Ginnell Ejected From Commons; Alleges "Plot"

Sinn Feiner Asserts Government Planned to Assassinate Him

Challenge Is Issued

Billing Invites Shee to Fight Twenty Rounds After Police Interfere

[By Cable to The Tribune]

London, July 26.—Two incidents today tended to upset the usual decorum of the House of Commons. The first was the forcible suspension of Laurence Ginnell, the only out-and-out Sinn Féiner in the house, who insisted on telling of a government plot to assassinate him. The second was the challenge to "mortal combat" issued to Major Archer Shee by Pemberton Billing.

After the question period Ginnell declared that the government had sent secret service men to the house to discredit the Sinn Féin movement, and asserted that had they been searched bombs would have been found on them. His sally provoked roars of laughter, but he continued to read a number of threatening and abusive letters, and then said with a dramatic flourish:

"I believe my life is in danger in this country. If my life is taken my death will be a death for Ireland, and I consider it cheap."

Ordered Ejected

He refused to take his seat when told to do so, and the Speaker ordered his ejectment. The House adjourned while attendants hustled the unruly member out.

Pemberton Billing issued his challenge to Major Archer Shee to fight a twenty-round battle at the National Sporting Club under the Marquis of Queensbury rules. The altercations of the two members over their excitable championship of air service grievances had ceased to interest the House, but yesterday Shee violently attacked Billing for calling certain British officers liars.

Separated by Police

Later they met in the palace yard and came to blows, the police separating them after an indecisive combat, though each suffered sufficient injury to prevent him from appearing to-day. To the delight of the sporting element in the Commons a formal challenge has now been issued, though for a century past members of Parliament have ceased to decide their quarrels by fisticuffs.

The proceeds are to be given to the Red Cross, while the famous referee, Eugene Corey, has already offered his services. Despite the handicap of age the betting favors Shee, but there is reason to believe that the affair will not be allowed to go any further.

Sinn Feiners Out for Another Parliament Seat

London, July 26.—Another electoral contest between the Nationalists and Sinn Féiners is impending. Ex-Mayor Magennis of Kilkenny has been chosen by the Nationalists to oppose William Cosgrave, recently selected by the Sinn Féiners as their candidate for the Kilkenny seat in Parliament.

Quiet in Dublin as Convention Proceeds

Lack of Excitement Considered a Healthy Sign by Press in Ireland

Dublin, July 26.—Even fewer people assembled on College Green this morning to witness the arrival of the delegates to the Irish convention, in session here. No individual caused either any demonstration, admiration or hostility. The complete absence of public excitement is treated by the Dublin press as on the whole a healthy sign. The unanimous selection of Sir Horace Plunkett to be chairman of the convention is welcomed by the newspapers of the various political sides.

At to-day's session of the convention the official report announces a preliminary procedure committee was appointed to prepare proposals, and it was agreed that the convention adjourn until August 8, to enable the chairman, in conjunction with the secretaries, to issue to the members in circular form the material necessary to enable the convention to proceed with its task.

The preliminary procedure committee then held its first meeting, continues the official account, and decided to have a draft of the standing orders for the convention at once drawn up. The committee also asked that Sir Francis Hopwood, the convention's secretary, submit to the members of the committee information in regard to the procedure adopted by the convention that drew up a constitution for the Union of South Africa. The committee will meet again on Tuesday next.

1,000 Cooks Recruited Here for New Army

Supplied by New York Hotels; Chicago to Give 500; Will Go to Training Camps

New York hotels will supply 1,000 cooks for the training camps at which the new army is to be quartered. Chicago hotels have promised 500. For the sixteen camps 3,200 cooks are needed.

The cooks will be divided into two classes. Those in Class A—men who are considered capable of giving instruction in their art—will receive $125 a month. Those in Class B will get $90. All of them will get board, lodging and transportation free.

It was announced yesterday by the Hotel Association of New York City that a national committee of sixteen hotel men had been appointed, each member of which will be responsible for one camp. Joseph Reifeld, proprietor of the Sherman Hotel in Chicago, is chairman of the committee. John McGlynn, of the Hotel Rensselaer, of Troy, will look out for the camp at Wrightstown, N. J., and L. M. Boomer, of the Hotel McAlpin, for that at Yaphank.

Toronto Papers Raise Price

Toronto, Ont., July 26.—All the Toronto daily papers, morning and evening, have announced increases in their subscription rates, effective August 1. Single copies will be two cents instead of one cent and there is an advance of one cent in the annual subscription rate.
