FEDERAL BANKS ADD TO RESERVES

Government and Bank Deposits Also Show Increase on Week.

LIQUIDATION IN N. Y. CITY WARRANTS

Philadelphia Reports Gain in Gold Holding of About $4,500,000.

[From The Tribune Bureau.]

Washington, June 10.—Considerable additions during the week to gold and cash reserves are indicated by the regular weekly statement of the Federal Reserve Board, made public to-day. Government and bank deposits likewise show larger figures than at the end of the preceding week.

The gain of over $1,000,000 in total reserve reported by the Boston bank is accompanied by a somewhat larger increase in deposits. In the case of the New York bank the large increases in gold and cash reserves are due largely to liquidation of New York City warrants and the return of gold from the agent for redeemed notes.

In case of the Philadelphia bank a gain in gold of $4,500,000 is accompanied by a change of the favorable balance due from other Federal Reserve banks of $3,500,000, reported the week before, to an unfavorable balance of $1,700,000. Kansas City reports a gain of $1,700,000 in gold, largely the result of liquidation of about $1,000,000 of acceptances and warrants.

Three banks report aggregate purchases of $200,000 of United States bonds. Municipal warrants on hand decreased $13,500,000, the New York, Cleveland, Chicago and Kansas City banks accounting for the greater part of the decrease. The total earning assets of the banks declined about $8,400,000 and constitute now 288 per cent of the paid-in capital, as against 303 per cent the week before, and 221 per cent three months ago.

Almost 37 per cent of the total earning assets is represented by acceptances, more then 33 per cent by United States bonds, 14.6 per cent by warrants, 12.8 per cent by discounts and 2.6 per cent by Treasury notes.

Government deposits increased by more than $1,500,000, mainly at the three Eastern banks, while net bank deposits show a gain of $7,400,000. No change is reported in the amount of Federal Reserve bank notes in circulation.

Federal Reserve agents show a total of $179,471,000 of Federal Reserve notes issued to the banks, against which they hold $170,409,000 of gold and $10,645,000 of paper. During the week Federal Reserve notes were redeemed for each of the twelve banks, the agents returning to the banks gold held against these notes. The banks report $154,079,000 of Federal Reserve notes in actual circulation and aggregate liabilities on Federal Reserve notes issued to them by the agents of $7,593,000.

The figures in detail are as follows:

Northern and Southern New England, showers to-day and probably to-morrow.

Eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia and Virginia, local showers to-day and probably to-morrow.

North and South Carolina and Georgia, probably local thunder showers to-day and to-morrow.

Florida, partly cloudy t-day and to-morrow; probably local thunder showers east.

Alabama and Mississippi, probably fair to-day; to-morrow local thunder showers.

Western New York, partly cloudy to-day and to-morrow.

Louisiana, thunder showers to-day and to-morrow in northern portion; generally fair in southern portion.

Oklahoma, thunder showers to-day and to-morrow; cooler to-morrow.

Eastern Texas, thunder showers and cooler in the interior to-day; to-morrow thunder showers.

Western Texas, generally fair and cooler to-day; fair to-morrow.

Washington, June 10.—The lake storm has lost its intensity, and its centre is now over the lower lake region. Showers and thunderstorms continued in the middle Atlantic states, the Ohio Valley and the region of the Great Lakes, and rains in New England and New York. Another disturbance is over the southern Rocky Mountain region, and a third is over Alberta. These disturbances are causing showers and thunderstorms in the plains states and the north Rocky Mountain region.

Temperatures continue considerably below the seasonal average in the middle Atlantic and New England states, the Ohio Valley and the south portion of the region of the Great Lakes. Much cooler weather is reported from the north plains states and the north Rocky Mountain region, while warm weather prevails in the Gulf states and the South Atlantic states. Indications are that the weather will be unsettled Sunday and Monday over much of the country east of the Mississippi River, with showers throughout the Atlantic states and the Ohio Valley and Tennessee.

No important temperature changes are indicated for the the eastern half of the country during the next forty-eight hours.

Winds for Sunday and Monday.—North Atlantic, fresh east; middle Atlantic, moderate variable; south Atlantic and east Gulf, light variable; west Gulf, moderate to fresh south; upper lakes, light to moderate variable; lower lakes, light variable.
