A Thanksgiving Prayer

By the REV. JOHN HENRY JOWETT, D. D.

Almighty God, we thank Thee for the spirit of praise. We thank Thee if we can discern the signs of Thy providence upon the common road. We thank Thee if we have not forgotten the miracle of yesterday and its sacred lesson for to-day. But if our gratitude is scanty because our remembrance is faint, let Thy Holy Spirit quicken our memories, that we may recover the lost revelation and may come into Thy presence in the multitude of Thy mercies.

We thank Thee for Thy Church. We adore Thee for her communion in Christ Jesus. We bless Thee for the Blood of the Vine in which she bears her fruit. We glorify Thee for the radiant record of her triumph, for her miracles of grace, for her cloud of witnesses, for her martyrs who have been faithful unto death. We thank Thee for her prophets of the Word, for her sweet singers who by their hymns have enriched our devotion, and for all her unnamed laborers who have toiled in obscure parts of the field. We bless Thee for her inheritance. We thank Thee for her inconceivable wealth and glory which is yet to be revealed. Graciously deepen our purity. Baptize her with the holy fire of passionate love, and deign with her to hasten Thy kingdom from above.

We thank Thee for our country. We bless Thee for all her hallowed privileges and freedom. We praise Thee for all her men and women who have consecrated their strength to her highest good. We thank Thee for enlightened laws, for all wise restrictions of personal liberty, for all that is creative of comradeship between man and man. We bless Thee for all larger vision, for wider fraternal sympathy, for the aspiration that seeks the peace and good will of the race. God bless the President and all who share the government of the realm. Endue them with Thy Holy Spirit and use them as Thy ministers in the kingdom of Thy truth.

Graciously draw us all into closer kinship with Thyself. Save us from slothfulness in Thy service. Deliver us from the infidelity of sin, and from the snare of the world, the flesh and the devil. May our family life be sweet and holy and may the Lord break the Bread of Life at the common meal.

These mercies we ask through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

CHURCH NEWS AND NOTES

Palestine Pageant Opens To-night.

When the doors of the Grand Central Palace are opened to-night at 7 o'clock for the Palestine Pageant and Oriental Exposition, the public will have an opportunity of viewing one of the most unique educational exhibitions ever presented by church workers.

While the main floor of the palace has been transformed into a reproduction of Palestine scenes, showing the streets of Jerusalem, with its bustle of trade and the Oriental coloring of dress and decoration as it was in the days of David, there will also be unique exhibits by prominent local missions.

The Seaman's Mission has erected a mission ship in its section, showing the quarters in which seamen lived aboard ship fifty years ago, and the improved conditions on board vessels of to-day.

There will be many relics and curios displayed that are from 2,000 to 4,000 years old. In one booth will be shown the Potter's House, where will be seen his ancient wheel and where will be produced his earthen lamps, bottles and oil cruses. The weaver's loom, the progenitor of the weaving machinery of to-day, will also be in operation.

Here also will be seen a Bedouin hair tent, which was brought direct from the land of Moab and standing on poles that grew in the land that witnessed the exploits of Joshua.

The musical programme during the exposition will be rendered by the quartet of jubilee singers from the Hampton Institute, who will give selections from the main lecture platform and at their booth on the main floor.

Mrs. Chapin Returns.

Mrs. Mary Etheridge G. Chapin, president of the Boston Metaphysical Club, and a lecturer and worker, will conduct her Sunday morning service, beginning at 11:45, in the Théâtre Français, West Forty-fourth Street, near Fifth Avenue. Her subject will be "Our Land of Fulfilment." Mrs. Chapin is in her studio, in the Berkeley Building, Saturdays and Mondays.

Sixteenth Anniversary.

The Eighth Avenue Mission is celebrating its sixteenth anniversary by a week's special meetings. From a small beginning it has grown to be one of the most useful and helpful institutions of its kind. The mothers of the neighborhood are taught to sew, while their babies and small children are taken care of by the workers, and an evangelistic meeting for them is held weekly. There is a thriving Sunday school, services in the hospital, open air meetings, house to house visiting and splendid relief work for the poor. There has been a Gospel service every night for the last sixteen years. The superintendent, Miss S. Wray, is just completing her fifteenth year of service. The mission has a well deserved reputation for good singing.

BAPTIST COURSE OF LECTURES.

Large audiences are attending the course of lectures held at 10 o'clock on Sunday morning at the Mount Morris Baptist Church, Fifth Avenue, between 126th and 127th Streets, on "Reconstruction Days Among the Nations." The majority of the speakers are in sympathy with the League to Enforce Peace, of which ex-President Taft is head.

Next Sunday Theodore Marburg, of Baltimore, speaks on "Justice Among the Nations." Mr. Marburg was formerly Ambassador to Belgium, and is now chairman of the Committee on Foreign Organizations and vice-president of the League to Enforce Peace.

THANKSGIVING AT ST. JAMES'S.

The Thanksgiving services at St. James's, Fordham, next Thursday will be more elaborate than usual. The first service will be the Holy Communion at 8 o'clock. At 10:30 there will be a festival service, at which the regular choir, augmented by the girls' and boys' choirs, will sing. The girls' choir will wear long robes of gray, with round white collars and white caps, to recall the costumes of the Puritan maidens. The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. DeWitt L. Pilton.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL CONFERENCE.

The National Conference of Daily Vacation Bible School Superintendents and friends of the movement from all the leading cities of the North and from Montreal, Canada, will open in the assembly room of the national association, 90 Bible House, on Monday at 2 p. m. and continue until Wednesday noon. The curriculum of Bible topics for the next four years, the standardizing of training conferences, the relation of the national interchurch schools to denominational groups and the relation of the daily vacation Bible school movement to the Gary system will be discussed.

NEW JEWISH CONGREGATION.

Temple Israel, of Washington Heights, is the latest addition to the houses of worship in greater New York. The temple is located at 523 West 173d Street. Although only recently organized, the congregation is already the largest in the city. Under the leadership of the Rev. Dr. Emanuel Schreiber, rabbi, and Dr. Max Salzberg, cantor, services in English are held every Friday evening at 8:15 o'clock and in German every Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. These services are on the modern order, and the music, with organ and choir, is exceptionally good.

The officers of the congregation are: I. Zimetbaum, president; M. Honig, vice-president; Morris Levy, treasurer, and R. Mendelsohn, secretary. A ladies' auxiliary also has been organized, the officers being Mrs. Silberfeld, president, and Miss Lucy Salzberg, treasurer.

An interesting feature of the new congregation's activities is the Young Folks' League, with a Sunday school comprising more than fifty pupils, divided into two classes. The Sunday school is entirely self governed, the pupils electing their own officers. Meetings of the congregation are held on the first and third Mondays of the month at 8 o'clock in the evening. At 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoons the Sunday school pupils meet for instruction in German and Hebrew. The Sunday school is under the direction of both clergymen, Dr. Schreiber conducting the religious work and Dr. Salzberg the musical part.

In aid of its charitable work the congregation will give an entertainment and dance on December 5 at Wallace Hall, 152d Street and Broadway.

Rutgers to Install Pastor.

The installation of the Rev. Dr. Daniel Russell as pastor of the Rutgers Presbyterian Church, Broadway and Seventy-third Street, will take place tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Dr. Russell comes to Rutgers Church from the Irvington Presbyterian Church, but he is best known to New York as the former pastor of the Harlem Presbyterian Church. He assumed the duties of pastor of the Rutgers Church in September, and under his leadership the work of the church has already been materially increased. For nearly three years the church had been without a pastor.

Among those taking part in the installation service to-morrow night will be the Rev. Dr. Anthony H. Evans, the Rev. Dr. Charles Augustus Stoddard, the Rev. Dr. Arthur J. Brown, the Rev. Dr. Robert Mackenzie, the Rev. Dr. William P. Merrill and the Rev. Richard C. Morse.
