he is sure his team will play such fast ball that even the games will be short.

THREE PITCHERS FAIL THE INDIANS

Toronto Turns Tables and Wins Easily—Smith a Pinch Hitter.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]

Toronto, Ont., July 28.—Toronto defeated Newark here to-day by a score of 9 to 5.

The Indians used three pitchers, Holmquist, Lee, who pitched to only two men, and Curtis. Frill pitched for the locals and was relieved by Rogge in the sixth. Smith, as a pinch hitter, drove in two runs in the second inning with his double.
