BROOKLYN CHESS CLUB GRIPS TITLE

Deadlocked with Manhattan Team When Time Limit Halts Match.

BLACK, HOWEVER, HAS ADVANTAGE IN GAME

Metropolitan League Tourney Winds Up with Five Keen Contests.

The most important match in the eleventh and final round of the championship tournament of the Metropolitan League, begun on Saturday evening and concluded at an early hour yesterday morning, was the meeting between the Manhattan and Brooklyn chess clubs, contested at the rooms of the former organization.

When time was called each side had scored 3½ points, one game, that between R. T. Black, Brooklyn, and J. Rosenthal, being left unfinished. Black is sure of a victory, being an exchange to the good.

Under the circumstances it may be taken for granted that the Brooklyn Chess Club players will win the championship, inasmuch as they will have to meet the Lyceum club only, a match which they should win hands down, especially after having beaten both the Progressive and Manhattan chess clubs.

The summary of the Manhattan-Brooklyn match follows:

Bds.	BROOKLYN C. C.		MANHATTAN C. C.
1	R. T. Black	ad.	J. Rosenthal	ad.
2	E. G. Wolf	½	J. Lasker	½

7	A. C. Case	½	L. Rosen	½
8	F. F. Russell	1	G. L. Northrup	0
	Total	3½	Total	3½

Brooklyn played the white pieces on the odd numbered boards.

The other matches resulted as follows: Columbia was beaten by the Progressives by 7½ to ½; North Jersey beat Newark Rice at 8 to 0; Lyceum beat the Queen's Gambit Association at 4 to 3, while Washington Heights forfeited all its games to the Staten Island club.

In order to conclude the competition two adjourned games, one from the Progressive-Manhattan encounter and the other from the Brooklyn-Manhattan match, will have to be finished, and the Brooklyn Chess Club also will have to play the postponed match with the Lyceum Club.

The results of the five matches in the eleventh round follow:

North Jersey	0	vs.	Newark Rice	0
Progressive	7½	vs.	Columbia	½
Staten Island	0	vs.	Washington Hts.	0
Lyceum	4	vs.	Queen's Gambit Ass.	3

Football at Columbia Not Mollycoddle Sort

Feeling at University Is That There Will Be a Real Team and a Good Schedule, Too.

Those who have studied the proposed plan for the restoration of football at Columbia and the restrictions which will govern if the plan is approved by the faculty and council are convinced that the sport as played on Morningside Heights will not savor of the mollycoddle. In every way it will be possible, so students, alumni and faculty members alike feel, for Columbia to have a real football team and a real football season.

The only really absolute restriction placed on the game is that requiring that only students in Columbia College will be allowed to play. Columbia College, let it be known, is the undergraduate academic department, and its registration next year will be well over eleven hundred. This will leave, by barring all freshmen, approximately eight hundred potential football players. Princeton has only nine hundred, and that is all Dartmouth can boast. This restriction, then, so it is argued, will serve to intensify Columbia College spirit, while it will not make it impossible to put a really good eleven on the gridiron.

The restriction placed on the schedule that Yale, Princeton, Harvard, Pennsylvania and Cornell be omitted is considered a good one, especially as it does not bar Columbia from meeting such teams as Dartmouth, Syracuse, Carlisle, Williams, Amherst, Lafayette or Lehigh, not to go further afield. A schedule comprising games with all those named, especially if carried through with success, would undoubtedly be highly satisfactory to the average Columbia man. We can wait, they say, for the Big Five and have lots of good games in the interim.

Nor does the fact that all games must be played on college grounds offer the insurmountable obstacles apparent on the surface at first blush. Despite yarns to the contrary, Columbia is not planning to build its stadium at Riverside Park for a good many years. South Field is admittedly inadequate, but there is no apparent restriction against playing on the new City College field at Jasper Oval, where a fair sized stadium is being built. This is a field close to Columbia, and the cordial academic relations existing between the two make it reasonable to believe that Columbia could obtain permission to use the field on certain stated occasions. The college grounds restriction certainly would not be violated.

Then there is the coaching problem. Columbia men are practically a unit in agreeing that a football coach directly amenable to faculty control would solve the problem of the "academic nuisance" which brought about football's downfall in 1905.

Just what kind of a man would be selected is giving the authorities concerned no little food for thought. It is believed that a man of the type of Dr. A. H. Sharpe, of Cornell, or Fred Daly, of Williams, would be most acceptable on Morningside Heights. Inasmuch as the university committee's recommendations and subsequent explanation contained the implied thought that if this scheme of family control should work successfully with football would be applied to all forms of sports on the campus, it is presumed that eventually a man of Al Sharpe's ability and personality would be essential, inasmuch as the football coach would probably be called on to coach other teams, a combination which Cornell has found to be extremely efficacious and which is working out satisfactorily at Williams under Daly and at Union under Fred Dawson, to say nothing of other examples.

BOXING BOUTS ON CARD

Four Ten Round Contests at Long Acre A. C. To-night.

Four good bouts are on the card of the Long Acre Athletic Club for to-night. In the main contest, Johnny Daly will face "Kid" Herman, of St. Louis, in ten rounds. Both boys have met the best of the bantamweight championship aspirants. The other bouts are: Irving Margolies, the late amateur champion, vs. Paulie Edwards; Jack O'Donnell, bantam champion of the Navy, vs. Frankie Brown and Teddy Jacobs vs. Young Lippy.

A special show will be held on Wednesday evening with Young Brown and Phil Bloom, heading a programme of several ten round bouts.

The usual matinee boxing at the Broadway Sporting Club, of Brooklyn, will be held this afternoon. Ten bouts of three rounds are scheduled, to be followed by a ten round affair between Jack Hanlon, of Maspeth, and Jack Driscoll, of South Brooklyn.

Has Won All His Matches and Made High Run in National Amateur Tourney.

Philadelphia, March 7.—The second and concluding week of the fifteenth annual tournament for the national amateur billiard championship opens to-morrow at the Union League with Joseph Mayer, of this city, showing much the best form of any of the seven contestants.

In the three games which he played during the opening week against R. M. Lord, of Chicago; Corwin Huston, Detroit, and E. L. Milburn, Memphis, Mayer had a grand average of 16.64-71, as compared to 6.92-118, made by J. F. Poggenburg, the only other undefeated contestant.

E. W. Gardner, the present champion, has had trouble in getting his stroke, and lost his opening match to R. M. Lord, the young Chicagoan, who is participating in his first national tournament. The champion showed much improved form in his next two matches, defeating Charles Heddon, of Dowagiac, Mich., and Milburn.
