Editor Sentinel-Journal:
Once more we will pencil your paper a few thoughts. It has been a long time since we have given any dots.

On last Friday it was our pleasure to be in the town of Pickens about 15 minutes. About five minutes of that time was taken up by business with the probate judge and the other ten we spent in swapping a few words with that loquacious gentleman, M. F. Hester. As everybody knows, "Tup" Hester is about the best informed man in town. He knows everything that is going on in town and when a man comes to town if Tup sees him he soon knows what is going on in that man's section.

But while conversing with Mr. Hester our eyes were flashing about and we noticed many things. Pickens is certainly a hustling little town. It does as much business as any town twice the size of it. We noticed some improvements that had been made since our last visit to the place while others are in the course of construction.

We would have liked very much to have paid the editor of this paper a visit but time would not admit.

As Pickens is the birthplace of the writer he has a warm spot in his heart toward the town. The president of the Norris Mills, Mr. T. M. Norris, has helped the looks of our little town by having the tenant cottages recovered with metal roofing and repainted. This mill is running on full time and has plenty of cotton and is still buying. When this mill stops for lack of cotton or on account of scarcity of money just phone your neighbor that all the mills have closed.

Mr. J. E. Garrett, of Six Mile tells the writer that he pulled 1,400 bundles of fodder and gathered 149 measured bushels of corn off of 13.4 acres of land this year. Who can beat that? Why go to Texas to buy land when South Carolina has such soil as this?

The writer knows when Dr. Chapman sold this land for $12 per acre and now Mr. Garrett says he has been offered $95 per acre for it. It certainly pays any man to feed and care for his land if he expects a good yield. Mr. Garrett has an ideal place to live. A nice residence in a beautiful place within five minutes walk of a Baptist church and a good school.

Floyd—Mauldin.

Woodruff, S. C., Oct. 29, '09. An event of considerable interest to the people throughout South Carolina and especially Upper Carolina was the wedding of Miss Carrie M. Floyd of Woodruff and Dr. L. O. Mauldin of Greenville which took place in the Presbyterian Church here at 2 P. M. to day.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. S. C. Byrd, President of Chicoa College assisted by Dr. J. J. Harrell of the local ministry who by their graceful and impressive manners made memorable the event which will ever be history to the bride and groom and to the numerous friends who witnessed the ceremony. The bride is a charming young lady, a graduate of Chicoa College and for two years since graduating has been a teacher in her Alma Mater.

She is a daughter of Mr. Enoch G. Floyd of this town and a prominent business man here. Dr. Mauldin is a gentleman of the true type. He is a graduate of Clemson College, of the South Carolina Medical College and has done Post Graduate work in some of the leading hospitals and universities of England and Europe.

He has for several years been located in Greenville practicing the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Specialty and is regarded as one of the foremost physicians and specialists of South Carolina.

This wedding is interesting on account of the union by it of two of the distinguished families of the state.

The ceremony was interesting and impressive.

The quaint little church was tastefully decorated with elegantly arranged evergreens and flowers appropriate to the occasion and there were fair maids and genteel grooms in attendance.

The Dame of Honor was Mrs. F. K. Stallworth of Woodruff. The Maid of Honor was Miss Elizabeth Floyd, the bride's sister.

The bridesmaids were as follows: Miss Mabel Kirkpatrick, Fort Mill, S. C. Miss Eleanor S. Urquhart, Blacksburg, S. C. Miss Dell Kilgore of Woodruff. Miss Maggie Bullington of Woodruff.

Miss Estel Rhea of Woodruff. The groomsmen were as follows: Mr. Allen J. Graham of Greenville. Mr. Milton G. Smith of Greenville. Mr. Harry T. Poe of Greenville.

Dr. O. P. Earle of Greenville. Mr. Alvah T. Sublette of Greenville. The best man was Major Frank G. Mauldin of the United States Army, a brother of the groom.

The ushers were Mr. John Floyd of Woodruff and Mr. James Irby of Woodruff. The bride and groom left on the 3:20 train for Washington and points north where after a short sojourn they expect to be at home to their numerous friends in Greenville.

COLOR in Fabrics

Will be a marked feature of the fall and winter season; a great variety of beautiful patterns is being shown.

Some of the new colorings are so attractive that men are apt to neglect the plain blue serge or black Thibet.

We advise you to have at least one good blue or black suit, in addition to the fancy, colored weaves; and a black or Oxford Gray Overcoat in addition to the fancy fabric.

This permits a change, and gives each suit a rest; to get cleaned and pressed. It prolongs the life of all your clothes, to treat them this way.

Look into our show windows, you will see there a display of new models from some of the foremost makers, they represent the latest fashions, and you will spot them at once as winners,
