SOCIETY'S ATTENTION ABSORBED BY WEDDINGS

Hinckley-Hamersley Nuptials To Be Solemnized on Thursday in Grace Church—Pyne-Landon, Stewart-Hostetter and Prescott-Wiggin Ceremonies This Week Also.

UP TO the present time most of the large and important weddings of the fall have taken place at country places near New York, but from now on the majority of them will be celebrated in the city. This week St. Bartholomew's, Grace, the Messiah and other fashionable churches will be the scenes of brilliant weddings, which will bring members of society back into the city, some of them to remain only a few days, while others will open their houses for the winter.

In the Church of the Messiah tomorrow afternoon Miss Marjorie Wiggin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Wiggin, will become the bride of Sherburne Prescott, son of the Rev. Philip Maxwell Prescott, of Washington. Miss Muriel Wiggin will act as her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids are to be Miss Marguerite C. Prescott, of Washington, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Louise P. Fiske, of Brooklyn; Miss Lois D. Sheerer, of Orange, N. J.; Miss Barbara Brewster, Miss Elizabeth D. Coxe and Miss Doris T. Mangam, of New York. Gardner W. Millett, whose marriage to Miss Harriet Coleman Glover will take place on October 31, will be Mr. Prescott's best man, and the ushers will include Philip M. Prescott, of Norfolk, Va.; William C. Marrow, of Washington; Walter M. Boyden, of Plymouth, Mass.; Allen S. Hurlbert, of Boston; Warren Kenney, Alfred B. Meacham, Robert R. Reid and Cornelius Smith, jr., of this city. After the ceremony a reception will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wiggin, 821 Park av.

Miss Agnes Griswold Landon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hutton Landon, of 19 East 53d st., will be married to Moses Taylor Pyne, jr., on Tuesday afternoon in St. Bartholomew's Church. The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Cornelia Landon, as maid of honor, and Miss Catherine L. Hamersley, Miss Beatrice Pratt, Miss Jeannette L. Kissel, Miss Mary Ostrander, Miss Helen Russell and Miss Evelyn Witherbee as bridesmaids. Percy Rivington Pyne, 2d, will be best man, and the ushers will be Malcolm D. Sloane, Newton Rae, Kiliaen Van Rensselaer, Stephen L. Landon, Norman Armour, Emlen M. Drayton, Isaac Wistar Kendall and Marshall H. Russell. Following the ceremony a reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Landon gave a dinner for her attendants Thursday night, and on the same night Mr. Pyne gave his farewell bachelor dinner at the Union Club.

The marriage of Miss Greta Hostetter, daughter of Mrs. Anson Wood Burchard, to Glenn Stewart, of Pittsburgh, will take place next Wednesday at noon in the Latting Chapel, Locust Valley, Long Island. Miss Margaret A. Kennelly will be the maid of honor, and Miss Helen Hyde, Miss Caramai Carroll, Miss Helen Hoffstot and Miss Virginia McKee the bridesmaids. Only relatives and a few intimate friends have been invited for the ceremony, but a large reception and breakfast will follow at Birchwood, the country place of the bride's stepfather and mother, near Locust Valley. A special train will take guests from New York.

In Trinity Chapel next Wednesday Miss Margaret Beekman Fish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius B. Fish, of Garrdale, N. Y., will be married to Bern Budd, of this city. The Rev. William Oscar Jarvis, brother-in-law of the bride, will perform the ceremony. There will be no reception. Miss Dorothy Seton Fish will be her sister's maid of honor and only attendant. Ogden Doremus Budd, jr., brother of the bridegroom, will be best man, and Eliot Lee Ward, William Clinton Burwell, Herman MacGuyer, Rutgers Fish, Chester Dudley Ward, Harvey Clark Pond, Thomas Gaillaudet Budd and Edwin S. Gorham, jr., the ushers.

One of the notable weddings of the autumn is that of Miss Catherine Livingston Hamersley, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Hooker Hamersley, to Samuel Neilson Hinckley, which will be celebrated next Thursday afternoon in Grace Church. Miss Hamersley will have her cousin, Miss Winifred Chisolm, for her maid of honor, and for her bridesmaids Miss Lesley F. Pearson, Miss Dorothy King, Miss Maude G. Shepherd, Miss Alice G. Kortright, Miss Lillian Endicott and Miss Katherine Miller. Mr. Hinckley will have William G. Perry, of Boston, as his best man. The wedding ceremony will be followed by a reception at the home of Miss Hamersley, 1030 Fifth av. Miss Hamersley will give a dinner and dance for the bridal party next Wednesday night. After their wedding trip Mr. Hinckley and his bride will spend the winter at 51 West 55th st.

Miss Elizabeth Belknap, daughter of Mrs. Robert Lenox Belknap, of 8 West 8th st., will be married to Paul Townsend Jones, a son of the late Dr. S. Beach Jones, next Friday at the home of the bride's brother, Waldron Phœnix Belknap, 112 East 80th st. Miss Serena Deas Murphy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Deas Murphy and a niece of the bride, will be the only attendant. Leonard C. Jones will serve his brother as best man. Miss Belknap is a granddaughter of the late Henry Rutgers Remsen and a sister of Maitland Belknap. The engagement of the couple was announced in June, 1913.

In St. George's Church, Newburgh, N. Y., on November 7 Miss Corbin Harper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Harper, will be married to Noel Armstrong, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Maitland Armstrong. The ceremony will be followed by a reception at the Harper country place near Newburgh. The bride will be attended by three little girls, her sister, Katherine Harper, and her nieces, Alice and Caroline Nicoll.

The marriage of Mrs. C. Grosvenor Wyeth and Stephen Guion Williams is to take place on Monday afternoon, November 9, in St. James's Church, Madison av. and 71st st. Bishop Frederick Courtney will perform the ceremony, and there will be no reception.

Miss Jessie Taylor Sherman, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor Sherman, and J. Dominick Hackett, whose engagement was announced about three weeks ago, are to be married on Saturday, November 7. Owing to the recent death of the bride's brother, Frederick Deming Sherman, only members of the two families will be present at the ceremony, which is to be performed at noon at Killenworth, the country home of Miss Sherman's sister, Mrs. George Du Pont Pratt, at Glen Cove, Long Island. Mr. Hackett is the son of the late J. Byrne Hackett, of Kilkenny, Ireland. He is a brother of Byrne Hackett, head of the Yale University Press, and Francis Hackett, formerly literary editor of "The Chicago Evening Post."

Miss Ethel Pennington Tailer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Loring Tailer, will be marrier to Horace G. Cleveland on Wednesday, October 28, at the home of the bride's parents in Ridgewood, N. J. Miss Tailer is a grandniece of Edward N. Tailer, of 11 Washington Square North.

The marriage of Miss Edythe Hewitt, daughteer of Mrs. Robert Hewitt, to Charles Coe Townsend, of this city, will take place on November 4 at the home of her mother in Ardsley, N. Y. On account of mourning only relatives and intimate friends have been invited. The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Bessie Hewitt; Miss Elizabeth Hare Powel and Miss Eleanor Townsend. Edith Hewitt Jaffray, a niece of the bride, will be the flower girl, and Lester Sewall, a nephew of the bride, the page. Arthur Townsend will act as his brother's best man.

Among the weddings of the winter will be that of Miss Elise Bevan Miller, of Baltimore, to Henry Fairfax, son of Mrs. Charles G. Ayres, of this city, which will take place on December 2 at Emmanuel Church, Baltimore. Miss Allison J. Miller will be her sister's maid of honor and only attendant. Mr. Ayers is a brother of Mrs. George Emlen Starr, who was married about a year ago. Mr. and Mrs. Starr arrived in the city last week from New Brunswick, Canada, where they passeed six weeks hunting. They are now with Mrs. Ayers at her home, 200 West 57th st., for a few days before going to their home in Radnor, Penn.

One of the interesting engagements announced last week was that of Miss Marion Dell Carrere, daughter of Mrs. John M. Carrere, to Alan Fox, of this city. Miss Carrère is now with her mother at Red Oaks, their country home in Rye, N. Y. Her father, who was a member of the firm of architects, Carrere & Hastings, died in February, 1911, as a result of an automobile accident. Mr. Fox was a graduate from Yale in 1903, and from the Harvard Law School in 1906. He lives with his mother, Mrs. Alanson J. Fox, at 43 Fifth av.

Unusual interest has been aroused, not only in New York but throughout the country, regarding the benefit performances of the Greek idyl, "Pandora's Box," to be given on December 4 and 5 in the 7th Regiment Armory, under the auspices of the Vacation Committee. The list of patronesses and patrons includes the names of prominent persons in Washington, Providence, Chicago, Cincinnati, St. Louis and Jacksonville, Fla. Among the patronesses in New York are Mrs. Richard Aldrich, Mrs. Archibald Alexander, Mrs. John W. Alexander, Mrs. Vincent Astor, Mrs. Francis McNeil Bacon, Mrs. Edward J. Berwind, Mrs. William H. Bliss, Mrs. Ernest P. Bicknell, secretary of the Red Cross; Mrs. Harold Brown, Mrs. Arthur Scott Burden, Mrs. W. Bourke Cockran, Mrs. Walter Damrosch, Mrs. Henry P. Maynard, Mrs. Ogden Mills, Mrs. William Fellowes Morgan, Mrs. Paul Morton, Mrs. H. Fairfield Osborn, Mrs. Henry Phipps, Mrs. Douglas Robinson, Mrs. James A. Roosevelt, Mrs. Hilborne L. Roosevelt, Mrs. Elihu Root, Mrs. Jacob Schiff, Miss Louise Lee Schuyler, Mrs. William Watts Sherman, Mrs. Charles Robinson Smith, Mrs. James Speyer, Mrs. William D. Straight, Mrs. Samuel Untermyer, Mrs. Frederick W. Vanderbilt, Mrs. Felix Warburg, Mrs. W. Seward Webb, Mrs. George Peabody Wetmore and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney. The patrons are Mayor Mitchel, Seth Low, Joseph H. Choate, Colonel Daniel Appleton, John W. Alexander, Daniel French, Otto Kahn, Louis C. Tiffany and Whitney Warren.

The National Civic Federation, of which Seth Low is the president, has timed its annual meeting to coincide with the giving of the pageant, and so has the executive council of the women's department, Miss Maude Wetmore, chairman. The federation will hold its meetings on December 4 and 5, and will invite its members to the pageant and ball of the Vacation Committee, in place of its regular annual dinner. The women's department will hold its meeting on Thursday, December 3. The pageant will take the place of the annual dinner of this executive council of women. This will bring the delegates of both branches of the federation to New York at the same time and when their presence will be most needed. Delegates from Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New Jersey, Virginia, Alabama, Mississippi, the Carolinas, Florida and the District of Columbia have expressed their desire to be present at these meetings.

Society is taking great interest in the Soirée Artistique which is to be given at the Ritz-Carlton on the afternoons and evenings of November 9 and 10, under the auspices of the Society of Beaux Arts Architects, who so successfully produced last winter at the Hotel Astor the gorgeous Venetian Fête, known as the Ball of the Fine Arts. The proceeds of these performances will be devoted to the Fund for the Relief of Destitute Families of Artists in France, an appeal which comes close to the hearts of all lovers of art throughout America.

Arrangements have been made whereby tables may be engaged for luncheon preceding the performances, and a large number of people have already availed themselves of this privilege. Many well known artists have already generously volunteered their assistance, among whom may be mentioned Miss Grace Hoffman, Miss Carmen de Gonzalez, Miss Igna Sontum, Miss Florence Beyer and George Mitchell. Included in the programme will be the singing of the eighteenth century French songs in costume; the presentation of a one-act French play and a mythological pantomime, "The Judgment of Paris," arranged by Howard Greenley, who will have the general direction of the entertainment in charge.

The committee is composed of Lloyd Warren, Howard Greenley, Henry Hornbostel, Kenneth Murchison, Louis Metcalfe, James W. O'Connor and Arthur Ware. Tickets will be on sale at the Ritz-Carlton two weeks in advance of the performances.

Those who have already accepted the invitations to act as patronesses are Mrs. G. Louis Boissevain, Mrs. J. Stewart Barney, Mrs. Arthur Scott Burden, Mrs. Vincent Astor, Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, Mrs. Kenneth Murchison, Mrs. Howard Greenley, Mrs. Frederick H. Allen, Mrs. Gordon K. Bell, Mrs. William A. Delano, Mrs. Francis M. Bacon, Mrs. Archibald M. Brown, Mrs. William Greenough, Mrs. C. Oliver Iselin, Mrs. Goodhue Livingston, Mrs Willard D. Straight, Mrs. Frederick W. Vanderbilt, Mrs. Thomas Hastings, Mrs. J. Norman de R. Whitehouse, Mrs. W Bourke Cockran, Mrs. R. Livingston Beeckman, Mrs. Albert Gallatin, Mrs. W. De Lancey Kountze, Mrs. W. H Truesdale, Mrs. Otto Kahn and Mrs. Whitney Warren.

The New York Diet Kitchen Association has sent out invitations for a second series of talks on "Current History in the Making," to be given by Mrs. Jessica Lozier Payne at Aeolian Hall, beginning on Tuesday, November 3. Mrs. Payne has just returned from an extensive European trip and comes fresh from the scene of present activities, so a special feature of the talks this winter will be an analysis and explanation of the complicated events and their bearing upon conditions abroad and at home. The talks will be given under the patronage of Mrs. Henry Villard, president of the association; Mrs. William Curtis Demorest and Mrs. Samuel Q. Brown, vice-presidents; Mrs. William Reynolds Brown, secretary; Mrs. Joseph W. Tilton, treasurer, and the board of managers.

Tickets may be obtained at the box office of Aeolian Hall, or from the New York Diet Kitchen Association, 1 West 34th st.

One of the charity entertainments in which society is showing much interest is that to raise a fund for the support of the district nurses in the work of the social service committee of the babies' ward of the Post-Graduate Hospital. It will be given at the Metropolitan Opera House on November 3, when Pavlowa and her company will open an engagement there. Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, jr., is chairman of the committee, and among those working with her for the success of the entertainment are Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, jr., Mrs. M. Orme Wilson, jr., Mrs. Henry Payne Whitney, Mrs. Courtlandt Nicoll, Mrs. Goodhue Livingston, Mrs. Frank Gray Griswold, Mrs. August Belmont, Mrs. William Douglas Sloane, Mrs. Nicholas Longworth and Mrs. J. Norman de R. Whitehouse.

A dance for debutantes and the younger set will be held at the Colony Club on the evening of Monday, November 30, the proceeds to be used for the New York City visiting committee, a volunteer organization which visits all the public hospitals and other institutions in this city, and secures improvements in treatment, nursing, food and housing.

In the press of the Red Cross work it is going to be very difficult to care for our own poor and dependent this winter, and an especial effort is therefore being made to make a success of this affair, which will be the opening dance of the season.

Mrs. William Church Osborn, Mrs. Willard D. Straight, Mrs. C. Grant La Farge, Mrs. Paul Tuckerman and Mrs. William K. Draper are among the patronesses.

A musical is to be given at the summer residence of Mrs. H. O. Havemeyer, Palmer's Hill, Greenwich, Conn., on Sunday afternoon, October 25, at 3 o'clock. The programme will consist of trios and solos by Leo Schulz, leading 'cellist of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra; Leopoldt Lichtenberg, formerly first violinist of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, and Mr. von Inten, as well as arias and ballades, sung by Mme. Handel.

An admission of $1 will be charged, the proceeds to be given to suffrage. Mrs. A. A. Anderson and Mrs. A. Barton Hepburn are among those actively interested in assisting Mrs. Havemeyer to make the musical a success. Mrs. Anderson is the donor of the Milbank fund, which made possible the establishment of the department of social welfare of the New York Society for the Improvement of the Condition of the Poor.

A series of ten dances, organized by Mrs. E. Roscoe Mathews, will be given in the Della Robbia room of the Vanderbilt, beginning Monday, November 2. Among the patronesses are Mrs. Herbert M. Harriman, Mrs. William Astor Chanler, Mrs. Lee Thomas, Mrs. Arthur Iselin, Mrs. J. Gordon Douglas, Mrs. James B. Eustis and Mrs. David Wagstaff.

Mrs. Fairman R. Dick is spending the autumn in her new home at New Rochelle, N. Y.

Mrs. Harry B. Sargent has returned from New Jersey to her town house, 122 East 82d st., for the winter.

Miss Jessie J. Fanshawe will spend the winter with her father, William S. Fanshawe, at 33 West 51st st.

Mrs. J. Murray Mitchell will give a dance next Saturday night at her home in Tuxedo Park.

Mrs. Alvin W. Krech will give a dance at Sherry's on Monday, December 21, to introduce her daughter, Miss Angeline Krech.

Mr. and Mrs. William Church Osborn will return from Garrison, N. Y., to their city house, 40 East 36th st., on November 4.

There Are Several Engagements of Interest on the List of the Past Week's Developments—Well Known Persons Entertain at Functions Both Formal and Informal.

Miss Edith Demarest, the only daughter of Mrs. Burrill Herrick, of Norwich, Conn., will become the bride of Everett Barstow Byles, of Providence, on October 28. The marriage will take place at the residence of the bride's uncle, Charles E. Chapman, in West Brookfield, Mass. Mr. Chapman lived until recently in Flushing, N. Y.

Miss Ruth Chapman will be maid of honor, and Carl Smith, of Norwich, Conn., will be best man. The ceremony, which will be performed at 6 o'clock, will be followed by a supper and dance at the Arcadia Inn.

Miss Sara G. Baer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Baer, of the Hotel Ansonia, will be married to Silas Haas on November 24 at the Hotel St. Regis. Miss Baer will have Mrs. Leon Klee as matron of honor and Miss Martha Haas as maid of honor. Davis Haas will be his brother's best man. Mr. Haas is a son of Mrs. Leopold Haas, of 19 West 96th st.

The marriage of Miss Julia Ernestine Meyer, daughter of Adrian Meyer, of Norfolk, Conn., to John Chambre St. Germans Eliot, of Stratford-on-Avon, England, took place on Thursday in the Church of the Transfiguration. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. G. E. Atwood, of this city. Mr. Atwood was the best man. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. G. C. Houghton and a wedding breakfast followed at the Hotel Biltmore. Mr. Eliot is a son of the Rev. J. C. Eliot, of Stratford-on-Avon.

The marriage of Miss Isabel Marie Denise Carroll, daughter of Mrs. James Carroll, of the Hotel Majestic, to Ambrose Thomas McCafferty, son of James A. McCafferty, of Brooklyn, took place on Wednesday morning in the Church of St. Thomas the Apostle, 118th st. and St. Nicholas av. The ceremony was performed by Father Scallan, assisted by Father McGrath, pastor the church; Father Abbot, Father Boylan and Father Livingston, of the Church of the Sacred Heart at Lake George.

The bride, who was escorted to the altar by her brother, Clarence Carroll, wore a gown of white satin veiled in tulle and pearl trimmings. Her veil of lace was held by a cap of orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a diamond pendant, the gift of the bridegroom. She carried a shower bouquet of white orchids and lilies-of-the-valley.

Mrs. William F. Cullom, the bride's sister, as matron of honor, wore a gown of white and gold brocade with a black velvet hat trimmed with white plumes. She carried American beauty roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Florence McCafferty, was in pink chiffon velvet trimmed with lace and ermine. Her hat was of gold lace and she carried American Beauty roses.

Francis McCafferty was his brother's best man. The ushers were Joseph of Johnstown, N. Y., will serve as ushers.
