GET STORE IN NEW ASTOR STRUCTURE

Jewellers Will Locate in Building on Part of Old Hotel Site.

TRADING MOSTLY OF DWELLING PROPERTY

Trust Company Sells 79th St. House—Old Greenwich Village Holding Sold.

Vincent Astor has leased to George W. Welsh's Sons, jewellers, the corner store and basement at Broadway and Vesey sts., opposite St. Paul's Chapel, for a long term of years.

This store has about 100 feet of direct street display. The building is to be a seven story structure, and will be ready for occupancy early in 1916. The plans call for three other Broadway stores and a number of small stores in Vesey st. This lease indicates the intention of Mr. Astor to lease the stores only to representative high class retail firms, and the tendency of the building throughout will be of this order. The business of George W. Welsh's Sons, now conducted at 256 Broadway, has been identified with the lower section of the city since 1845, when it was founded by George W. Welsh. The son of the founder succeeded him in 1875, and his grandsons are now continuing the business. Their choice of a new location down town is a striking departure from the prevailing uptown movement, indicating the confidence this house has in the retention of their well established clientele. The lease was negotiated by the Charles F. Noyes Company. It is for ten years at an annual rental of $15,000.

Sales announced follow:

79TH ST—Slavsen & Hobbs have sold for the Broadway Trust Company the 4½ story dwelling house at 121 W. 79th st., on a lot 18x100.2 ft.

GREENWICH ST—Van Vliet & Place sold for L. B. Caldwell to George Faour 441 Greenwich st., southeast corner of Jane st., a story building fronting 24 feet on Greenwich st. and 124 feet on Jane st. The new owner plans to make extensive alterations. The house was built by the grandfather of the present owner, Philip Vilet, who has occupied it for 50 years.

LEXINGTON AV—Slavsen & Hobbs have bought from William B. Osborne 347 Lexington av., a three story and basement dwelling, 20 feet wide, located 100 feet south of the northeast corner of 40th st. This is the first sale of the property in nearly half a century. Harry E. Zittel was the broker in the transaction. The Beekman estate is a seller represented by Douglas L. Elliman & Co.

WASHINGTON AV—William H. Meagher has sold the five story store with stores at 1048 and 1050 Washington av., on the third lot east 170th st., for Dorothy Ann Abraham, Halpin & Halpin were the brokers.

QUIMBY AV—A. J. Bleakley has sold for Edward J. Walsh the two story house on the south side of Quimby av., 100 feet east of Castle Hill av., Quimby av. is the first side street east of Castle Hill av., and four blocks from the north side of Westchester av. Castle Hill av. is the first east side street of Castle Hill av., and 1440 feet north of the Westchester av. elevated station. Bleakley & Bleakley were the brokers.

SEVENTH AV—Charles E. Diesel sold to David M. Schwartz for investment, 2245 Seventh av., a five story flat, located on the northeast corner of 132d st. and Seventh av. Charles E. Hughes, Jr., negotiated the sale.

SEVENTH ST—John N. Goulding sold for Dr. James Bishop, 62 E. 89th st., a four story house, located on the south side of Central Park, which is the remainder of the block front in Park av. The property, which is 25 feet wide, and comprises a plot 25x100.5 feet, is under negotiation for a sale for apartment purposes.

Commercial Leases.

Siver & Co. rented the third loft in 21 and 23 East 26th st. to Henry M. Weil, suite 14 and 15 West 26th st., to Samuel Rosen, third loft in 17 and 19 East 26th st., to Herman Dorman & Co., and the fifth loft in 17 and 19 East 26th st. to Thomas Dorman.

The Dorman Company leased the store at 17 Greenwich av. to The Sovereign, and the store at 19 Greenwich av. to Max Wolf's Manufacturing Company.

The Cross & Brown Company leased the store and basement at 113 Thirty-fifth st. to William A. Starr, the store at 129 to Dr. Paul Zeh, the store and loft in the Warner Novelty Company, Inc., and space at 136 Broadway to Hyman Hirsch, the store at 1231 William st. to Jacob Tunik and Bag Com Holding Co., the store at 128 Seventh av. to Frank Berg.

Van Vliet & Place leased the store at 191 Chambers st. to Samuel Krinsky, the store at 45 Bedford st., to M. Saltzman, the store at 1 E. G. Ferrarin, to M. Sadler, the store at 1 Hudson and Barrow sts., to M. Bandel.

THE WEATHER REPORT

Forecasts and Records of the Last Twenty-four Hours.

Washington, May 20.—The Western disturbances have lost much of their intensity, although low pressure continues generally throughout the West and has extended eastward through the central valleys with the high area to the northeastward rapidly disappearing by way of New England.

Cloudy and unsettled weather prevails over the entire northern and central portions of the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and there were rains over practically the entire area, as well as local showers in the south Atlantic states, Arkansas and Northeast Texas.

There will be local rains Friday west of the Mississippi River, except in the extreme southeast, followed toward by generally fair weather Saturday, except in the extreme Northwest. East of the Mississippi there will be rains Friday and Saturday, although in the form of local thunder showers in the South. It will be warmer Saturday in the plains states and the Rocky Mountain region. Storm warnings are displayed on the Texas coast.

Winds for Friday and Saturday: North Atlantic and middle Atlantic, moderate variable; south Atlantic, moderate east, east and southeast; Gulf, moderate south and southeast; lower Mississippi, moderate southeast and south; upper lakes, moderate northeast and east Friday, with rain; lower lakes, moderate east Friday, with rain.

Forecast for Special Localities—Eastern New York, Western New York, Western Virginia, New Jersey, Virginia, Eastern and Western Pennsylvania, Delaware, the District of Columbia and Maryland, rain to-day and probably to-morrow.

New England, rain to-day and to-morrow.

TRY IT ON YOUR TRAVELS.

Those who are tired of railroad travel may find a hopeful remedy in the diversion of a commercial traveller who spends the lagging hours with such problems as this, says "The Buffalo News." He consults the timetable, ascertains that his watch is thirty minutes slow, discovers that there is one hour's difference in time and the train is fifty minutes late. What station is it?
