Out of Town

CAMDEN, N. J., April 21.—Supreme Court Judge Lloyd to-day filed an opinion refusing the application of Pusey & Jones Company for release from the lien of writs attachment, aggregating $88,000, against the Hoboken plant of the company. The injunction was removed upon motion of Attorneys Ott and Carr, representing Sanson & Howland, Philadelphia; Sherwin Williams, of New York; Jones Brown Company, New York; Elwood Antrim, Camden; Herb Rand Company, Ohio, and Cutter Electrical Manufacturing Company, Philadelphia.

The attachment suit was begun April 5 and the company attacked the validity of the writ in view of the recent petition for a receivership made by Bleakley Brothers, of Camden. The judge's opinion dates the lien back to the date of issuance process, despite the recent action. Upon the order of the court, the company advanced bonds for double the amount of the claims of these creditors, and at the same time entered a "general appearance" to the proceedings which put up the bars against any further applying creditors.

The property seized under the writs of these creditors is worth approximately $12,000,000, including unfinished ships valued at $4,000,000.

Chilean Financial Commission Welcomed

Many Bankers and Business Men Attend Luncheon to Visiting Body

Beltran Mathieu, Chilean Ambassador to the United States, was the principal guest of honor at the luncheon of the Pan-American Society of the United States, given at the Bankers' Club yesterday welcoming the Chilean financial commission, which recently arrived in this country. The members of the commission are Eliodoro Yanez, Senator and former Premier of the Chilean Cabinet; Juan Enrique Tocornal, former Minister of Finance of Chile, and Augusto Villanueva, president of the Bank of Chile. More than three hundred American bankers and business men attended the luncheon.

John Bassett Moore, president of the Pan-American Society, welcomed the commission, stating that "the American republics need each other, and in the mutual satisfaction of their needs they should find themselves ever more closely drawn together in bonds of interest and of friendship." Ambassador Mathieu responded on behalf of the commission.

Paul M. Warburg, formerly a member of the Federal Reserve Board, spoke briefly, declaring that he always advocated extensive travel between the United States and Latin-American countries. In the course of his remarks he said that the finances of the United States were never more sound than they are to-day. He called attention to the growing use of acceptances in financing trade, and expressed the opinion that before long there would be a billion dollars of acceptances outstanding.

John Barrett, director general of the Pan-American Union, said that North and South America are closer together than they have been since the Monroe Doctrine became a part of the country's international policy.

Among those present were Augustin Edwards, Chilean Minister to Great Britain; Luis Gomez Carreno, chief of the Chilean Naval Commission to Great Britain; Carlos Silva Vildasola, adviser of the Chilean commission appointed to attend the peace conference; Pedro Aguirre Cerda, former Minister of Public Instruction in Chile; General A. Pinto Concha, former Minister of War and chief of staff of the Chilean army; Thomas Cochran, Charles H. Sabin, James Speyer and Leopold Fredrick.
