LETTERS TELL OF PREPAREDNESS NEED

Battleship Fund Aided by 193,334 Contributors, Has Passed $23,000 Mark.

Mobilization for the Mexican border has shown clearly how the country at large stands on the question of defending its citizens. The following letter is only one of a good many thousands filed with it. All declare boldly for such preparation that our fathers, brothers and sweethearts would never have to be mobilized for actual warfare:

"Realizing the calamities that may befall a nation for lack of preparedness, and with grateful appreciation for the country that protects us and allows us to 'roam the world at will and choose our own companions,' we, the Yellow Dogs of Manchester, Conn., Lodge, also our friends, do contribute the amount opposite our names below, to be given to the Marjorie Battleship Fund.

"We ask all members to bark the tidings to nearby lodges, so that when the America is completed we may be proud of the fact that we were instrumental in placing one gun on her deck or one armored plate on her side.

"Permit me to say that the Yellow Dogs are composed entirely of good, square and upright fellows, the cardinal attributes of our order being friendship, fidelity and fun."

"H. W. GOTTSCHALK."

THE WEATHER REPORT

Records for the Last Twenty-four Hours and Official Forecasts.

Washington, June 22.—The storm that was central Wednesday night over Colorado now covers the plains states, and it is advancing slowly eastward. It has been attended by general rains in the north Rocky Mountain region and showers and thunderstorms in the north plains states and the Mississippi Valley. Widely scattered showers are also reported from the Gulf states, Georgia and Florida. A general rise in temperature has taken place over the middle plains states, the Mississippi and Ohio valleys and the middle Atlantic states, while unseasonably cool weather prevails over the north plains states and the northern Rocky Mountain and plateau regions. The indications are that the weather will be generally fair and become unsettled Saturday in the Atlantic states. In the east Gulf states, Tennessee, the Ohio Valley and the region of the Great Lakes the weather will be unsettled, with probably local showers and thunderstorms.

The temperature will rise Friday and Saturday in the Ohio Valley and the lower lake region, and a gradual change to higher temperature is probable in the middle Atlantic and New England states.

Winds for Friday and Saturday.—North Atlantic, fresh west winds and fair weather; middle Atlantic, moderate variable winds and fair weather; south Atlantic and east Gulf, light to moderate variable winds, with local showers; west Gulf, moderate to fresh south winds, with fair weather; upper lakes, fresh and possibly strong south winds, with squalls, showers and thunderstorms; lower lakes, moderate variable winds, becoming southeast and south, overcast weather, probably followed by showers and thunderstorms.

Forecasts for Special Localities—Eastern New York, Eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia, fair to-day, becoming unsettled to-morrow.

New England, fair to-day and probably to-morrow.

North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, probably fair to-day and to-morrow.

Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, probably local thunder showers to-day and to-morrow.

Louisiana, probably fair to-day and to-morrow.

Oklahoma and West Texas, probably fair to-day and to-morrow, somewhat lower temperatures.

East Texas, probably fair to-day and to-morrow, somewhat cooler northwest portion to-morrow.

Local Official Record.—The following official record from the Weather Bureau shows the changes in the temperature for the last twenty-four hours, in comparison with the corresponding date of last year:

	1916.	1915.		1916.	1915.
