The Last Shall Be First Is John McGraw's Comeback at Wild Bill Donovan

Better Baseball Balance in Big Leagues This Year

First Fortnight of Play Shows Possibility of Several Surprises.

YANKS AND REDS COMING STRONG

Even Cleveland, Inspired by Speaker's Presence, Begins to Show Strength.

The end of the second week of the 1916 baseball season finds the teams of the National and American leagues fighting hard for positions in the race. In the American League the pennant chase is tightening. In the National League Philadelphia has moved into a comanding position in first place.

The National League champions, with the heavy hitting of Luderus, Cravath and Niehoff and steady pitching, went undefeated during the week. Alexander and Demaree showed good form in the box against Boston and New York respectively.

Cincinnati played good baseball both at bat and in the field. The Reds won two games and lost three. Hal Chase seems to have added great strength to Herzog's club. On Tuesday he beat Pittsburgh with a home run in the tenth inning.

Boston played rather listlessly and its pitchers did not appear to be in good form.

Chicago gave the best exhibition in the Western contingent of the National League and by heavy hitting maintained a wining streak. The Cubs' fielding also improved. The pitching was better, McConnell holding Pittsburgh to one hit yesterday.

Pittsburgh showed little improvement over the first week, though Harmon held St. Louis to two hits on Friday.

The Cardinals displayed improved form and moved to a good position in the first division by beating the Reds yesterday.

Brooklyn, which pressed the leaders hard in 1915, has been unable to get started. The pitching has beeen erratic and Robinson has had trouble with his infield.

The Giants were not able to win a game during the week and are now in last place. Manager McGraw's team apparently has not yet struck its stride.

In the American League.

The American League was not affected by postponements, as was the National; consequently there was a greater shake-up in the league standing.

New York assumed Boston's place at the head of the league. The Yankees won four games and lost one through good batting by Baker and Gedeon and midseason pitching. It took them eleven innings, however, to defeat Washington on Saturday. The Yanks meet the Red Sox during the coming week, and a stiff fight for the lead is expected.

St. Louis continued its good work. Its fifteen-inning battle on Saturday with Cleveland to a one-one tie was the longest game played so far this season.

Boston, after losing two games earlier in the week to Washington, lost two more to Philadelphia, on Friday and Saturday. Carrigan's men played well afield, but at the bat and in the box there appeared to be something lacking.

Detroit, through effective hitting and steady work in the box, spurted during the week, winning four games to one lost.

White Sox Erratic.

The White Sox played erratically. Their batting was much weaker than is to be expected from a team having Collins, Jackson, Fournier and other stars in its line-up. However, they found a place in the first division by defeating Detroit to-day.

Batting hard one day and weakly the next, Washington slumped slightly. Walter Johnson met his first defeat on Monday last, at the hands of the Red Sox.

Cleveland showed less winning ability than during the first week, losing a twelve-inning battle on Monday and tieing with St. Louis on Saturday.

Connie Mack's Philadelphia aggregation got into the games-won column on Friday by defeating the Red Sox, and continued the good work by another victory on Saturday.

At this stage the races in both leagues look to be of a character which will furnish many surprises before they are finally decided.

Week's Record in Big Leagues

The week's record in each league of games played, won and lost, with runs, hits, errors, men left on bases and runs scored by opponents, including the games of Saturday, April 22, is as follows:

M'MAHON STARS AT N. Y. A. C. TRAPS

Captures High Scratch Trophy and Leg on Accumulation Cup.

Easter Sunday, notwithstanding the weather, brought a nexcellent field of weather, brought an excellent field of the New York Athletic Club yesterday. Although the light was not particularly good, the majority of the regular events were taken with straight scores of 25 targets.

The best work was done by D. S. McMahon, who won the high scratch trophy with a score of 94 out of a possible 100 targets. He also captured a leg on the accumulation cup with a straight score of 25 targets, and annexed a special with another perfect string.

McMahon was not the only gunner to have a straight score in the shoot for the accumulation prize. R. L. Spotts also turned the same trick. The only other "straight" was made by Conrad Stein, who took the Haslin Cup with a perfect run of 25 targets.

S. P. Williams was the winner of the Travers Island prize, taking the trophy after a shoot-off against R. B. Cole, J. H. Vanderveer, J. M. McLaughlin, jr., and R. R. Debacher. All had full scores of 25 targets in the original shoot for the prize.

R. R. Debacher won the high handicap prize. He took the event on a shoot-off against S. P. Williams. Both had full scores of 100 targets. Nine gunners scored on the tournament cup, each having full cards of 25 targets.

HIGH SCORES FEATURE MANHASSET BAY SHOOT

Eight Gunners Make Perfect Marks at the Traps.

High scoring by all of the eight men who took part in the weekly shoot of the Manhasset Bay Yacht Club was the feature of the sport yesterday. Every man returned a full score of 25 at some period of the four matches contested.

W. S. Silkworth, shooting from scratch, won the high scratch prize, with a score of 95 out of his possible 100, and H. L. Beadel, after winning the leg for the monthly cup, with a full score, captured the high handicap prize, with 97 breaks on his handicap of 8.

D. G. Loomis, W. S. Silkworth, H. L. Beadel, J. W. Alker, Waldo Grose, H. F. Clark and J. D. Bowers tied with full scores in the shoot for the yearly cup, and Loomis won.

The scores follow:

FORDHAM TEAM PLAYS DOWN SOUTH TO-DAY

The Fordham University baseball team left yesterday afternoon on its annual Easter trip. The team opens to-day with Georgetown, in Washington. On Tuesday the Maroon will face Mount St. Joseph's, at Baltimore, and on Thursday comes the Navy game at Annapolis. The team will arrive home on Friday in time to meet Columbia on Fordham Field next Saturday afternoon.

Fourteen players besides Coach Lush and Manager O'Connell will make the trip. Joe Martin will probably pitch against Georgetown, Bob Collins against the Mount St. Joseph's nine and McQuade against the Navy.

Stake Entries Close To-day.

There will be a special closing of entries to-day for the Whitney Memorial Stakes, to be run at the spring meeting of the Piping Rock Racing Association, with Frank J. Bryan, 18 East Forty-first Street. The other stakes for the meeting, as announced in the book of entry blanks now in circulation, close on May 25.

We'll let the sharp Spring winds "blow about" our new Spring overcoats, knowing that their quality will make good.

For example, the rich dark oxfords and blacks; silk lined to the edge or with braid trim.

Most men expect a coat of this character to last more than one season, so here the quality of color is especially important.

All our clothes are fast-color—without any if, and, or but.

When mentioning *"Forefathers' Cloth" the other day we spoke of sizes from 35 to 46 chest.

We should have said from 32 to 46 chest, because we have these handsome Spring suits in youths' sizes too.

We're featuring Combination underwear again this Spring.

CARDS NOSE OUT REDS IN 12-INNING CONTEST

Ames Outpitches Schneider and Beat His Old Cronies.

Cincinnati, April 23.—In a twelve-inning contest here to-day St. Louis won the first game of the series from Cincinnati, 2 to 1. Each team used three pitchers, the final contest being between Ames and Schneider. The score was a tie when they went in.

St. Louis started the scoring in the fourth, when Smith singled, stole second and came home on Miller's single. The local team tied the score in the seventh on a base on balls and two singles.

The Reds were unable to score again, although they made three singles in the eleventh inning. St. Louis made three singles in the twelfth, Miller scoring the winning run.

Gandil Scores on Buck Herzog

Buck Herzog, Kaiser of the Cincinnati Reds, has the reputation of riding his players hard enough to earn a job with Barnum & Bailey. In the Cleveland-Cincinnati series at New Orleans Chick Gandil, who had reached second, was addressed by Herzie.

"Chick, I just missed you by an eyelash this spring," said the Reds' boss. "As soon as I found out you were on the market I tried to buy you, but Cleveland beat me to it."

"Well, I'm mighty glad that eyelash was in the way," returned Gandil, "for, between you, that weather and those knockers in Cincinnati you'd have worn me down to a frazzle."

M'CONNELL GIVES PIRATES ONE HIT

Former Fed Twirler Is Miserly and Cubs Beat the Corsairs.

Chicago, April 23.—George McConnell held Pittsburgh to one hit to-day, a double by Viox, and Chicago shut out the visitors, 3 to 0. McConnell issued one base on balls, also to Viox, in the eighth inning. Up to that time he had pitched twenty-six innings without giving a pass. He struck out five men.

Kantlehner weakened in the sixth inning and walked Mann. Flack's single sent Mann to third, and Schmidt, after catching Williams's foul, threw to second to head off Flack. Mann darted home with the first run.

Kantlehner gave way to a pinch hitter in the eighth inning and his successor on the mound, Mamaux, allowed the locals to score two more runs on Flack's walk, Williams's triple and Zimmerman's sacrifice fly.

New York Soccer Players Win Interstate Argument

Defeat New Jersey Team in Annual Match Game at Paterson by Four Goals to Two.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]

Paterson, N. J., April 23.—New York took the measure of New Jersey in the annual interstate soccer match played this afternoon at Olympic Park, winning a hard-fought contest by a score of 4 goals to 2. The New Yorkers assumed the lead early in the game, led at half time by 1 goal to 0 and thereafter were never overtaken. However, New Jersey's players displayed some rare bursts of speed at various stages of the game.

Play had been in progress ten minutes when McCann, of the Clan MacDonalds, shot New York's first goal from a corner. Despite all of New Jersey's efforts, the New York defence could not be broken down. Cooper made two good runs and Young sent in a long shot that went just over the bar.

The line-up follows:

New York (4).	Position.	New Jersey (2).
Reilly	Goal	Ward
Lavery	Right back	Close
Meyerdierks	Right half	Nell
McCann	Centre half	Adamson
McWilliams	Left half	T. Stark
Ross	Outside right	Ford
Pusey	Inside right	A. Stark
Hardy	Centre	Helmsley

Goals—McCann, Cooper, Young, Hardy. New York; Helmsley, Ward. New Jersey. Time—Halves of 45 minutes.

Both of the games in the semi-final round of the annual cup tie competition of the Metropolitan Football League at Harlem Field yesterday resulted in tie scores, thereby necessitating a replay and another double-header for next Sunday afternoon at the same place.

The line-up of the first game follows:

Greenville (3).	Position.	Fulton-Cameron (3).

ST. ANSELM HARRIER HANGS UP NEW MARK

In spite of the drizzle, Mike Collins, of the St. Anselm's Athletic Club, made a new record in the weekly St. Vincent Ferrer A. C. road race yesterday. His effort of 28:58 for the five miles clipped twelve seconds from the previous best performance.

Frank Rogers, of the home club, was second, after a vain effort to overhaul the winner. George B. Moss, of Holy Cross Lyceum, was third, more than one and a half minutes behind.

Feature Facts For the Fans

George McConnell, of the Cubs, let Pittsburgh down with one hit, a double by Viox, in yesterday's game at Chicago.

Hal Chase got two singles and a double in five times at bat for Cincinnati against St. Louis.

Marty McHale, pitching for the Boston Red Sox, held the Newark Internationals to one hit and no runs in five innings, rain stopping the exhibition.

Graney, of Cleveland, slammed out two home runs during the indians' batting bee against the St. Louis Browns. He scored four times.

Lee Fohl's men batted five St. Louis pitchers without batting an eye.

SCHAEFER PLAYS, YET YANKS WIN

Which Only Proves That Donovan Has a Wonderful Ball Team.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]

Baltimore, April 23.—Germany Schaefer, who has kept himself prominently before the baseball public of late years by his antics in the coacher's box, appears to have a considerable amount of real baseball in him yet. He was one of the members of a makeshift team of New York Yankees that toyed with the Batimore Orioles, of the International League, here to-day. The makeshifters won by a score of 10 to 6.

Schaefer first cavorted about in right field, where he neatly grabbed a trio of skyscrapers. In five efforts at bat he poled out a single and double, accounting for four of his team's runs.

Germany was permitted to try out his side-arm motion in the pitching box in the ninth inning; but it was soon proved that he had no more cunning as a moundsman. After being held in check for eight innings Bill Smith's men pounded the mimic's offerings freely, gathering four runs.

Russell, a Baltimore product, pitched eight innings for the Yankees and held Baltimore to four scattered hits. Thornmahlen performed effectively against the major leaguers until the fifth inning, when a rain of safeties, netting seven runs, drove him to the clubhouse. Sherman then finished the game in rather good style.

Every Yankee, except Captain Peckinpaugh, treated himself to one or more of the fourteen hits made off the Oriole twirlers.

The score follows:
