TRAVIS IN DOUBLE DEFEAT ON LINKS

Bows to Steiner in a 20-Hole Match—Loses in Play-Off for Medal.

A COMPLETE ROUT OF THE FAVORITES

Douglas, Maxwell, Kendall and Cook Reach Semi-Finals in Lakewood Tourney.

The double defeat of Walter J. Travis, coupled with the elimination of four other fancied ones, conspired to make golf history in the continuation of the tournament on the links of the Country Club of Lakewood yesterday. Travis was beaten in a twenty-hole match with Harold A. Steiner, of Inwood, in the first round, and later on lost to W. R. Simons, of Westbrook, in the play-off of the tie for the qualifying medal, the veteran having 80 and Simons 78. The others who felt the sting of defeat were Fred Herreshoff, Maurice E. Risley, Maxwell R. Marston and C. E. Van Vleck, jr.

As a result of all these upsets, Horace T. Cook, of Trenton; J. R. Maxwell, jr., of Nassau; Percy W. Kendall, of Deal, and Findlay S. Douglas, of Nassau, will come together in the order named in the semi-final matches this morning.

Memory fails to recall a time at Lakewood when there has been such a complete rout of the favorites. Marston had the better of Cook for the greater part of the way, but the Trenton man, who came down to the final round against Travis a year ago last spring, finished strong and won on the home green.

Douglas and Herreshoff were even at the turn, but the erstwhile national champion, who likes the inward nine holes, became 3 up by the time the seventeenth hole was reached. Five years ago this pair had a similar match, when Douglas was also the winner.

Percy Platt, who knows Lakewood well, and recently became a member of the Ridgewood Country Club, set a pace which Risley never could follow. Platt went round in 75, the best of the day. Even so, Risley stood 1 up at the turn, an advantage quickly overcome when Platt reeled off the next six holes in four under fours, ultimately winning by a 3 and 1 margin.

Travis found himself 2 down by the time he and Steiner stood on the seventeenth tee, but the veteran played perfectly and squared the match on the home green. It was his failure to get down a six-foot putt to win the nineteenth that sent the match further.

Steiner's mashie approach bounded over two low bunkers and the road at the next, so that he lay on the green with Travis at the edge in two. Travis took three putts, the last one about three feet, and lost the hole and the match.

Subsequently, Cook defeated Steiner by 2 and 1, the contest being even at the twelfth. Steiner developed a tendency to wildness off the tee late in the match, while Cook, who had not been going any too well, steadied down, for he is a good match player and needs keen competition before doing his best.

Late in the day, Douglas, after being down the greater part of the round against Platt, won his match on the home green. Platt was 2 up, with 3 to play, and Douglas, with a great finish, settled matters. Platt had a three-foot putt on the last green for a half, but the ball bounded out of the cup.

An unusual exhibition of "blow hot and blow cold" was given by Simons in the play-off for the medal with Travis. The last named went out in 34, as against the Florida champion's 45.

Thereafter there was no holding Simons, who returned in 33, and came within a stroke of the record for the last nine. At that, he missed putts on the seventeenth and eighteenth greens. Travis came home in 36.

The card of Simons is as follows:

Out	4	4	3	4	3	4	3	5—33
In	3	3	3	5	4	4	3	5—30	63

First sixteen holes (first round)—Harold A. Steiner, Inwood, beat Walter J. Travis, Garden City, 1 up (20 holes); Horace T. Cook, Trenton, beat Maxwell R. Maloney to Box To-night.

Jack Toland, a welterweight of Philadelphia, and, according to his record, a good welterweight, will face Tommy Maloney, of this city, in a ten-round bout at the Broadway Sporting Club to-night. He has met many of the best men in the welterweight and middleweight classes, and has done some exceptionally clever work. Among others he has whipped Eddie Revoire and Joe Borelli.

The other bouts of the night will be as follows: Benny Leonard vs. Harry Condon, at the Fairmont A. C.; "Young" Drummie vs. "Young" Rector, at Brown's Gymnasium; Andy Coaches vs. Willie Cotton, at the Queensboro A. C.; George Ache vs. Tommy Teague, at the Irving A. C., and "Knockout" Eggers vs. Tommy Welsh, at the Sharkey A. C.

SENIORS AGAIN VICTORS

Beat Sophomores in Water Polo Tourney at Columbia.

The seniors again were victorious in Columbia's inter-class water polo tournament yesterday, defeating the sophomores by the score of 5 to 0.

This gives the seniors a clear lead in the contest for the silver medals to be awarded the winners. Only one more game remains on the seniors' schedule, that with the freshmen, who should prove easy victims.

The game yesterday was well played and closely contested. Neither team scored in the first period, although A. Cooper, for the sophomores, almost succeeded in touching the goal. H. W. Rogers, a senior 'varsity player, knocking the ball from his hand just in time to prevent a score. L. Mouquin, of the 'varsity, made the only score of the game, swimming the entire length of the tank and eluding all his opponents.

The line-up follows:

1914.	Position.	1917.
L. Lane	Forward	H. Lorenz
M. W. Rogers	Forward	A. Cooper
K. Robin	Forward	L. Noole
M. Altenberg	Back	I. Herschfield
M. Palmer	Back	H. R. Rogers
F. A. Hastings	Goal	H. Vanderwaker

Substitutions—1915, L. Mouquin; 1917, N. Hymen, H. Tichborne. Time of periods—Eight minutes.

BAY RIDGE ELEVEN HAS BIG CHANCE

Victory Over Stuyvesant Would Mean Much in Race for Honors.

The chances of Bay Ridge High School establishing itself in the front rank of contenders for the scholastic football championship sway in the balance. This afternoon its eleven will take the field against the Stuyvesant High School team at West End Oval. A defeat for the Brooklyn boys would spoil a record which is clean thus far.

Not only is the team unbeaten, but it is unscored upon. Poly Prep played it to a scoreless tie, but the other games have been won by comfortable margins. Stuyvesant has nothing to lose, and a victory will do little good aside from smoothing feelings which have been ruffled by defeat at the hands of Morris and Clinton.

A hard fought game is in prospect. Stuyvesant was clearly outplayed by Morris, but, according to a good judge, showed to better advantage than Clinton in every department of the game. The lack of football sense by the ends, who failed to diagnose a trick play which was tried four times, allowed Clinton to win.

The Dutchmen have a strong, well-rounded team, powerful in its running attack and with a well-built defence. Clinton, with a line not so strong as Stuyvesant, held Bay Ridge from scoring a touchdown, but could not cope with "Dutch" Karlson's cunning toe.

The High School of Commerce will take the trip to Cornwall and furnish some opposition to the team of New York Military Academy. In the afternoon the players will be the guests of the upstate boys at the Army-Notre Dame game at West Point. Morris will take the field against the eleven of Peekskill Military Academy at Peekskill. Clinton will have a day off.

Adelphi Academy will face St. John's Prep at Adelphi Field in what should amount to little more than a hard practice game. Commercial High School will mingle with Flushing High School at Commercial Field. The Commerce Cubs will meet the second team of Boys' High on the Parade Grounds at Prospect Park this morning at 10:30 o'clock.

There is every likelihood of Commerce being soundly drubbed. The boys have neglected their practice until they scarcely know the signals. The work yesterday was so ragged that the coach finally gave up in disgust.

NOTRE DAME TEAM ARRIVES

Shares Field with Army in Final Practice.

(By Telegraph to The Tribune.)

West Point, Nov. 6.—Nineteen football players from the University of Notre Dame arrived here at noon today to do battle with the Army eleven on the gridiron to-morrow.

The Westerners worked out on the "Plains" this afternoon in an hour's secret drill. They were followed by the cadets, who had an hour and a half's work in final preparation for the game.

Harper's men will be without the services of Finnegan, star halfback, who was left at home. Eichenlaub will not start, the Western coach said tonight. The Army will miss Meacham at guard and Oliphant in the backfield. There is a bare chance for McEwan to get in at centre for the cadets, but Goodman was used there in the signal drill to-day.

FAST DRILL AT WILLIAMS

Jones to Play Quarter in Game with Wesleyan.

(By Telegraph to The Tribune.)

Williamstown, Mass., Nov. 6.—A fast signal practice ended the preparations of Williams for the game with Wesleyan to-morrow afternoon. Fred Daly, the coach, gave his undivided attention to the regulars to-day and watched the men run through the various formations. So far this season the Purple has suffered only one defeat.

Driscoll was back in the line-up after an absence of several days. Jones, substitute quarter, was at the helm. He will start the game to-morrow. In case Wesleyan should prove stronger than is expected De Windt, the regular little quarter, may be sent in to kick a goal. The line-up of the team to-morrow will probably be as follows:

QUAKERS AT DETROIT

En Route to Ann Arbor to Avenge Defeat of Last Season.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 6.—The University of Pennsylvania football eleven, with Brooke in charge, arrived in Detroit this afternoon en route to Ann Arbor for the annual game with Michigan to-morrow.

All of the twenty-five players who made up the visiting squad of football men were reported in the best of physical condition and ready to avenge the 16 to 0 defeat inflicted by the Wolverines last year. Arrangements were made for both forenoon and afternoon practice on a local gridiron to-day, and to-morrow forenoon the players will leave for Ann Arbor.

"We'll give Michigan the surprise of its life," was Brooke's only prediction with reference to the outcome of the game.

Structures Taken in Exchange for Theatre in The Bronx.

PLAN APARTMENT FOR HEIGHTS PLOT

Builders Buy Haven Av. Corner Site—East Side Landmark Sold.

An interesting exchange of property in The Bronx for parcels in the old Greenwich Village section was announced yesterday.

The Sykes Realty Corporation sold to Mark S. Reardon the one story business building, containing a theatre and three stores, on the west side of Southern Boulevard at its junction with Boston Road and 174th st. The property has a frontage of 75 feet and a depth of 130 feet, and is located at the foot of the stairs of the subway station at 174th st.

In exchange for The Bronx property Mr. Reardon gives to the Sykes Realty Corporation the property 494 and 496 Hudson st., extending to 107 to 115 Bedford st. This plot contains old two and three story buildings, and has a frontage of 43 feet on Hudson st. and 83 feet on Bedford st. The southerly line measures 150 feet. The plot is located just south of Christopher st. and adjoins on the north the playground of Public School 3.

Mr. Reardon acquired the downtown property from the New York Trust Company, which in turn bought it at auction on April 23, 1913, at the stand of Herbert A. Sherman.

A cash transaction in the Heights section will result in another apartment house improvement.

Sonn Brothers, under the title of the Chateau Holding Company, have sold the plot, 125x125x irregular, at the northeast corner of Haven av. and 180th st., to Harry and Joseph Falk, who have conducted several important apartment operations on Washington Heights. Their latest project involved the eleven story structure now nearing completion at the north corner of Riverside Drive and 155th st. This was carried on under the title of the Strathcona Construction Company.

In the new operation the sellers make a building loan of $120,000. The site will be improved with a six story elevator apartment house of the highest type, which will be arranged in suites of four, five and six rooms. The Haven plot, along with several other parcels, was sold five years ago at the auction of the holdings of the two syndicates controlled by several big operators.

Hiram Rinaldo has sold for Thomas S. Olive, vice-president of the National Biscuit Company; C. D. Brinckerhoff and Mrs. C. H. Pohle the five story building at 96 Elizabeth st., on a plot 75x100 feet, 52 feet south of Grand st. The new owner is to use the structure for his own business.

The property was known as the old Brinckerhoff baking plant, which figured in the combination that resulted in the present National Biscuit Company. It was sold free and clear of mortgage incumbrance for cash for the heirs of the establishers, Messrs. Brinckerhoff, Olive & Pohle.

The bakery was built about fifty years ago, and was discarded about eight months ago upon the completion of the big plant at 15th st. and the Hudson River. It was originally the Bolivar Biscuit Company, when the plant was merged with other independent bakeries to form the present big corporation.

The Schoen Westchester Realty Company has sold for Julia Dufram 878 Southern Boulevard, a four story new-law house, on plot 33.4x100, between Tiffany and Barretto sts.
