Wife Inquires for Captain's Message; Gets Death Notice

Mrs. Walsh Informed Husband Was Killed in Action October 15

He Had Premonition

Meyer Cohn, Who Wrote Textbook for Fighting Men, Killed October 18

When no cable message reached Mrs. Elizabeth Walsh, of Hempstead, Long Island, yesterday from her husband, Captain M. J. Walsh, who had promised she would receive one November 18, Mrs. Walsh telephoned to the railroad station. She was informed that a message for her had just arrived and hastened to get it.

It was from the War Department and told of the death of her husband in action October 15. He had sent a cable message to her three days before he was killed. They had three children. Before his departure Captain Walsh told his brother-in-law, Captain J. F. Doherty, then adjutant at Hazelhurst Field, that he would sail in the belief that he was to die in France. He asked that nothing be said to his wife concerning this premonition, however.

Lieutenant John H. Gordon, who was seriously injured in an airplane accident in France May 14 when his machine caught fire and fell 800 feet, is the son of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. S. M. Gordon, of 55 Pierrepont Street, Brooklyn. His legs were broken and the bones of his feet crushed. He is twenty-six years old, attended the Friends' School in Washington and was graduated from Yale in 1913.

Lieutenant Jerome E. Kemmerer, of Company D, 327th Infantry, who was killed in action, was married and lived at 1313 Bedford Avenue, Brooklyn. He won his commission at Plattsburg.

Lieutenant Edwin F. Korkus, of the 310th Infantry, who was slightly wounded September 22, is twenty-three years old and lives at 192 Tompkins Avenue, Brooklyn. He was graduated from Columbia University in 1917 and started work at the Columbia Law School.

Private William J. O'Malley, of Company A, 39th Engineers, who died in France from pneumonia, was employed as a conductor by the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad at Scranton, Penn., when the call came for men of railroad experience to volunteer. He enrolled several of his fellow workers and enlisted and was engaged with other American engineers in keeping the front supplied with necessities when he was seized with pneumonia. He lived with a sister, Mrs. Frances Mack, at 266 West Eleventh Street.

Corporal Meyer Cohn, twenty-five years old, killed in France on October 18, was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Cohn, of 25 West 123d Street. He was acting sergeant major at the time of his death. In October, 1917, he entered the service, and last April went overseas with Company G, 325th Infantry. During his stay at Camp Gordon he was engaged in educational work and wrote "Tony Becomes a Soldier," a textbook for soldiers which has gone into a second edition.

Corporal Cohn was graduated from the College of the City of New York in 1915. He was a contributor to "The New Republic" and was a member of the music staff of The New York Tribune for a season.

Camp Mills Prepares To Muster Out Men

Work is Being Rushed on Steam-Heated Frame Barracks

CAMP MILLS, Long Island, Nov. 18.—Buildings at Lufbery Flying Field have been taken down since the declaration of the armistice and work on buildings at Hazelhurst, Mitchel and Roosevelt fields is virtually at a standstill. It is probable that as soon as peace comes these buildings will be torn down. Five thousand acres leased from the Town of Hempstead for a machine gun range will be returned at once.

At Camp Mills proper, however, work is being rushed on steam-heated frame barracks. It is planned to muster out two or three divisions at this camp and none is to sleep under canvas. The workmen have gone back to the eight-hour day from their war-time schedule.

CAMP DIX, N. J., Nov. 18.—Orders were received to-day from the War Department to discharge from military service more than 15,000 of the men here. It is probable that many of the men will get home for Thanksgiving. Most of those discharged will be limited service men now in development battalions.

Secretary of War Baker will make his first visit to this cantonment Thursday, when he will speak at the dedication of the new Salvation Army Hotel at Wrightstown. This camp is to be a demobilization centre for troops returning from France.

King Praises Americans

Sends Message of Appreciation to Admiral Sims

LONDON, Nov. 18.—At the close of the entertainment given for American soldiers and sailors and women war workers at the Palace Theatre tonight Vice-Admiral William S. Sims, commander of the American naval forces in British waters, read a message he had received from the King in answer to a letter sent to the British sovereign by himself and Major General Biddle on behalf of the American sailors and soldiers present. The King's answer read:

"It is with feelings of gratitude and sincere pleasure that I received the letter you addressed to me in the name of the American sailors and soldiers who are assembled this evening under the auspices of the British Committee for Entertaining American Forces. In the unity of our cause and our memories, fostered by comradeship in arms, I see the realization of my finest hopes that the American and English peoples, united by ties of closest friendship, will ever advance together along the path of progress and civilization.

"GEORGE, R. I."

Cheers were given for King George and the national anthem was sung with enthusiasm.

General Gorgas to Return To Retired List Dec. 1

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Major General William C. Gorgas, former surgeon general of the army, will be returned to the retired list on December 1, the War Department announced to-day. General Gorgas was recalled to active duty to make a special study of the health of the army. His report is now before Secretary Baker.

The Casualty List

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The casualty lists made public by the War Department to-day contain the names of 991 officers and enlisted men. Of these, 214 were killed in action, 135 died of wounds, 364 died of disease, 110 were wounded degree undetermined, 155 were slightly wounded and 13 are missing in action.
