MAKING MONEY Out of FERTILIZERS

The cotton plant cannot feed on barren land. Study your soil. Find out what it lacks. Then apply the necessary fertilization and the results will surprise you.

See what Mr. W. C. Hays of Smith Station, Ala., did. He says: "I planted about 30 acres of some 'gray sandy land' that had been in cultivation for over 20 years, and used 300 pounds of Virginia-Carolina Fertilizers per acre, and I expect to gather 30 bales from the 30 acres." This is why we say it is the right kind. We have hundreds of letters like this, and even stronger, in praise of Virginia-Carolina Fertilizer for cotton.

Get a copy of the new 1929 Virginia-Carolina Farmers' Year Book from your fertilizer dealer, or write our nearest sales office and a copy will be sent you free. It contains pictures of the capitols of all the Southern States.

Anderson Phosphate & Oil Co.

The Anderson Phosphate & Oil Company has bought a high grade phosphate rock (bone phosphate of lime) and high grade ammoniates, blood, tankage, etc. is making a high grade blood and bone fertilizer. There is no better fertilizer than one with a blood bone basis. Fertilizer is like bread; you can't make good bread unless you have good material to make with. Flour is the foundation of bread and phosphate rock (bone phosphate of lime) is the foundation of fertilizer. There are as many different grades of phosphate rock as there are of flour. We have bought phosphate rock (bone phosphate of lime) which is usually exported to Europe where intensive farming is done, high grade fertilizer is wanted and high results are required. Our ammoniates, blood, tankage, etc., are the best we can get. It is going to clip profits but we will have the satisfaction of making fertilizer that we can offer our home folks, our door neighbors, with confidence, for we believe it is nothing better made. We want you to try it. We want to sell our fertilizer at home. We want the money that is usually paid out for freights in shipping goods away from home and put it in high grade fertilizer that we can sell our folks at home. It pay you to try some of our goods.

up the news and go in directly to the scene of rather than later.

We confess our inability to give a satisfactory answer to this question. The chemist tells us that there is no harm in cotton seed oil, and practical experience not only tells us that it measures up to every requirement of lard, but that it is just as wholesome and ever so much cleaner. But still we have a prejudice against the oil and won't use it until the northern packer has mixed it with more or less questionable hog fat. labeled it under a different name and sold it back to us at a higher price. By the way, is it not possible that our objection to cotton seed oil in food is really a matter of Yankee suggestion? If there were any way to trace the matter to the bottom this is about what we would find. And yet it is as plain as the nose on one's face that if the southern people would assume a frank, open attitude toward the subject, determine on the use of cotton seed oil themselves, brag on it and do all in their power to remove the prejudices of others, the result would be a still more wholesome product than we are now getting at much less cost.

Just for a Little While.

I'd like to be a boy again, Just for a day or two; I'd like to roam through the old home ways.

Just as I used to do, Over the hills and far away, Wandering mile on mile, Nuthin' as shy as blue as it used to be— Just for a little while.

I'd like to mingle with chums of old, Just for a day or two, Wasting the hours of day away, Just as I used to do.

Over the fields and through the lane, Down to the old, worn stile, Hearing the whip-poor-will's shrill cry, Just for a little while.

I'd like to fish in the clear, cold stream Just for a day or two, Watching the cork as it sinks from sight.

Just as I used to do, Over the hills and through the woods, Marching in single file, Searching with chums for big nut trees, Just for a little while.

I'd like to rest 'neath the old home roof, Just for a day or two, Dreaming dreams of the days to come, Just as I used to do.

Over the ashes of yesterday, Sitting I dream and sigh, Wishing that time would take me back, Just for a little while.

—Th. Commoner.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble, it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been thoroughly tested in private practice, and has proved so successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble.

When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Homeopathic Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar bottles are sold in all drug stores. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Honest poverty should be respected and not scorned. It was in the homes of the lowly that we oftenest find Christ when upon the earth and in our day it can be truthfully said that we meet him there oftener than elsewhere.
