Phillies Drag Giants Further from Top

Champions Lose More Ground in Race for Fourth Pennant.

ALEXANDER WINS HIS SECOND GAME IN ROW

Fletcher and Donlin Exiled by Umpire Because of Their Strenuous Kicking.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]

Philadelphia, Sept. 15.—Being down themselves, the Phillies cannot bear to see anybody up, so they dragged the Giants back from the pursuit of the flying Braves this afternoon. Philadelphia won the game by a score of 4 to 3, and as the Braves were ploughing through the Superbas the Giants lost ground in the National League race, and are now three and a half games behind the Boston Braves. This is the largest margin which the leaders have had up to date. The victory gave the Phillies the series by three games to two.

Grover Cleveland Alexander was not nearly so effective as when he faced the Giants and shut them out earlier in the series. He gave five bases on balls and the Giants made nine hits. Fromme was decidedly effective after the first inning, but Burns unsettled him with an error in the fifth, and a single by Lobert and a triple by Magee, which were combined with the blunder, settled the issue of the game.

Marty O'Toole pitched the seventh and eighth innings. The Giants did not take their defeat with equanimity. Arthur Fletcher was put out for kicking, and Mike Donlin followed him into exile on account of a protest which was equally overanimated.

The Giants bunched hits in the fourth inning for one run, but Grant, who had supplied a very useful hit, marred his work by poor base running and was caught when he took too much ground in rounding first.

The Giants had chances to tie the score in the seventh and ninth innings, and in the eighth a hit would have served to put them in the lead. Grant came to bat in this inning with a man on second base and another on third, with only one out, but he could do no more than raise a fly for Martin. Fred Merkle was even more unsuccessful and did not touch the ball at all in three attempts.

Arthur Fromme, who allowed the Phillies only two hits in the game on Saturday, was found for more safeties than that in the first inning of the game to-day. Hans Lobert, first man up, doubled past third base, and Beals Becker struck out. Magee singled to centre, scoring Lobert, and then stole second. Cravath's three-base hit brought Magee home.

In the fourth the Giants scored once. Doyle hit safely to left, while Burns picked short right as the spot for his single. Fletcher fanned, but would not admit it, so Rigler sent him to the clubhouse. Robertson hit a high fly to Martin, but Grant scored Doyle with a line hit to centre. Harvard Eddie was caught in trying to scramble back to first.

In the first half of the fifth the Giants took the lead. With two men out Fromme walked and Snodgrass put him on third with a double to right. Doyle's smash to left scored both runners. The captain of the Giants took second on the throw-in and went to third when Becker's peg bounded past Killifer. Burns walked, but on an attempted double steal Doyle was nailed off third.

The Phillies were not content to trail and by scoring two runs in their half of the fifth came back into the lead again. With one man out Burns muffed Alexander's fly. Stock, who had replaced Fletcher at shortstop, could do no more than knock down Lobert's hard rap, and Alexander went to second. Becker forced Lobert from Fromme to Stock, but Sherwood Magee broke his bat and the ball as well with a mighty swing which hoisted the sphere to right field for three bases. Cravath walked, but a plan for a double steal was frustrated when Magee was caught at the plate from Meyers to Fromme to Doyle to Meyers.

Snodgrass singled and stole with two out in the seventh, only to be stranded, and in the eighth with one down Stock singled and Robertson doubled, only to have Grant and Merkle prove derelict in their duty. After Byrne had thrown out Meyers, Murray batted for O'Toole and walked. Snodgrass fouled to Magee, but Doyle also received a pass. Burns tapped the ball to Lobert, who tossed to Byrne, forcing Doyle.

But at That He Came in Free

Ball players appreciate an afternoon off just as much as the members of any other profession. Frank Chance, former manager of the Yankees, had his first holiday in many a month yesterday when he resigned his leadership of the club.

Having settled all his affairs and said goodby to the members of the team he was released from the thrall of the diamond. The Polo Grounds had no claim upon him. The Yankees were no more to him than so many Belgians. For the first time the fetter of duty did not bind him to see Boone bat and Sweeney throw.

A free man, he had before him the choice of every kind of entertainment which the great city affords, and so he walked up into the grandstand and watched the ball game.

BRAVES ADD TO LEAD FOR FLAG

Superbas Hit James Hard, but Are Unable to Gain Victory.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]

Boston, Sept. 15.—The Superbas hit James again and again this afternoon, making fifteen hits in all, but they lost to the Braves by a score of 7 to 5, and the Boston team gained one full game on the Giants.

Rucker attempted to stem the Boston advance, but was hammered out of the box in the third inning. Reulbach also was hit hard. Aitchison, the third choice, proved the best pitcher of the afternoon. He allowed only one hit in five innings. Brooklyn rallied in the eighth inning and scored a run. Perhaps the two needed to tie might have been driven home but for a marvellous stop and throw by Maranville. With second and third bases occupied and two out he darted to deep short to make a remarkable pick-up of Stengel's hard smash, and then shot the ball to first in time to beat the runner by a fraction of a second.

Brooklyn found James for two runs in the first inning, and put another over in the second. Gowdy, who was the hitting demon of the day, drove two runs home for Boston with a single in the latter half of the second, but Brooklyn took the lead again in the third with another run. The Braves, however, cut loose in the latter half of the third and scored five times, driving Rucker off the mound and punishing Reulbach.

Evers, Cather and Whitted singled, Schmidt and Smith were passed and Maranville contributed a sacrifice fly. Gowdy doubled and James singled.

JAMES E. SULLIVAN SERIOUSLY ILL

Secretary of A. A. U. Stricken After Attending Games at Baltimore.

James E. Sullivan, secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union and widely known in track and field athletics, is in a serious condition at the Mount Sinai Hospital, where he was taken at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, and operated on for an intestinal stricture.

It was stated last night that while Mr. Sullivan passed an uncomfortable day, he was somewhat improved, but no predictions were made as to the probability of his recovery, while it was admitted that he was "a very sick man."

Mr. Sullivan attended the national championship games in Baltimore last Friday and Saturday, but was stricken on Sunday, after his return to this city.

ADVENTURES OF ARABELLA CINCH WITH THE NATIONAL LEAGUE

MARGARET DRUIEN VICTOR

Captures Dickinson Stake in Straight Heats at Detroit.

Detroit, Sept. 15.—Margaret Druien, the star stake trotter of the Walter Cox stable, added another to her long string of victories when she easily won the Dickinson Stake, for 2:19 trotters, in straight heats at the state fair harness races here to-day.

Etawah, splendidly handled by Geers, captured the Field Stakes, for 2:08 trotters, in three heats.

The 2:17 pace, in which four miles were raced yesterday, dragged through seven heats, Nelda Schnell taking the final three.

Five heats in the 2:04 pace failed to decide a winner. In the fourth heat of this event Sweeney was unseated when Billy M.'s sulky struck the fence. He was severely bruised and had to be carried from the track.

CHANCE BIDS THE YANKEES FAREWELL

Reaches Settlement with Frank Farrell and Peckinpaugh Takes Up the Reins.

Frank L. Chance said goodby to the Yankees yesterday. His resignation was accepted by Frank Farrell after a short conference at the Colonial Hotel.

Roger Peckinpaugh, field captain of the team, was appointed temporary manager and will lead the players on their last campaign in the West. Chance intends to leave for his home in Glendora, Cal., by automobile in a few days.

The resignation of Chance was accepted at his own terms. Mr. Farrell paid him his salary in full for the season, in consideration of which Chance agreed to cancel his contract, which still had one year to run, at $20,000 a year. It was agreed that this was the easiest way around the matter.

Chance made it plain that he was tired of the task of trying to make the Yankees a first division team. Rather than have a man about whose heart was not in his work Farrell agreed to the separation.

As yet no one has been selected to manage the team permanently. Frank Farrell said last night that he had no one in mind. There is a persistent rumor that Jack Dunn, manager of the Baltimore Orioles, will be Chance's successor.

When seen after the game Mr. Farrell said:

"Frank Chance and I parted friends. We are both sorry that the break came. I regard him as one of the best men in baseball, and keenly regret that luck broke so badly for him here. I have no idea who will be the next manager of the team."

HOOSIERS WALLOP TIP TOP PITCHERS

Hit Ball to All Corners of Field and Score Easy Victory.

Hitting the ball to all corners of the lot, the Indianapolis Hoosiers walloped the Brooklyn Tip Tops in the second game of the series at Washington Park yesterday afternoon. The score was 9 to 2.

Joe Finneran, Don Marion and Rudie Somers were mauled for hits which came in clusters and sent the runners scurrying over the plate. Nor were the hits of the common single base variety. Kaiserling broke into the select circles with a triple, while Campbell, McKechnie, Esmond and Carr got doubles. For Brooklyn Evans got his home run, this one to left field, while Cooper got a double.

Although able to solve the delivery of Kaiserling the Tip Tops could not bunch their safeties to any extent, so that nine were left stranded on the lines. Snappy fielding stood the visiting twirler in good stead on several occasions.

INDIANS EASY VICTIMS

Barely Escape Shut-Out at Hands of Providence Grays.

The Newark Indians barely escaped a shut-out at the hands of the Providence Grays, with Ralph Comstock in the box, at Newark yesterday, losing the last game of the final series of the season by the score of 4 to 2.

Powell's fielding for the Grays was of the sensational order. Mike Heckinger led in the attack at the bat for the losers.

"Double" for Messervy in Keen Day's Racing

Addie M. Beats Gainer in the Hindoo Handicap and Charlestonian Wins.

By HERBERT.

"Whitey" Langdon saddled two winners for J. H. Messervy, the Charleston sportsman, at Belmont Park yesterday, and after the fourth race was busy accepting congratulations from his many friends for the "double."

Charlestonian proved his speed in no uncertain way by beating H. P. Whitney's Meeting House and some of the best sprinters of the year in the opening race, a handicap at six furlongs, while Addie M., which ran third in the Futurity last year, won the Hindoo Handicap at one mile and a half, beating Gainer and Spearhead.

Charlestonian, which won the Withers last spring, has been rated a distance horse by many, but his trainer made no secret of his confidence that the Woolsthorpe gelding could win over six furlongs, and this confidence was amply justified.

Meeting House, Buskin, which was making his first appearance since the Brooklyn Handicap, when he was beaten a head by Buckhorn, Spring Board, Yankee Notions and Hester Prynne were among the fast ones opposed to Charlestonian, but he had speed enough to go right along with the pace and courage enough in the final drive to outlast Meeting House. He ran the distance in 1:12 1-5, a thoroughly good performance.

After the spring meeting at Belmont Park Charlestonian trained off, and finally Mr. Langdon gave him a rest and freshened him up for two impressive races at this meeting. It will take a pretty good horse to beat him in his present form at anything like even weights.

Gainer Beaten by Addie M.

Addie M., which straightened out Roamer in the Municipal Handicap last Saturday, when that remarkable three-year-old ran a mile and a quarter in 2:04, completed the "double," in the Hindoo Handicap, worth $2,225 to the winner.

Joe McCahey was partly responsible for the victory, as he stole a march on Notter in the run up the backstretch, when he realized the pace was slow, and quickly snatched two lengths which counted in the end, besides making it possible to hold Gainer in a pocket at the stretch turn later.

Gainer, which was running for the first time in the pink, black stripes of his real owner, Mrs. Payne Whitney, practically "died under wraps," as the saying goes. Addie M. had the foot of him in what amounted to a sprint through the stretch, and won going away, after gradually wearing down Captain Cassatt's Spearhead, which made the running.

As said before, the pace was wofully slow, the six furlongs being timed in 1:19 1-5, the mile in 1:45, the mile and a quarter in 2:11, and the full distance in 2:35.

The slowness of the time did not detract, however, from the merit of the performance. Addie M., in receipt of only thirteen pounds, beat Gainer, which ran Strombole to a head a few days ago in the amazing time of 1:36 3-5 for one mile. Notter tried to bring the race down to a point for Gainer and the filly beat him at his own game. It is reasonable to believe that she could have laid off a much faster pace and came on at the end as she did in running second to Roamer.

Timber Wolf Jumps Well.

Thomas Hitchcock showed an accomplished jumper in Timber Wolf, which won the steeplechase for maidens. He is a four-year-old son of Ogden, and quite likely to go on to greater things.

Archibald Barklie's Blankenburg also made a most favorable impression, fencing well, and showing enough speed on the flat to finish a strong running second to what undoubtedly is a high class jumper.

Jimmy McLoughlin was authority for the statement that David Stevenson had decided to
