BATTLESHIP GIRL WINS GOVERNOR

Martin G. Brumbaugh Tells Marjorie Pennsylvania Is Proud of Her.

ROLLS UP SLEEVES TO WORK WITH HER

Brooklyn Patriots Prepare Plea to Congress to Accept "America's" Fund.

Marjorie Sterrett, the Battleship Girl, was the guest of Harrisburg, Penn., and particularly of "The Harrisburg Telegraph," last Tuesday. She renewed acquaintance with Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh, her former superintendent when she went to school in Philadelphia, greeted thousands of school children, was kissed by a veteran of the Civil War, who wore his uniform in her honor, and received a dollar from the Governor for her Battleship Fund.

She is going to Camp Whitman tomorrow in a special Chalmers automobile to find out just how the "boys" feel up there after they have settled down to the serious business of getting ready for possible war.

Better than the fun in Harrisburg, or the money that was raised for the battleship is a letter which Governor Brumbaugh wrote to her after she came home. It reads:

Miss Marjorie Sterrett,
Brooklyn, New York.
My Dear Friend:

It was a real pleasure to meet you at Paxtang Park on Tuesday and to learn that you are a Pennsylvania girl and a former pupil in the schools of Philadelphia when I was your superintendent.

I am proud of your patriotic endeavor and hope the boys and girls of this country will rally to your call and furnish the funds to give us the America. You have my very best wishes. Sincerely yours,
M. G. BRUMBAUGH.

Inclosed with this letter in his own handwriting, dated at the Executive Mansion, was a dollar. In another day Governor Brumbaugh will receive his battleship pin, and he will surely wear it, for he was enthusiastic about the new battleship. He promised to "roll up his sleeves" and go to work with Marjorie. He said he was proud of the facts that the idea of the United States, the Stars and Stripes and Marjorie were all born in Pennsylvania.

Governor Brumbaugh also told Marjorie that "Sterrett's Gap," just across the river from Harrisburg, was named for one of her forefathers. More than that, he said, Marjorie is a lineal descendant of Ralph Sterrett, the first white child born in Pennsylvania. Marjorie Sterrett comes by her patriotism naturally, and when she thought of the possibility of American boys and girls building a battleship called America, she could not help letting others know about it. She was right, too, in thinking that they would like to help, for she has raised an army of loyal youngsters numbering almost 200,000 in four months. They "sprang to the colors" with a dime apiece. Now a lot of them have promised to match their dimes with those of their friends, and raise an army of 400,000 who wear the battleship pin.

A circular letter has been prepared by a group of patriotic people in Brooklyn. Fifteen thousand of them will be mailed to Congressmen in Washington, asking their support for the Bennet resolution giving the fund raised by Marjorie to the United States of America to be used for the building of a battleship. Those who cannot get a copy of the original letter can cut the letter out of the Sunday Tribune and send that to Washington. There will be so many letters there that some action must be taken. Look for the letter to-morrow morning and be sure to send it.

BAN JOHNSON WOULD CURTAIL PINCHING

Chicago, June 23.—The pinch hitter craze with which baseball managers appear to have become afflicted has a strong opponent in B. B. Johnson, president of the American League, according to a statement made public by him here to-day. He declared that he favored baseball legislation to curb the pinch hitter habit.

Mr. Johnson thinks that managers by constantly shifting their pitchers are not only injuring the pitchers, but are reducing the interest felt by steady patrons of the game in the players.

AQUEDUCT OPENS WITH BROOKLYN

Famous Handicap To Be Feature of the First Day.

At the famous Aqueduct racetrack, on Long Island, the Queens County Jockey Club will inaugurate to-day its 1916 season of thoroughbred competition with the twenty-seventh running of that great American turf classic the Brooklyn Handicap, in which ten of the greatest stake horses of the present day will try conclusions over a mile and an eighth course.

It is not likely that a classier field of speed burners than this Brooklyn Handicap list will meet in any one event this season. Heading the list is Andrew Miller's great little gelding Roamer, which, if he starts, will carry the heaviest impost of the lot—131 pounds. If Roamer is right, however, this will not bother him a bit, as he does not mind weight. Butwell will probably be aboard the Miller entry.

Next came the two Whitney whizzers, Borrow and Pennant, with 126 and 123 pounds up, respectively. Joe Notter has been chosen to ride Borrow, while Tommy McTaggart will almost surely be on Pennant. This pair will undoubtedly give good accounts of themselves.

Following in order come Short Grass, the fast flying English bred five-year-old, owned by Emil Herz, which will carry Jockey Keogh and an impost of 117 pounds; Sand Marsh, winner of the Excelsior and Paumonok handicaps, 113, with Schuttinger in the saddle; Slumber II, 111, with Johnny McTaggart up; Friar Rock, winner of this year's Suburban, 108, with Haynes aboard; Achievement, 100, ridden by Ball; Churchill, 100, with Shilling, and Old Koenig, 98, with McCahey up.

It is somewhat doubtful if the last named horse will start, his win of yesterday's Jamaica feature entitling him to a rest. Besides the Brooklyn, for which $5,000 is added, there will be five other bang-up scampers on the opening card of the Aqueduct season, including a two-mile steeplechase, for which such good brush hurdlers as Abdon, Archdale, Dixon Park, Repentant, El Bart, Mo, Zellwood, Sorrento, Racebrook and others are entered.

Given a fair day, the Aqueduct opening threatens to smash even the record figures hung up at Belmont this year.

Tigers Don't Want Hamilton

Detroit, June 23.—Pitcher Earl Hamilton, of the Detroit baseball club, who recently was obtained from the St. Louis Americans, has been returned to the St. Louis club, it was learned today. The purchase of Willie Mitchell from Cleveland yesterday caused Manager Jennings to dispose of Hamilton, who, like Mitchell, is a left-handed twirler. Hamilton was bought from St. Louis with the understanding that he could be returned within thirty days if his work was not satisfactory.

INJURY SPOILS GOOD BATTLE ON COURTS

W. T. Tilden, 2d, Strains Tendon in Match with J. J. Armstrong.

Wilmington, Del., June 23.—William T. Tilden, 2d, of Philadelphia, conceded the final round of the Delaware State tennis championship to J. J. Armstrong, of Merion, to-day, when he strained a tendon in his leg and was forced to retire from the courts.

Armstrong, who lost the Pennsylvania State title to Tilden last week, will meet George M. Church, present Delaware state champion, in the challenge round to-morrow.

Tilden had won the first set, 6—1, lost the second 6—8, and won the third, 6—3, and each had won four games in the fourth set when Tilden was injured and Armstrong captured the set, 6—4. After a ten-minute rest Tilden endeavored to continue, but after hobbling through one game conceded the match.

Potts, Lakewood, in the semi-final round today by 6 up and 5 to play, while Mrs. Stetson won from Miss Eleanor Chandler, Huntingdon Valley, by 7 up and 5 to play.

THROCKMORTON FINDS MAJOR EASY PREY

Sensational Tennis Star Takes Just Three Sets to Win.

It took young Harold Avington Throckmorton, the sensational Elizabeth tennis player, just three sets to win the postponed final of the New Jersey State tennis title play on the courts of the Morristown Field Club yesterday afternoon. The speedy, erratic Throckmorton went through Cedric Major, the old Cornell runner and tennis crack, 6—3, 6—2, 7—5. Major, outclassed, made a game fight, but his inability to keep his opponent away from the net turned the contest.

Throckmorton hammered with all his customary speed, his ground strokes being so fast that the point was usually decided on the one stroke. If the shot went in, it was the youngster's tally; if out or into the net, Major's.

Major made a desperate attempt to take the third set, running up a lead of 4—2 by steady play. But Throckmorton put on a little more speed and pulled out a victory.
