Clinton Seems Destined to Win Football Title

Victory Over Stuyvesant Boosts Stock of School: Commerce Improves

De Witt Clinton High School seems to be on the road to another football championship. Although the Red and Black eleven has defeated only one of its Manhattan-Bronx rivals to date, the showing made by its coming opponents does not promise any serious obstacles.

Clinton displayed its punch when it overwhelming Stuyvesant H. S. School, considered its most dangerous opponent, last Saturday by a score of 34 to 0. The Stuyvesant eleven never succeeded in getting the ball within scoring distance. Clinton is making effective use of the forward pass which play has aided it greatly in scoring the majority of its victories. Gumpertz, Blumberg and Eisenberg, of the Clinton backfield, have shown splendid handling of these passes, besides being open field runners and tacklers of high standing. In Lewis and McAvoy, Bill Cook, the Clinton coach, has two of the best line players among the schoolboys in this city.

The High School of Commerce eleven came back in a rather strong manner by holding Morris High School to a no-score tie game in the other game of the local championship series. Neither eleven showed any brilliant playing, although Commerce had a decided advantage in the final scoring. Commerce may still brace up after its most disastrous season, so many veteran and prove a stumbling block to Clinton in its remaining games.

Title honors among the Brooklyn public high schools is still in doubt, although indications point to Erasmus Hall retaining its championship. Erasmus meets its most dangerous opponent, Manual Training, next week. Boys High, which has been the prop boy of winning teams for several years, has not been up to its usual standard this season. Boys High is the running, while Erasmus has a very strong pack of backfield men. Erasmus has defeated Manual Training by a score of 14 to 0, while Boys High was defeated by Manual Training, 7 to 0, and tied Erasmus, 7 to 7. Boys High has defeated Erasmus in the past two years, however, by a score of 7 to 0 and 14 to 0.

Manual's success against Boys High and Erasmus has been wonderful for a team that was not expected to do much this season. Manual's victory over Boys High was unexpected, taking into account the fact that Boys High had been defeated by Erasmus by a score of 14 to 0. Nor was Manual's victory over Erasmus, which was the result of a long forward pass, which Erasmus had made its ground strokes. Erasmus's victory over Boys High was made possible by the wonderful work of Mandell, Erasmus's quarterback, who was the star of the game. Mandell's punting was phenomenal, and his direct passing was wonderful. Erasmus's victory over Manual was made possible by the fact that Manual's never had a chance to get its ground game in the game, while the Erasmus team was able to carry the ball at will through the Manual line. Erasmus's victory over Boys High was made possible by the fact that Erasmus's line was able to hold Boys High's line for downs when it was within the five yard line.

Erasmus's victory over Manual has placed it in the lead for the championship, with Boys High second and Manual third. Erasmus has two games left, one with Boys High and the other with Manual. Erasmus's victory over Boys High and its victory over Manual have
